Your Neighbors Do---

Why Don't You?

Many of your neighbors and friends take advantage of the 50c per ton reduction in the price of coal (except Pea and Buckwheat).

Don't you think it is to your interest to do the same?

It looks prosperous to have 16,000 or 20,000 lbs. of coal put into your cellar and beside the saving in the cost, you get better coal.

Think what it means to have your bins full of coal next Fall. No coal bills to pay at that time of year when living expenses are highest.

You gain in quality and you gain in price.

Send us your order to-day before you forget.

CENSORSHIP FEE

Philadelphia Law-maker Asserts His Measure Is Designed to Take the Place of Senator Daix's Censorship Bill If the Latter Fails of Passage

Representative Stern Says There is Big Fund Now Collected From Movie Men

HIS BILL MADE SPECIAL ORDER

Philadelphia Law-maker Asserts His Measure Is Designed to Take the Place of Senator Daix's Censorship Bill If the Latter Fails of Passage

The Stern moving picture censorship bill, which makes the charge for censoring a moving picture at fifty cents, irrespective of the number of reels, instead of $2.50 a reel as now, was this morning made a special order of business in the House for 10 o'clock next Monday evening.

There was a slim attendance in the House when the bill came up for final passage. The measure was objected to, Mr. Stern, of Philadelphia, who wanted the bill postponed for the present but that plan met with objection and finally a motion making it a special order of business was passed.

A motion supporting his bill said there is a large fund in the treasury of the State censors, accumulated from the present $2.50 fee, and advocated the passage of this bill to aid the moving picture men of the State. Mr. Williams, of Tioga, asked if the bill had the backing of the censor and why, if there is a large fund in the treasury, the censors are asking for an appropriation of $84,000.

The sponsor said he talked to Attorney General Brown on the bill saying that in the event the bill now in the Senate would not pass the moving picture men would still have a bill in the Legislature. He confessed that he did not know the size of the fund the censors had at their disposal but he said he thought the large appropriation asked for, was to pay for the board of censors under the bill in the Senate.

The bill in the Senate is the Daix bill and was introduced at the instance of the J. Louis Breitinger, the chief censor.

Bills passed finally in the House this morning included:

Exempting bequests in trust for preservation of burial lots from payment of collateral inheritance tax.

Revising the system of contracts for supplies by Department of Public Grounds and Buildings.

Authorizing second class townships to enter into contract with water companies for fire protection.

Senate bill amending banking act in order to permit suits for recovery of real estate.

Providing that unseated lands may be sold for school tax.

A number of bills were passed on second reading, but the absence of unseated lands, because of the absence of many of the sponsors. The House adjourned about noon to meet Monday night at 8 o'clock.

MARKET ASSUMES NORMAL ASPECTS AT THE OUTSTART

With Few Exceptions Leading Stocks Were Lower Almost to the Point of Heaviness—U. S. Steel and Other Issues Show Losses

New York, April 22.—Wall Street—With few exceptions leading stocks were lower almost to the point of heaviness at the outset of to-day's operations. U. S. Steel, Union Pacific, Amalgamated Copper and other issues which form the bulk of each session's business declined from material fractions to a point below par.

Western railway shares added to yesterday's losses and Bethlehem Steel also went a point lower. The only feature of pronounced strength was the tobacco issues which gained from 1 to 3 points. Trading lacked the furious activity of recent openings, all offerings being in moderate amounts.

For the first time in over a fortnight, business in the early session held within normal bounds. Standard shares made some recovery from opening declines, but coppers were the conspicuous feature, Amalgamated Copper, Utah,
