WOMAN, 70, ELECTED MAYOR

Mrs. A. R. Canfield Defeats Opponent At Warren, Ill., By Four Votes
Chicago, Ill., April 22.—Mrs. A. R. Canfield, 70 years old, was elected Mayor of Warren, Ill., Tuesday, defeating her opponent by four votes. She is the first woman in Illinois to be chosen chief executive of a municipality. Warren's population is about 1,500.

Sued For Breach of Promise, He Weds Sunbury, April 22.—Miss Marie Illif, a divorcee, and Bert I. Renn, a Sunbury merchant, divorcee, were married here yesterday by the Rev. M. H. Wert. Last February Renn was made defendant in a breach of promise case, brought in the Northumberland county court here by Mrs. Nellie J. Wilson, in which she sought $10,000 damages, alleging that Renn proposed marriage and then jilted her. The suit was withdrawn.

Two Men Hurt in Auto Wreck Lewisburg, April 22.—Their automobile skidding and crashing into the abutment of a bridge near here, E. L. Howell and Ralph Mertz, Northumberland business men, were pinned under the car. Howell suffered a broken collar bone and bruises, while Mertz escaped with slight lacerations.

Two Hurled Into Mine Mahanoy City, April 22.—A steam shovel and two laborers were carried thirty feet into the earth yesterday when the surface at the Mahanoy Colliery strippings subsided. Nicola De Jeaneese, aged 30, sustained a broken back and internal injuries. He was released by a rescue force. His death is expected. The other laborer, Rock Denesio, managed to crawl from the wreckage, escaping with bruises.

NO NEED TO REPEAT SUICIDE Pottstown, Pa., April 22.—After a week of suffering, George Fillman, the 12-year-old lad who emptied a load of shot into his abdomen because he was afraid of being whipped for running away from home, died at a local hospital yesterday. Under the impression he would get well, he said to his nurses, "I'll make a good job of it next time."

"Handcuff King" Is Sent to Jail York, April 22.—Albert Littaur, known in theatrical circles as a "handcuff king" was yesterday sentenced to jail for nine months on a plea of guilty on the charge of larceny as bailee. His crime consisted in obtaining two watches from a local jewelry company on the installment plan and then pawning them.

Growing Children frequently need a food tonic and tissue builder for their good health. Rexall Olive Oil Emulsion containing Hypophosphites is the preparation for this. George A. Gorgas York to Have Curfew for Women York, April 22.—Mayor John R. Lafean has made special arrangements to put into effect immediately an order which prohibits young girls and women from walking the streets of York after 11 o'clock at night. Any woman seen on the street after that hour unless she has a good excuse will be arrested.

Boy Bites Tongue; Bleeds to Death York, April 22.—Carl Gray, the little son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Gray, of near York Haven, accidentally bit his tongue last Thursday. Physicians were unable to stop the flow of blood and the youngster died to death Tuesday. Several physicians tried to save the child's life.

DYING OF NEGRO'S ATTACK

Girl Beaten Insubstantial While Getting Him Food Will Die Towanda, April 22.—A negro tramp attacked Anna Crowl, 18 years of age, so brutally at her home in South Waverly, yesterday afternoon, that she will not survive. The negro was captured and hurried to the county jail in Towanda to await lynching. The negro had asked the girl for something to eat, and while she was preparing it he entered the house and beat her into insensibility. He then stole valuables and fled. S. W. Crowl, father of the girl, tried to get to the negro to shoot him, but was prevented by officers.

VINCENT ASTOR TO BE FLYER

Purchases Flying Boat for Flights on Hudson and at Newport New York, April 22.—Vincent Astor has purchased a flying boat and probably will make trial flights in it within the next few weeks, from the Hudson river near his home, Fern Cliff at Rhinebeck, N. Y. The boat is built for two passengers, and it is said that Mrs. Astor intends making flights with her husband. If the boat proves a success, it is probable that Mr. Astor will take it to Newport this summer. He has had a floating hangar built for the boat, so that it may be towed wherever he desires to take it.
