PICK RELAY TEAMS FOR PENN GAMES SATURDAY

Coach Kirkpatrick Selects Central High Runners and Gaffney Picks Steelton Quarter-Milers—Krallo Captain of Academy Quartet

Quarter-milers who will represent the Central High school in the Penn relays Saturday were picked yesterday by Coach Kirkpatrick after trials on the Island Park track. The team will include Smeltzer, May, McMane, Houtz and Winn. The fifth man will be a substitute as five runners will be taken on the trip.

Coach Kirkpatrick is pleased with the team which made faster time than any team that has represented the school for two years and he is confident that the team will get a place in the Franklin Field games.

The Steelton team picked yesterday by Coach Gaffney is Wueschinski, Sellers, Hoeker and Barber. But four runners will be taken on the trip. Coach Gaffney would not give out the time made by the Blue and White runners but he is confident his team will push the leaders. Both Central High and Steelton will run in the same class Saturday, Central drawing fifty position from the pole and Steelton seventh.

Other schools in this class are Altoona, Reading, Williamsport, Johnstown and several others. This race will be run shortly after 2 o'clock. Both teams will leave Friday for Philadelphia and will be quartered at the Hotel Windsor.

Tech will carry six contestants on its team and will leave Friday afternoon. The squad will be in charge of Coach Peet and Captain Heflinger. Coach Smith will be in charge of the Academy team, which will leave early Saturday morning. Jesse Krall, considered the best runner on the Academy quarter, was yesterday elected captain. Krall is captain of the Romans and is one of the best all around athletes in the school.

SAM CRANE RELEASED

Harrisburg Boy Goes to Richmond International League Team. Those who were turned back for further seasoning are Sam Crane, of Harrisburg, shortstop; Richmond International League team; Hank Bostock, infielder; Newark Internationals; Pitcher Gardiner; Newport News; Joe Sherman, outfielder and pitcher; Jersey City Internationals; Pitchers Veltz, Hamilton and Reed, unconditionally.

NATIONAL LEAGUE

Philadelphia, 6; New York, 1. New York, April 22.—When it comes to philanthropy, Manager John McGraw can give away more than the Rockefeller Foundation. The Giant manager yesterday gave Pitcher George Chalmers back to the Phillies and Chalmers turned right around and molested the New York team with some pitching which resulted in a very disturbing 6 to 1 defeat for the New Yorkers.

R. H. E. Phillies . . . 0 0 4 0 0 0 0 0 2—6 5 0 New York . . . 1 0 0 0 0 0 0 0 0—1 2 0 Chalmers and Killifer; Perritt, Stroud, Frømmé and Smith.

Cincinnati, 1; St. Louis, 0. Cincinnati, O., April 22.—Leach's single, his steal of second, an out by Herzog and a sacrifice fly by Killefer that scored Leach proved the deciding factor in yesterday's game with St. Louis, inasmuch as rain stopped the contest in the fifth inning with the score 1 to 0 in Cincinnati's favor.

R. H. E. St. Louis . . . 0 0 0 0 0 0 0 0—0 3 0 Cincinnati . . . 1 0 0 0 0 0 0 0—1 2 0 Griner and Snyder; Ames and Clarke.

AMERICAN LEAGUE

New York, 8; Athletics, 0. Philadelphia, April 22.—The New York Yankees put the finishing touch to their series with the Athletics at Shibe Park yesterday by administering a shutout. R. H. E. Athletics . . . 0 0 0 0 0 0 0 0—0 3 1 New York . . . 0 3 4 0 0 1 0 0 0—8 5 1 Bressler, Harper and McAvoy; Fisher and Numamer.

Washington, 11; Boston, 3. Washington, April 22.—Bunched hits, bases on balls and errors gave Washington a 11-to-3 victory yesterday in the last game of the series with Boston.

R. H. E. Cleveland . . . 1 0 0 2 0 0—3 6 0 St. Louis . . . 0 0 0 1 0 0—1 4 2 Steen and O'Neill; James, Poorman, Severide, Agnew.

Taking Care of the Children

No parent would consciously be careless of the children. Joe A. Rozmarin, Clarkson, Neb., uses Foley's Honey and Tar for his two children for croup, coughs and colds. He says, "We are never without Foley's Honey and Tar in the house." A distressing cough, sleepless nights, and raw, inflamed throat lead to a run-down condition in which the child is not able to resist contagious or infectious diseases. Foley's Honey and Tar is truly healing and prompt in action. It relieves coughs, colds, croup and whooping cough. Geo. A. Gorgas, 16 North Third street.—Adv.

Advertisement for a clown named "Pat" Moran. Text: "Clown Still A Factor. But the Circus Fun-Maker of To-day Is Strictly Up-to-date. The old-time clown has apparently gone with the old one-ring circus, but the modern Grimaldi seems to hold his own in creating merriment for the public. One of the principal fun-makers of the Barnum & Bailey circus was recently interviewed by a newspaper reporter, and gave some interesting facts in regard to the evolution of the modern circus comedian. 'There has been a revolution in clowning,' he said. 'The time when we could crib our jokes out of the family almanac has gone forever. Now we must be funny without saying anything amusing. A man who wants to make a serious business of clowning must have a standing contract with a tin-shop, own a trained pig or a comedy automobile or be prepared to do anything from handling snakes to rivaling the sword swallower. Of course, he doesn't do these things literally. Everything with him is a matter of burlesque. In the days of the Shakespearean clown, everything he said was in rhyme, and his poetic witticisms were the talk of the town. The vogue of the clown was therefore tremendous, and a single one would command, as in the case of Dan Rice, a salary of $500 a week. The big shows have made the speaking clowns impossible. They couldn't be heard and action has taken the place of speech. Instead of one clown there are fifty, and while no man can command a salary equal to what Dan Rice received, the combined expense to the show is of course many times greater. Naturally, as the speaking clown fell day, when his two sons, Henry and Harry Peffer, aged 7 and 11 years, were returned to the custody of their father through the office of the District Attorney.' The comedy element in the Barnum & Bailey circus is said to form a striking contrast to the sensational features of the big show, which will exhibit here Thursday, May 6.—Adv.
