

For women who desire the exclusive millinery, we have inaugurated

The French Room

The millinery in this room does not command a higher price than that on our second floor—for the purpose of the French Room is that of displaying and offering for sale the new models as soon as they are designed. In no instance does a French Room Hat sell for more than $10.00, even though the regular selling price figures are higher. Other hats range from $6.00 upward.

THE AFTERNOON PROGRAM OF SPRING MUSIC FESTIVAL

Seat Sales for Concerts to Be Given by Harrisburg Choral Society Is Unusually Large—Program of Classics Announced

Judging from the sale of seats today, the usual crowded houses will greet the Harrisburg Choral Society at its Music Festival on Thursday, April 29. When the sale at the box office of the Majestic theatre opened at 9 o'clock this morning there was a long line in waiting to secure seats. Throughout the day the demand continued, and all signs point to large houses. A large number of mail applications have been received from Lancaster, York, Lebanon, Carlisle and surrounding towns.

The attention of the public is directed to the fact that tickets for the afternoon concert are numbered with the large number 71 and stamped "Matinee." Tickets for the evening concert are numbered with a large number 72. Patrons should see that they have the proper tickets before presenting them at the theatre, so as to avoid trouble in gaining admission.

The afternoon program is probably the most attractive ever offered to the public. The program follows: Overture, "A Midsummer Night's Dream," Mendelssohn; suite, "Peer Gynt," Grieg; (a) "Morning Mood," (b) "Death of Anse," (c) "Dance of the Mountain King," soprano aria, "Chere Nuit," Barbelet, Miss Marie Stoddard and Russian symphony orchestra; "Ride of the Valkyries," Wagner. Part II—(a) "Andante Cantabile," Tchaikowsky, (b) "Allegro Moderato" (for strings) pastoral, Ippolittoff-Ivanoff; (a) "Dreams," Wagner, (b) "Serenade," Arensky, violin solo, Louis Edlin; vocal quartet, "Rigoletto," Verdi, Misses Stoddard and Morrissette, Messrs. Harris and Glenn and Russian symphony orchestra; two Caucasian sketches, Ippolittoff-Ivanoff, I. "In the All" (mountain building), viola solo, Jacob Altschuler, II. "March Sardar" (Caucasian tribe).

EVEN CROSS, SICK CHILDREN LOVE SYRUP OF FIGS

If Feverish, Bilious, Constipated, Give Fruit Laxative at Once

Don't scold your fretful, peevish child. See if tongue is coated; this is a sure sign its little stomach, liver and bowels are clogged with sour waste.

When listless, pale, feverish, full of cold, breath bad, throat sore, doesn't eat, sleep or act naturally, has stomach-ache, indigestion, diarrhoea, give a teaspoonful of "California Syrup of Figs," and in a few hours all the foul waste, the sour bile and fermenting food passes out of the bowels and you have a well and playful child again. Children love this harmless "fruit laxative," and mothers can rest easy after giving it, because it never fails to make their little "insides" clean and sweet.

Keep it handy, Mother! A little given to-day saves a sick child to-morrow, but get the genuine. Ask your druggist for a 50-cent bottle of "California Syrup of Figs," which has directions for babies, children of all ages and for grown-ups plainly on the bottle. Remember there are counterfeiters sold here, so surely look and see that yours is made by the "California Fig Syrup Company." Hand back with contempt any other fig syrup.—Adv.

"Twin Beds"

Selwyn & Co. at the present writing are the most successful firm of producing managers of the current year, and their profits are making less fortunate contemporaries envious of what they call "Selwyn luck," but what is really fine discernment and business perspicacity on the part of Arch Selwyn and Edgar Selwyn. On New Year's eve "The Show Shop," by James Forbes, author of "The Chorus Lady" and its first New York production at the Hudson theatre, and this farce which deals with theatrical life, jumped into instant favor. This gives the firm of Selwyn & Co., 33 1-3 per cent. of the successful plays now appearing in New York, a record never equalled before by any producing firm. They are sending "Twin Beds" here for a return engagement next Friday afternoon and evening.—Adv.

The Kolonial Kids

It must have been a source of great satisfaction to forty or more boys in Kilgore's Kolonial Kids' band last night when the handclapping in the audience sounded like thunder. It was a sincere expression of appreciation on the part of the public that the boys' efforts in working for over a year to organize and perfect a band had not been without avail. The boys are on the bill at the Colonial theatre, and it is safe to say that no vaudeville house in the country ever had a better headliner in the line of instrumental musical offerings. These little fellows, all residents of this city or vicinity, went through a concert of difficult selections and fairly ate up the job. The boys present a very pretty picture in their white togs, and are deserving of all the applause the audience is giving them. There are three very good vaudeville acts on the same bill with them: La Viva, a contortionist and dancer, the America Comedy Four and the Three Brightons.—Adv.

"Three Weeks" at the Victoria To-day

"Three Weeks," translated in the language of all civilized countries, stands at the fore of all modern vivid romances. In the film play the author has added to her creation in a prologue that intensifies the thrill of some of her scenes and adds color and vivacity to others. Sonia runs away from her castle and her king after the manner described in the book. She encounters Paul in the restaurant in Lucerne, Switzerland, precisely as recounted in the novel. The two, a queen without a country and a king without a throne—fall madly in love. She struggles against her enthrallment and seeks to halt her flight and the inevitable next meeting occurs. In the photoplay version all these incidents are idealized. Adv.

Anita Stewart and Earl Williams at Photoplay To-day

At the Regent

Of the great film productions presented by the Laskey-Belasco interests none has become so popular as "The Girl of the Golden West," which is being shown at the Regent theatre to-day. The wonderful picture was presented there last evening before a record audience. "The Girl of the Golden West" tells a graphic story of the California gold rush in '49 and presents "the girl," who became the idol of the great mining camp. When David Belasco staged the story of the "legitimate" stage, in operatic form, Caruso was the star. Later it was given a dramatic presentation and Blanche Bates became famous as "the girl." But it remained for the "movie" producers to tell the story in every detail for every line of the author's story is carried out in pictures, and it is said to be the most wonderful film ever made in California, the home of all good pictures. Several hundred scenes are used in staging the production. For to-morrow and Thursday, Manager Magaro announces George Beban in "The Italian."—Adv.

Taking Care of the Children

No parent would consciously be careless of the children. Joe A. Romzarin, Clarkson, Neb., uses Foley's Honey and Tar for his two children for croup, coughs and colds. He says, "We are never without Foley's Honey and Tar in the house." A distressing cough, sleepless nights, and raw, inflamed throat lead to a run-down condition in which the child is not able to resist contagious or infectious diseases. Foley's Honey and Tar is truly healing and prompt in action. It relieves coughs, colds, croup and whooping cough. Geo. A. Gorgas, 16 North Third street.—Adv.
