CATCHY SONGS TO BE SUNG BY MINSTREL END MEN

Frank Brashears, Charles Newbaker, Charles Lynch, Mike Daylor and Others Will Present Some Fine Coon Songs With Lively Tunes

The songs to be sung by the end men of the Original Home Talent Minstrels, have been carefully selected, each song being adapted to the style or manner of the voices which will sing them.

Frank Brashears, noted as one of the best coon shouters will sing Charlie Newbaker, classed as an exceptionally good straight comedy man, will sing "Aba da ba Honey Moon." Charlie Lynch, whose manner of putting a song over is well known, has a very good song entitled "Listen to That Dixie Band," which will give him ample opportunity to cavort and dance during the rendition of the number.

Mike Daylor, who has won a prominent place in local productions and considered by every one to be a second edition of Neil O'Brien, has a very pleasing song, "Parson Jones' Three Reasons," which will give him a good chance to show his ability as the delineator of the old southern darkey. Summing up, a program of catchy songs of this type interspersed with up-to-date ballads, will help make up a show of unusual excellence.

Reserved seat sale opens at Frummin's jewelry store, Saturday, May 8, and the proceeds are for the benefit of St. James' Catholic church.

RUSH TABERNACLE WORK

The Frame Building Is Almost Completed

The first rehearsal of the Hillis campaign choir will be held this evening in the local Presbyterian church, the second one will be held in the tabernacle, Second street and Booser's Run, Saturday evening 7.45 o'clock, and the third one will be held at the same place on Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock.

The erection of the tabernacle started yesterday morning under direction of Contractor H. C. Wright. About a score of workmen, including five ministers, were on the scene and the work progressed so well that by this evening it is expected to have the entire frame work in place and most of the roofing boards nailed on. The building, when completed, will be 84 feet wide and 120 feet deep, with a seating capacity of 2,500.

MISSION CONFERENCE OVER

One Hundred Delegates Attend Sessions Yesterday

The Harrisburg conference of the Woman's Home and Foreign Missionary Society of the East Pennsylvania Synod, held two interesting sessions in St. John's Lutheran church yesterday afternoon and evening. About 100 members were present from Steelton and surrounding towns.

The afternoon session was addressed by Mrs. S. A. Brehm, Mrs. J. B. Marquard, of Harrisburg, and Miss DeHoff, of Maytown. The question box was in charge of Mrs. G. C. Parker, of Harrisburg. A feature of the afternoon meeting was a half-hour's entertainment by the children of St. John's Mission band.

At last night's session an address was delivered by Mrs. G. N. Lauffer, whose subject was, "The Stranger Has Need of You." A vocal duet was rendered by the Rev. G. N. Lauffer, pastor of St. John's church, and Miss Agnes Wolcott.

SHOE MANAGER RECOVERED PAIR STOLEN FOOTWEAR

Colored Man Made Bold Attempt to Walk Off With a Box Containing Ladies Shoes at Ross M. Frey's Store, North Front Street

A bold attempt to get away with a pair of ladies shoes, which a colored man had taken in the store room of Ross M. Frey, North Front street, was promptly frustrated by Charles E. Powden, manager, yesterday afternoon about 4 o'clock.

Mr. Powden had climbed one of the high ladders with which the store room is equipped to rearrange some goods near the ceiling, when the colored man stepped into the store room. Looking around carefully over the floor, and not seeing any person, the intruder took a pair of ladies shoes, one of the best in stock, placed them under his left arm, and boldly strode toward the door.

Mr. Powden quickly descended from the ladder and stepped between the thief and the door and forcibly removed the shoes from their hiding place. The coon begged not to be arrested, stating he lived in Harrisburg. Promising to go back to his home and never enter the store again, Mr. Powden accompanied the man to the street crossing and remained with him until he got aboard a car going to the Capital City.

Mr. Carlson, of Arizona

Mr. Carlson, of Arizona, came to New York with some money and much to learn about Wall Street. He entered the narrow street of gold without fear and made the "wise" ones snort with rage. One day he peevish a great man with many more millions than he could control, then came wreck and ruin. The "big fellow" cleaned him out and a kind friend advised him to "Go West and grow up with the country." What happened to Mr. Carlson in the West is artistically told in motion pictures at the Standard Theatre to-night.—Adv.

We're on the Sunny Side of Prosperity Road

As these fine spring days rush happily by, the house of good merchandise is fairly humming with activity—ministering to more patrons, doing a larger volume of business than ever before in the Live Store's eventful history.

Truly the reward of good work is more work—especially for a store enlisted in the service of so enlightened a public as ours.

And surely the fact that the people of this community are coming to Doutrichs in such increasing volume is full of meaning.

It means for one thing that now, as never before, people know the worth of every penny of every dollar and want equal value in return.

It means furthermore that they know exactly where such values are to be found.

MAY 26, GOOD ROADS DAY

So Proclaimed by Governor Brumbaugh After a Conference With Commissioner Cunningham

After consultation with State Highway Commissioner Cunningham, Governor Brumbaugh to-day has decided to issue a proclamation for a statewide "Good Roads Day," on May 26.

Thirty-eight counties in the State have formed organizations for county "Good Roads Days" on that date and in other counties plans are now being perfected for similar organizations.

According to a statement issued to-day, the State Highway Department is greatly interested in the plan and is eager to do all that can be done to make it successful. Through the Bureau of Township Highways, under the direction of First Deputy State Highway Commissioner Hunter, the township supervisors and others interested in the project will be able to obtain hearty co-operation.

While in no sense farthing the "Good Roads Day" plan, the statement continues, the department desires to do all that it can to assist the organizations in the various counties. Wherever possible tools and other highway building equipments owned by the State will be put at the service of the county organizations on that day. Included among the counties in which organizations for "Good Roads Day" have been formed are the following: Huntingdon, Bedford, Franklin, Perry, Lebanon, York and Lancaster.

It is a peculiar quality of a fool to perceive the faults of others and to forget his own.—Cicero.
