ON A 30-DAY ECONOMY RUN

Saxon Car Starts to Cover Forty-five Hundred Miles on Rough Michigan Roads

A third economy and reliability run by a Saxon roadster has just been started. This time it is over the roughest of Michigan's roads that the Saxon is plying its way, 150 miles a day for 30 days or a total of 4,500 miles. The car is due to complete its task on May 25.

This attempt to set a new record in economy is being held simultaneously with two other 30-day runs, one between New York and Albany, the other between Boston and Springfield.

The schedule calls for starting forth from Detroit each morning and alternating over two routes. One route is by way of Mt. Clemens, Armada, Romeo, Orion, Holly, Highland, Milford, Pontiac and back to Detroit.

The other course leads through Monroe, Dundee, New Boston, Romulus, Wayne, Plymouth, Farmington, Center Line, and back to Detroit. Each circuit will be made fifteen times.

The car is piloted by J. Eckert who has driven in many economy and reliability runs. Driver Eckert is keeping an accurate count of gasoline and gasoline consumption and is confident that the car will shatter all previous economy records.—Adv.

ROME WORKMEN OBSERVING TO-DAY AS A DAY OF REST

Rome, April 30, 7.55 P. M., Via Paris, May 1, 5.15 A. M.—Members of all workmen's organizations have decided to unite in observing to-morrow (May 1) as a day of rest. Even the street railway companies have given their employees permission to abstain from work. No papers will be published except the Popolo Romano, the conservative organ which employs non-union workmen.

Meetings will be held in all the large towns of Italy and troops will be held in readiness to prevent disorders. The authorities fear there may be clashes between workmen favoring Italy's intervention in the war and those who hope for a continuation of neutrality.

13 EGGS, 18 CHICKS

Plymouth Rock's Record With Double-Talked Assistance
 Dexter, Me., May 1.—Ralph C. Blethen claims the New England record for hatching chickens.

Three weeks ago he placed thirteen eggs beneath one of his prize Plymouth Rocks hens. Yesterday morning when he inspected the nest he discovered eighteen chicks. His only explanation is that some of the eggs must have been double yolked.

Thursday when he inspected the nest, during the absence of the hen, the shells of the original thirteen eggs were in the nest.
 Oxen as Substitutes for Horses
 Berlin, Via London, May 1, 10.15 A. M.—Oxen may soon take the places in this city of many of the trucks homes, which have been requisitioned for military purposes. The police have abrogated the ordinance which prohibited their use in the city and the first yoke seen in the streets in many years appeared to-day.

 Reading, Pa., May 1.—The first arrest in this section under the old blue laws of 1794 occurred yesterday, when Carl Klingeman, manager of the Hamburg baseball club, was arraigned before Magistrate Wolf here on the charge of laying baseball last Sunday. The prosecution was brought by Wilson E. Schmick, a farmer and prominent church worker of near Hamburg. The defendant will have a hearing next Wednesday. ## WOULD HAVE LEGISLATURES ASSEMBLE IN DECEMBER

Representative Phillips Has Plan to Eliminate Necessity For Newly Inaugurated Governor Plunging Right Into Work of Making Law

The plan to change the term of Governor by constitutional enactment so that the chief executive would be inaugurated in the even numbered years and have a year's time in which to study legislation before the Legislature met in odd numbered years, which was considered at the beginning of the present legislative session, has been abandoned, and a substitute will be presented by Representative Phillips, of Clearfield, in the House on Monday next.

Mr. Phillips says he will offer a resolution for a constitutional amendment to shift the time for the meeting of the Legislature from January to December of odd numbered years. Under his plan the legislators elected in November of an even numbered year will not take their seats until December of the following odd numbered year. The Governor, being inaugurated in January of the odd numbered years, would have the entire year until the following December to study legislation in advance of the session.

This plan Mr. Phillips says would also permit the Legislature to work from December to an earlier date for final adjournment, which could be fixed ahead of the farming season.

Another proposition that has been talked of in connection with administrative terms is to adopt a constitutional amendment fixing the inauguration of the Governor during the first week in May after his election.

STOLEN GOLD RECOVERED

Converted Prisoner Tells Where He Hid Money in Sacramento

Pottsville, Pa., May 1.—Henry Saladin, of Sacramento, who is in jail here, charged with the robbery of $2,000 in gold from an aged resident of Sacramento, yesterday, under the influence of revival services, told Officer Campbell where he hid the money, which was under a chicken pen at his home.
 A search showed that he spoke the truth. In one tin can alone was found $1,200 in gold. All but $164 of the money has now been recovered.
