bail pounding at Highspire, and Steelton journeyed to Lebanon to inaugurate the season there.

Frank Stees, of Steelton, president of the league, attended the opening game in Lebanon. Before his trip he said he looked forward to a successful season in the league. "The addition of Hershey and Lebanon," he said, "will add interest in the league because the same teams will not appear so often as to tire the fans."

He has appointed Wilt, of Lemoyne: Gardner, of Steelton, and Deckard, of Middletown, to umpire during the season. In Highspire and Saul, of Steelton.

Celebrations marked the opening of the season. In Highspire and New Oumberland local bands headed short parades to the bail parks and played during the games. Lebanon was preparing a regular big league opening.

Manager Waltmyer, of the Highspire Club, last night announced that Gus Boyne, who hast season played first base for the Frederick, Md., team, has been made captain. Wilson, Kramer and Johnson were available for mound duty this afternoon. It looked as though the portsider Wilson would start the game. C. F. Calhoun, of Milroy, Pa., was on the receiving end of the battery.
