Should Mercer be released after serving the minimum of his sentence, which dates from January 15, last, he will be released about October 15. LeBrun will not complete his six month's jail term before the latter date, since, in addition to the six month's sentence which is computed from January 15, last, he also must serve three months for the $55 fines and the costs the court imposed and which he was unable to pay.

Amsterdam, Via London, April 30, 10.30 P. M.—Allied airmen are dis-playing great activity over Southern Baden," says the Berlin "Lokal Anzeiger." They paid four visits to Haltingen on Wednesday between 7 o'clock in the morning and noon, drop-ping bombs for the purpose of destroy-nig engineering works. Only one of these bombs scored a hit, however, caus-ing little damage. Two men were wounded slightly. "Seven other bombs were dropped on the town, one exploding at the rail-way station and greatly damaging two express engines and slightly wounding several people. Nine bombs dropped in the surrounding district fell harm-less. "The same day airmen appeared over Mulheim but were driven back by shell fire. Nine machines fiew over Loerrach without dropping bombs." Mercer once made the remark fol lowing his arrest here, that when he came to Harrisburg to try his game he ''thought it would be easy in a 'jay town.''
