MECHANICSBURG

Irving College 1915 Class Holds May Day Party on Campus
Special Correspondence.

Mechanicsburg, May 3.—Saturday afternoon the class of 1915 of Irving College held a May Day party on the campus to which all students, alumnae, ex-students and all other friends of the college were invited. It was a very delightful affair. Miss Helen Sheaffer was crowned Queen of the May. Her maid of honor was Miss Vera V. Care and the heralds were Misses Christine Fleisher and Pauline Sheeder. Two little girls of town, not students, Miss Miriam Zufall and Miss Elizabeth Huist, acted as pages to the queen. The presentations to the queen were made by Miss Martha Schafhirt and the presidents of the respective classes.

The dance around the May pole was buoyant and graceful. This was followed by the planting of the class tree, a handsome white oak, the entire class participating in the planting. Addresses were then made by the Rev. S. Winfield Herman, D. D., of Harrisburg, and the Rev. A. R. Steck, of Carlisle, after which the class song was given concluding the program of the afternoon. All present enjoyed the May Day fete in its entirety and it reflected much honor on the class of 1915.

Communion services were held yesterday at 10.30 o'clock in St. Luke's Episcopal church. This service was conducted by the Right Rev. James Henry Darlington, bishop of the Harrisburg Diocese. This service was especially interesting as it is an epoch in the church history it being the tenth anniversary of the establishment of the Diocese of Harrisburg and Bishop Darlington's consecration. The bishop was assisted in the services yesterday by George E. Howard, lay reader, of St. Luke's.

Another very interesting meeting of the Men's Union Bible class was held yesterday afternoon in Grace Evangelical church. As usual the music was inspiring. The address of the afternoon was given by the Rev. A. R. Steck, D. D., of Carlisle.

THE GOOD ROADS MOVEMENT

M. S. Hershey Will Pay Three-fourths of Cost for Constructing Highway
Lebanon, May 3.—The County Commissioners are daily receiving offers for assistance both with horses and men from farmers of the county, who are taking an active interest already in the good roads movement which the Governor has promulgated for May 16 and which has the active support of the County Commissioners here.

Clerk R. B. Light has the names of a score of men who have promised their teams, and one man has agreed to allow a stone-crafter to operate on his land for six months if necessary.

M. S. Hershey, of Hershey, has made an offer to build a macadam road from Bellefonte to near Palmyra. The proposed road is to run over the Forge dam No. 1 and will traverse through North Londonderry and North Annville townships. He has offered to pay three-fourths of the cost of macadamizing the road, provided the supervisors of the townships will pay the other one-fourth cost. The supervisors are considering the matter. The road is to be similar to the one which has been constructed Mr. Hershey at Sand Beach, Dauphin county.

SUMMER RESORT DESTROYED

Incendiary Fire at Black Bar Springs House, Pleasant Grove
Pleasant Grove, May 3.—Fire of incendiary origin Saturday night destroyed the large building and summer resort familiarly known as the Black Barren Springs House, entailing heavy loss. It was built more than one hundred years ago and had been occupied during the winter months.

The structure was built very substantially and was an antiquated one. The owner, M. Matthews, resides in Baltimore. There is some insurance on the dwelling.
