

The loss of Collins, Bender, Plank, Magee and Lobert are heart-breakers for fans. It will be hard to fill their oxfords at the two local ball orchards. It takes time to build a super-dreadnought, dig a subway or develop a 300 per cent whaler. Ask any night taxicab driver. But lovers of the national pastime still have lots left to tinkle 'em. There's Mc-Innis, Barry, Schang, Cravath, Becker, Alexander and Moroney's Army and Navy Whiskey.

PREPARE FOR STATE SHOOT

Twenty-Fifth Annual Tournament to Be Held May 19, 20 and 21 at Milton

The regular program will consist of 175 targets each Wednesday and Thursday, and on Friday 100 targets in the morning will complete the 16-day events and the averages will be figured on these 450 targets. The crowning event of the tournament will be a merchandise handicap, 16 to 22 yards, 100 targets, which will follow the regular program and conclude the tournament Friday afternoon.

The twenty-fifth annual tournament of the Pennsylvania Sportsmen's Association will be held under the auspices of the Milton Sportsmen's Association, at Milton, Pa., May 19, 20 and 21, with practice day Tuesday, May 18.

The regular program will consist of 175 targets each Wednesday and Thursday, and on Friday 100 targets in the morning will complete the 16-day events and the averages will be figured on these 450 targets.

The handicap committee will be selected from the list of shooters in attendance and the distances for the members of this committee will be selected by another committee appointed for that purpose.

It is expected that this year's State tournament will surpass all previous tournaments of the P. S. S. A. both in amount of added money and trophies and in general enthusiasm and attendance.

There will be a number of special trophies, including the usual donation of the Interstate Association amounting to $225 in cash and trophies. The Pennsylvania State Sportsmen's Association will donate $300 in cash and trophies, the Milton Association will add as much more and with the $1,500 or more in the merchandise prizes there will be sufficient inducement to tempt every amateur in the old Keystone State to get down his trusty musket and make the trip to Milton, May 18-21.

There will be the usual double championship and two, three and four men team races. There will be the Interstate Association State championship match, the 'In the Open' match, a special Milton hotelmen's trophy match and many special prizes for various scores and stunts.

Frederic A. Goldschlager will manage the tournament, assisted by George W. Chinger, president of the Milton Association, and a corps of Milton enthusiasts. Lloyd R. Lewis will have charge of the office and will have both Clark and Elissor to assist him.

TEN YEARS FOR THEFT OF $8 Washington Negro Falls Unconscious When Judge Pronounces Sentence

Washington, Pa., May 4.—When Alfred Black, a Washington negro, heard Judge J. A. McIlvaine sentence him to the Western penitentiary for not more than ten years and not less than six, he threw up his hands and fell unconscious to the floor of the court room. Black had pleaded guilty to stealing eight dollars from a grocery store.

The negro was caught in the act of riding the till of the grocery store and admitted taking $8, which was found in his possession. The District Attorney showed that Black had been previously convicted of numerous offenses and the Court told him that public safety demanded that he be locked up for a few years.

STOUGH'S THROAT SORE Evangelist, at Reading, Is Under Care of Physicians

Reading, Pa., May 4.—The second day of the Stough campaign was marked by an increased attendance at the evening service. More than 6,000 crowded the tabernacle last night.

The receipts for the first day were somewhat disappointing, the total amount for both services being $298.84. Despite Dr. Stough's assertion that pennies were unwelcome currency, more than 5,000 flowed into the pans at the two services.

Last night the evangelist was seriously handicapped in speaking because of a sore throat contracted during his recent rest at his Wheatland (Ill.) home. Physicians are attending him and it is feared that he may have to give up speaking for several days.

"The Girl From Utah" Charles Frohman's greatest musical comedy achievement, the famous Tri-Star Combination of Julia Sanderson, Donald Brian and Joseph Cawthorn, will play at the Majestic Wednesday evening, May 12, in the musical comedy triumph, "The Girl from Utah."

Harrisburg will be one of the few American cities to see this great musical comedy combination, the four months capacity engagement at the Knickerbocker Theatre, New York, being followed by an equally successful run at the Illinois Theatre, Chicago. "The Girl from Utah" is one of the renowned London Gaiety "girl" shows and had a long run at that famous playhouse before Charles Frohman imported it to America to serve as the vehicle for his three stars. The music is by Paul Rubens, with American numbers by Jerome Kern, and the book by James T. Tanner. The cast numbers over one hundred with chorus, and the long list of principals includes in addition to the three stars, Venita Fitzhugh, Renee Reel, Queenie Vassar, George Bishop, George Wharton, Walter Gilbert, Giselle Sewall, Master Michael Mathews, Veronique Banner, Clara Eckstrom, Alice and Irene Palmer.—Adv.

Photo-play To-day "The Terrible One," a three-reel Lubin, pertaining to the Mexican situation, is well worth the price of admission. This 3,000 feet of film holds you to your seats with intense interest until the end. Couple with a pleasing love drama are many thrilling battle scenes fought between "Pirada," the dictator of Mexico, and "The Terrible One." The picture finishes up with a stirring climax and with all wrongs righted. To-day we show our "Girl Detective Series," thirteenth episode, "Mike Donegal's Escape," a two-reel Kalem. Many thrilling scenes are shown in this picture, which also gives you a good idea of police and prison methods in dealing with crooks. Finishing up this unusual program is the Gutter-snipe, a one-reel vitagraph in which Lillian Walker and Darwin Kerr are again given an opportunity to show their talent. Don't fail to see this show.—Adv.

"The Quest" at the Victoria To-day To-day's presentation of E. McGrene Willis' distinctive photo creation in five parts marks one of the most advanced steps in the motion picture world so far as Harrisburg is concerned. This special feature is a Mutual masterpiece and is positively the highest type of films produced. "The Quest" is a powerful production of realism and romance and features Miss Margarita Fischer supported by Henry Pollard, Joseph Singleton and Robyn Adair and a cast of select players. Two Mutual masterpieces will be shown every week at the Victoria, one each on Tuesdays and Fridays. The popularity of the Victoria as the home of features and the home of Harrisburg's greatest pipe organ is unquestioned and this latest step completed a series of innovations that have been given to Victoria patrons so that they may enjoy the charms of the silent drama under conditions heretofore unknown. To-morrow "The Key to the Mystery," a sensational secret drama in four parts.—Adv.

New Departure by the Census Bureau Washington, D. C., May 4.—The Census Bureau has established a new precedent by enumerating, at local expense and the population of a city between census years. This was done last month at Tulsa, Okla., under authority of a Presidential order, and as a result the population of that city on April 15, 1915, was officially announced a few days ago as 28,240, exclusive of 1,955 persons living on "Indian lands" located within or adjacent to the city but politically distinct from it. The increase between 1910 and 1915 was 55 per cent. The work was done by local enumerators under the supervision of Eugene F. Hartley, an official of the Census Bureau.

Happy Kids at the Colonial An aggregation of rollicking youngsters under the vaudeville caption of Al White's "Kidland" began a three days' engagement at the Colonial Theatre yesterday. The boys and girls—nine in number—are clever entertainers, and they go through a merry half hour of song, dance and comedy. Yesterday's audiences were much pleased with the act. On the same bill are three other good turns. Murray K. Hill, a former Orpheum favorite, is back in town again with a grist of new jokes that he delivers in rapid fire manner

Boy Burns to Death Wilkes-Barre Lad Victim of Clean-up Week Accident

Wilkes-Barre, Pa., May 4.—Clean-up week in this city, which opened yesterday, has claimed one victim, Samuel Julow, aged 4, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Julow, was burned to death last night after a bonfire in the rear yard at his home. The mother of the child early yesterday began the clean-up work about her home and by afternoon had accumulated a large quantity of rubbish. When the father returned from his daily work, he set fire to the pile.

The child was roaming about the yard and when its parents were not watching walked into the flames, and was terribly burned. He died within a few minutes.

Lancaster Fruit Growers Meet Marietta, May 4.—The members of the Lancaster County Fruit Growers' Association held a successful session yesterday in the Farmers' Bureau room, Lancaster. There were many important subjects discussed the principal ones being "Trimming of Fruit," by Sheldon W. Funk, of Boyertown, and "The Codding Moth and the Curculio Spray," by Elias H. Vogel, of Lititz.
