AMERICAN CONSUL SUICIDE

Frederick Van Dyne Leaps Overboard While On His Way to Post In France
By Associated Press.
Naples, May 5.—The United States consul at Lyons, one of the passengers aboard the steamship Sant'Anna, which has arrived here from New York, is reported to have committed suicide during the voyage by leaping overboard.
He was on his way to his post in France. The Sant'Anna sailed from New York, on April 20.
New York, May 5.—The passenger list of the steamship Sant'Anna contains the name of Frederick Van Dyne, American consul at Lyons, France. Mr. Van Dyne engaged passage through G. W. Moss, the Washington agent of the Fabre line. No word has been received by local agents of the line concerning

TO GRADE PENBROOK STREETS

Council Passed Ordinance Last Night Allowing Company to Relay Tracks
Penbrook, May 5.—Four ordinances for grading the borough streets were passed by the members of council last night. Three streets will be graded and resurfaced in the next two months. The streets are Main, from Calder to Hoffer's lane; Chestnut from Main to State, and State, from Chestnut to Curtin.
The fourth ordinance permits the Harrisburg Railway Company permission to relay their tracks and place them in the center of Main street. This is done in order that pavements may be laid in front of the homes on the north side of Main street, between Calder and Curtin.
Bills totaling nearly $200, for water, light and repair of the streets, were ordered paid.

FOREIGN BORN POPULATION

741,610 White Males in Pennsylvania, According to 1910 Census
Washington, D. C., May 5.—There were 741,610 foreign born white males, 21 years of age and over, in Pennsylvania in 1910, according to the census of that year, and of these, 367,766, or 49.6 per cent., had not taken the first step toward acquiring citizenship through naturalization while in 1900 the number who had not taken out their first papers was only 146,517, or 30.2 per cent. The percentages of these political aliens among the leading nationalities in the State are as follows: Austrians, 74.8; Russians, 60.3; Italians, 70.9; Hungarians, 78.5; Germans, 14.5; Irish, 14.9; English, 17.8; Scotch, 19.4; Welsh, 9.8; and Swedes, 15.2. It is interesting to note that 502,259, or about 67 per cent., of these foreign born lived in urban and only 239,351, or about 31 per cent., lived in rural communities. Of those living in cities, 45.6 per cent., and of those living in rural communities, 57.9 per cent., had not taken out their first papers.
Among this class of foreign born persons living in the larger cities, the percentages of those who had not taken out their first papers were as follows: Allentown, 50.5; Altoona, 40.5; Chester, 52.6; Easton, 47.4; Erie, 35.8; Harrisburg, 44.1; Johnstown, 75.3; Hazleton, 38.8; Lancaster, 21.7; McKeesport, 48.8; New Castle, 59.9; Reading, 59.1; Wilkes-Barre, 39.3; Williamsport, 19.7; York, 25.9; Philadelphia, 37.8; Pittsburgh, 40.5.

REAR ADMIRAL DOYLE RETIRES

Had Just Been Relieved of Command of Pacific Reserve Fleet
By Associated Press.
Washington, May 5.—Rear Admiral Robert M. Doyle, who has just been relieved of command of the Pacific reserve fleet, retired to-day from a active service, having reached the statutory age of 62 years. He was born in Tennessee and was appointed to the Naval Academy from that state in 1870.
Admiral Doyle's retirement makes possible the promotion to rear admiral's grade of Captain A. G. Winterhalter, senior captain and aid for material to Secretary Daniels. Captain Winterhalter who is recognized as an authority on all problems of naval construction will undoubtedly be given sea duty, but his assignment has not yet been announced.
Served P. B. 45 Years
After 45 years of active service with the Pennsylvania Railroad Company, William A. Dorwort, aged 65 years, 1743 North Sixth street, was placed on the pension list last Saturday. He was a machinist in the Reilly street shops.

PRINCIPALS IN NEW YORK "RIPPER" MURDER

MRS. ANNIE MURRAY, MOTHER OF THE MURDERED BOY.
BERNARD GAFFNEY, WHO FOUND THE BODY
Terror ran riot on the east side of New York when the murderer of children in that section of the city known as "Jack the Ripper" found another victim in the person of Charles Murray, almost five years old. The child's body, terribly mutilated with a knife, was found by a playmate in the hallway of his home. The crime is similar in every respect to the recent murder of Leonore Anna Cohn, five years old, whose body was found on the night of March 28 in the hall of her home.
