NATIONAL LEAGUE NOT A PARTY TO PEACE PLAN

President Tener Surprised at Remarks of Ban Johnson on Agreement to Withdraw Baseball Suits From the Illinois Courts

New York, May 5.—President John K. Tener, of the National League, when informed of Ban Johnson's statement relative to withdrawing the baseball suits from the Illinois courts, said that he did not understand the American League executive's remarks. President Tener stated that so far as he knew there was no intention at this time on the part of organized baseball in general and the National League in particular to withdraw the case now before Judge Landis.

Other officials of the National League expressed the opinion that President Johnson did not intend to convey the idea that the suit had been or was about to be withdrawn from court. His remarks, they thought, were merely an expression of personal opinion in the matter of the controversy between organized baseball and the Federal League.

While they appeared to be more or less mystified by President Johnson's statements, it was apparent that the National League authorities did not care to take any definite attitude in the latest development of the baseball controversy.

Robert B. Ward, president of the Brookfields and vice president of the Federal League, said that he knew of no plans or arrangements between organized baseball and the independent league that warranted such a statement as credited to Johnson. He said:

"So far as I am concerned personally, and as a representative of the Federal League I am not ready to have the Illinois suits withdrawn from the court. I don't understand the situation, but you can state for me that the Federal League is not ready to depart from the stand it took when the case was pleaded before Judge Landis. There can be no withdrawal of the controversy from court without the consent of all parties concerned, and I am confident that no officer of the

FEDERAL LEAGUE WOULD HAVE TAKEN SUCH A STEP WITHOUT INFORMING ALL OTHER MEMBERS OF THE LEAGUE.

ATHLETICS HAVE A REST

Connie Mack Hopes to Be Able to Pull Team Together

New York, May 5.—Fourteen bases on balls and four costly errors tell the story of the Yankees' victory over the Athletics Monday, and Manager Mack is at his wits' end. Just when Connie Mack's pitchers have gotten over the generosity habit and the team has started to field as it should the pitchers get the habit again.

Rain yesterday prevented a game, and Mack with his youngsters will have a chance to "think it over." It is probable Pennock will be used to-day. Joe Bush essayed to twirl after two weeks' absence owing to an injury, and while Joe had all kinds of speed and curves, he seldom got them near the plate. Rube Bressler, who followed Bullet Joe, also had everything, but he, too, was wild. Bush passed eight men in four innings, while Bressler handed out six free tickets in a like number of innings.

Umpire Hart, who arbitrated on the bases during the St. Louis-Cincinnati game, was also reprimanded by President Tener for not following the disputed play closely, thus necessitating an appeal to Rigger behind the plate, which caused the latter to become involved in fistfights with Herzog.

LIGHTNING'S ODD PRANK

Kills One of Two Men Seated Side by Side in Auto in Storm

Honoluh, Nev., May 5.—One of the most remarkable pranks ever played by electricity occurred three miles from Tonopah at the height of a desert thunderstorm and cloudburst.

Two men sat side by side in an automobile, Brick McIntosh and Frank Rothscholer, riding from Goldfield to Tonopah. A black cloud settled over them and from it came a flash of lightning. McIntosh felt a slight burn upon the left little finger on the steering wheel, but the automobile did not swerve, although it was on high speed to escape the impending cloudburst.

The bolt struck Rothscholer as his shoulder touched Brick's. It killed him instantly, stripped him of his clothing and gashed his body until the blood poured forth.

REVIVAL MEETINGS GROW

Over 1,400 Attend Evangelistic Services at Enola in Ten Days—Old People's Day Saturday

(Special to the Star-Independent.)
Enola, May 5.—There has been a steady increase of attendance at the Enola Church of God evangelistic services and since the opening of the present campaign just ten days ago the number has considerably passed the 1,400 mark. This is very gratifying to those in charge of these meetings when it can be remembered that prior to the beginning of these special services the congregation consisted of less than a score of people.

Sunday evening the church was filled to its capacity and last evening extra chairs had to be brought into the church to aid in providing seats for the additional crowd.

Friday night will be known as Sunday School Night. All the churches of Enola will unite and march to the Church of God in a body. There will be special music arranged for this time. The Rev. J. A. Green, pastor of the U. B. church, of Lemoyne, will preach a sermon that will be fitting for the occasion and Robert A. Enders, of Harrisburg, a prominent Sunday school worker, will deliver an address.

Saturday afternoon there will be services at 2 o'clock. At this time all those that are aged and afflicted and unable to reach the church on foot will be carried there by teams which have been offered to the committee by various members of the church and others interested in the movement. R. H. Derrick will conduct this meeting and will address those present on "Age and Life." It is requested that any who cannot get to this meeting unassisted leave their names and addresses with Charles T. Travis not later than Friday evening at the church and he will arrange to take them there Saturday afternoon. Mr. Travis promises to have all taken to and from the church in a careful and satisfactory manner.

There will be no services on Saturday evening. Sunday morning R. H. Derrick will be in charge of the meeting and will speak on "Hopeful Signs," at 2 o'clock in the afternoon there will be an especially arranged program with musical selection and at 7:30 o'clock in the evening H. L. Carl of Perry Street U. B. Bible class will make an address. Mr. Carl was chairman of the Men's Work Committee at the Stough campaign and is a very eloquent speaker. These meetings will continue all next week. The slogan is "Come and Join Us."
