PICNIC TWIST the mild, "no-come-back" Chewing Tobacco in the Sanitary Drum

HERE it is—the modern container for the finest, mildest twist chewing tobacco ever known in this section. A yellow drum printed in brown and red. It will be imitated. Every success is. But don't be misled. The taste of the tobacco—its mildness—are all its own.

AWARD FINAL CONTRACTS

Building and Machinery For Harrisburg Ice Company to Be Ready In Two and One-Half Months

The Mechanics' Ice Company of this city, at a meeting of the board of directors held yesterday afternoon, awarded the final contracts for buildings and foundations for machinery at their plant at Cameron and Berryhill streets. The letting of this contract marks the completion of all contracts for the entire plant.

The contractor, Herman Voigt, of Philadelphia, stipulates to have his portion of the work completed within sixty working days from this date. He further agrees to have the buildings in condition to permit the York Machine Company to begin installation of machinery within thirty days. The York Machine Company, for its part, agrees to complete the installation of machinery, in shape for operation, within forty to forty-five days after beginning installation.

Mr. Voigt, the contractor, has had unusually large experience in this special kind of work, having erected no less than forty similar sets of buildings.

C. Harry Kane, architect, of this city, prepared the plans and specifications, and will have supervision of the building on behalf of the company.

HUBERTA DECIDES TO STAY

New York, May 6.—General Victoriano Huerta has developed such a liking for the United States, particularly New York, that he is going to rent a house on Long Island and live there this summer with his family. He said so yesterday through Abraham Ratner, his adviser and interpreter, at the hotel where he has been staying.

Just where he will live on Long Island he would not say. General Huerta's family will go there on their arrival in this country this month. He thinks they must have sailed from Barcelona, Spain, within the last day or so.

Judge Wilton M. Lindsey Dies

Warren, Pa., May 6.—Wilton M. Lindsey, aged 74, president judge of the Warren county courts from 1899 to 1909, died yesterday in Baltimore, where he was operated upon for intestinal trouble several weeks ago, according to advices received here. He was the father of Edward Lindsey, member of the present Pennsylvania Legislature from this county.

Seek Counterfeiter at Lancaster

Lancaster, Pa., May 6.—Until within the past day or two, a United States secret service agent has been in Lancaster trying to get a trace of a suspect who is wanted badly for counterfeiting Indian-head $5 notes, series C. Lancaster figured so prominently some years ago in a great counterfeit case that doubtless the authorities thought this a good place to visit.

REFRIGERATORS AND GO-CARTS AT LESS THAN PRICE OF MANUFACTURE

PREFERS DEATH TO PEN

Slayer of Shiremanstown Farmer Ralls in Cell Before Starting for State Prison

Carlisle, May 6.—Almost exhausted after a night when, in a mad fury of rage and disappointment, he had ranted about his cell, swearing and expressing the hope that he "might be killed here instead of going back to the pen for nineteen years," Max Morgenthau, of Harrisburg, convicted of the murder of John Rupp and sentenced Tuesday by Judge Sadler, was taken to Philadelphia yesterday morning by Sheriff Greenwood to begin his sentence in the Eastern penitentiary.

Officials and fellow-prisoners all were glad to see Morgenthau leave. His behavior was described as that of some one in a drugged fury. He raged and swore during the entire night, insanely damning every one connected with his trial, from the court down.

JAILS BOYS AS BURGLARS

Sheriff Arrests Two Brothers on Several Serious Charges

Elkton, Md., May 6.—Sheriff Morgan landed Roy Millman, aged 14, and his brother, Norris, about a year younger, sons of Frank Millman, of near Bridgeville, Del., in the county jail here yesterday, charged with robbing Quigley's bungalow, along Elk river, and a houseboat owned by Dory Holden and with shooting at Walter Blair and Mrs. Lucas, of near Town Point. The boys were living in a tent, and when arrested were walking arsenals, having in their possession several revolvers, guns and knives.

The eldest boy was tried and acquitted at the March term of court here on a charge of holding up and robbing Charles Seiler, of Elk Neck. At that time he was living with an uncle in Elk Neck. Several weeks ago he was sent back to his home in Delaware, but last week he disappeared.

High School in Bungalow

Waynesboro, May 6.—The Washington township school directors have decided, it is announced, to remove the township high school from Rouserville to Wayne Heights.

It will be recalled that the school board some time ago purchased a lot of ground from Harvey Snowberger adjoining his residence on the north side of the turnpike at Wayne Heights.

Plans have been drawn for a large bungalow building to be erected on the lot and to contain in its one-story enough rooms for the high school and its needed class rooms and several for the lower grades.

Hearing in Liquor Cases

Chambersburg, May 6.—This afternoon at 1:30 o'clock Harry Kline, Charles Miller, Ike Worley and Frank Phiel were arraigned before Magistrate Seiders on a charge of selling and furnishing liquor to minors. This charge is based upon evidence given the grand jury last week by the Rev. F. W. Bald, of Mercersburg, and others.

Three of the quartet were arrested last Friday and Phiel was arrested yesterday at Williamsport.

Decide to Pay Bounties

Gettysburg, May 6.—That they would pay bounties for all noxious animals killed before April 15, 1915, was the decision reached by the Commissioners of Adams county at their regular weekly meeting on Tuesday afternoon.

New Officer Is Real Tall

Gettysburg, May 6.—Horace E. Smiley, 6 feet 1 1/2 inches tall, 22 years old, weight 180 pounds, is Gettysburg's new night policeman, having been elected Tuesday evening from a field of ten applicants to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of John C. Shearer.

Wife No. 3 Sues ex-Cop for Divorce

Hagerstown, Md., May 6.—Ella Hager Hugh Alexander, a bride of four months, filed suit yesterday for divorce from Charles W. Alexander, 60, former deputy sheriff and lieutenant of police of Hagerstown, who has been married three times.

Diphtheria Closes Easton Schools

Easton, Md., May 6.—The public schools were closed yesterday by order of the School Commissioners owing to a number of cases of diphtheria among the pupils. The Board of Health also prohibited the admission in moving picture theatres of children less than 12 years of age.

Waynesboro Starts New Y. M. C. A.

Waynesboro, Pa., May 6.—The Y. M. C. A. laid the cornerstone of an $85,000 building here yesterday afternoon. Carl B. Gray, president of the Western Maryland Railroad Company, made an address. The town raised $165,000 for the Y. M. C. A., part of which is reserved for maintenance.

They Are 70 Years Old

"For some time past my wife and myself were troubled with kidney trouble," writes T. B. Carpenter, Harrisburg, Pa. "We suffered rheumatic pains all through the body. The first few doses of Foley Kidney Pills relieved us. After taking five bottles between us we are entirely cured. Although we are both in the seventies we are as vigorous as we were thirty years ago." Foley Kidney Pills stop sleep disturbing bladder weakness, backache, rheumatism, dizziness, swollen joints and nervousness. Geo. A. Gargas, 16 N. Third St. and P. R. Station.—Adv.

"The Girl from Utah"

The greatest trio of musical comedy stars ever assembled in a single organization will be offered by Charles Prohm at the Majestic next Wednesday evening when he will present Julia Sanderson, Donald Brian and Joseph Cawthorn in their triumphant musical comedy, "The Girl from Utah." A brief tour has been booked for this organization and this will be one of the few fortunate cities to be included. There will be no advance in prices in spite of the triumvirate of stars, each of whom has been presented previously at the same price now asked for the three. "The Girl from Utah" is a great song, dance and girl show with book by James T. Tanner and music by Paul Rubens, Sydney Jones and Jerome Kern. It has achieved triumphs in London, New York and all the other big cities and will without a doubt pack the house to the doors when it comes to this city.—Adv.

New Bill at Colonial To-day

Dawson Hoopes and Miss C. V. Sturmer will present their spectacular musical and dancing act at the Colonial theatre the last three days of this week. They opened with to-day's matinee. This is one of the biggest dancing spectacles ever given at the Colonial. Several couples will take part in the lively numbers. Three other acts, all new to Harrisburg, will be on the same bill. They are the Four Slickers, a comedy quartet; Crowley and Newton, musical comedy stars, and A. J. Farrell, a comedy cartoonist. A new Charles Chaplin comedy in two reels will be at the Colonial between now and the close of the week.—Adv.

Maclyn Arbuckle at the Regent in "No Laughing Matter"

Maclyn Arbuckle has never appeared in a more pleasing play than that shown at the Regent theatre yesterday and which will be repeated there to-day. It is "No Laughing Matter" but despite its title there are dozens of humorous situations coupled with many others which open up one's heart for the sad old villager whose natural ambition is to be happy. But at the end of the piece all is well for everything turns out as Hi Judd wished. In the character of Hi Judd, Mr. Arbuckle has undoubtedly attained his greatest triumph and his pleasing personality is daily gaining for him thousands of admirers. In "No Laughing Matter," the great American impersonator has done all that Lois Weber, who wrote the piece, could have expected. The feature runs for more than an hour and it is brimful of interesting situations. All of the scenes are laid in a quaint old country village and life in the rural community is realistically portrayed. For to-morrow Manager Magaro has engaged "The Arrival of Perpetua," with Vivian Martin, as the feature.—Adv.

Photoplay To-day

"Out of the Ruins," a three reel Edison kinetograph feature is a fire picture embodying some of the most spectacular and realistic fire scenes ever photographed for the screen. This picture necessitates the burning to the ground of a large building represented as a department store. The thrilling rescue scenes just before the collapse of the entire wall of the building make your heart jump to your throat and you feel as though you would like to rush to the screen to help the firemen, it is so realistic. The different characters of the play are splendidly acted. The star part played by Mabel Trunnelle as "Miss 318," of the department store.

"Whose Husband?"

showing an escaped convict who, in a most amusing way, stirs up some amusing complications between two quarreling married couples, is very clever. "His Wife's Secret," a good Essanay drama and "When Hearts Are Young," a dramatic comedy, finishes up as fine a show to be seen any where for the small price of admission. Don't miss this good show.—Adv.

Lebanon Fire Company's Banquet

Lebanon, May 6.—Arrangements have been completed for the banquet to be held Wednesday evening, May 12, in the Perseverance Fire Company's house in celebration of the sixty-sixth anniversary of the company. Thomas Bibbicus, president of the company, will be the toastmaster. Mayor J. P. Longenecker and many other local city and fire officials will take part in the affair.

Leg Broken, He Helps Draw Jurors

Lebanon, May 6.—Jury Commissioner A. F. Lohse, of this city, who broke an ankle at two different places last week while on a trip to Philadelphia, was brought to the Court House this afternoon in an auto and carried into the Court House, where the Sheriff and Jury Commissioners drew 24 Grand Jurors and 48 Petit Jurors to serve at the June criminal court.
