NEWS OF STEELTON

PATRONS' DAY AND ART EXHIBITION NEXT WEEK Specimens of Work Done by Pupils of Local Schools Can Be Viewed by Parents and Friends in the Various Rooms Next Thursday and Friday

HILLIS THRILLS CROWD WITH FORCEFUL SERMON With the Theme, "The Race and the Racer," the Evangelist Lands Smashing Blows on Dancing and Card Playing

One of the most elaborate and interesting exhibitions of art, drawing and needlework, ever shown in the borough public schools will be thrown open to the public on the afternoons of Thursday and Friday, May 13 and 14, according to the following announcement made by Professor L. E. McGinnis, superintendent of the schools, this morning:

Evangelist Hillis preached a soul-stirring sermon last night to a large and appreciative audience on the subject, "The Race and the Racer." In the course of his remarks he said that every one is in a race for something. He drew a contrast between the past and the present by comparing an old-time clock with one of to-day. The old clock of fifty years ago says: "Don't fret, don't fret," while the clock of to-day says: "Get there, get there." We must get there to-day or lose out. He said one of the most dangerous enemies of to-day is the cigarette. Referring to the attitude of the pew toward the pulpit, he said: "If you want your preachers to preach good sermons you must put them on the back, not kick them." In reference to hindrances in the race of life, he said: "A whole lot of people are trying to run the Christian race with such a lot of weights hanging to them that they cannot move forward. One of the weights to-day on the lives of many Christians, and many who are not, is the modern dance. Eighty and one-half per cent. of the prostitutes in Chicago said in a late interview that they were placed where they were by the modern dance. Fifty years ago you could get a saw-log between two persons dancing; to-day you cannot get a case-knife. I would rather have a daughter of mine walk like a hippopotamus than to learn to be graceful by the modern dance.

Standard Theatre's Offerings "The Third Commandment" will be beautifully illustrated in motion pictures at this popular theatre this evening for the purpose of assisting some persons in following its precepts. Sea scenery and its possibilities will also be a feature of the screen. This is a picture which has few equals.—Adv.

Another weight is card playing. Cards originated with an idiot son of Henry, the eighth. The king offered $25,000 to the man who would invent something that would amuse his son. Cards were invented to amuse a young man who was an idiot, and they are still used by idiots. I have never yet seen a card-playing Christian who amounted to anything as a soul-winner. He played unmercifully the Christian who will not forgive and in one of the most dramatic and powerful thrusts of the night said, "The Christian Must Forgive or He Will Go Straight to Hell."

The campaign is growing was evidenced by the announcements of various activities. Meetings are being held in the Reformed church every afternoon at 4.15 for the boys of the High school, under the direction of Professor L. S. Stahl. There are also meetings in the Presbyterian church for the girls of the High school, under the direction of Mrs. C. E. Hillis. Plans are being made for High school night on Saturday at the tabernacle. Arrangements are about perfected for a nursery to take care of the children, thus allowing mothers to attend the meetings who could not otherwise do so. The nursery will be under the care of competent persons. The cottage prayer meetings are now starting, the town being divided into 72 districts. According to the plan made there will be 288 of these meetings every week of the campaign. Sunday school day will be observed on Sunday afternoon at 3.15 o'clock. The schools will march to the tabernacle in a body.
