To Men and Young Men Who Have Never Put Doutrichs to the Test. This is the store of greater values; to-day, to-morrow, 365 days in every year... We've made this statement repeatedly and every day some one puts it to the test; weighs us and our merchandise in the balance of honest comparison and thereafter, in justice to themselves, confine their clothes-buying to Doutrichs. And now we purpose to make such a startling, such an unusual offer as to win at least one hundred new friends for the Live Store before closing time to-morrow... We purpose to out-Doutrich Doutrichs with an offering of hundreds of brand new Spring and Summer 1915 Suits in the latest exclusive fabrics, patterns and shades; in up to the second styles—original, accepted, much copied but found only here; styles direct from The House of Kuppenheimer and Other Good Makers which are being talked-about and worn-about by men in every city the country over. We purpose to show you at $15, $20 and $25 results in style, in fabric and in fit which you have never been privileged to examine elsewhere at less than $20, $25 or $30. Mind you, we do not claim these suits to be $20, $25 or $30 values as measured by the Doutrich standard of value giving—those figures are comparative, those figures are based on what we know others will ask for quality which attempts to parallel ours. This, we believe, is one of the most important messages we have ever directed to the clothes buying public within reach of this great store. We want you to come here to-morrow, we'll place no restrictions upon your investigation. We claim these suits to be the finest ever shown by this or any other store in Harrisburg;—we challenge comparison on every point whereby good clothing should be judged— $15 $20 $25 304 Market Street Harrisburg, Penna. MANY CHRISTIANS RETURN TO THE URUMIAH DISTRICT; SAY 10,000 WERE KILLED

Tiflis, Transcaucasia, Wednesday, May 5. Via Petrograd and London, May 7, 2.40 P. M.—It has been officially established in Tiflis that the Turkish forces who recently under the command of Thail Bey, occupied Diinan, numbered 18,000 men. This shows that their numerical strength was greater than that of the Russians and even in the final battle the Turks outnumbered their antagonists. The trophies taken by the Russians were a complete hospital outfit and an enormous quantity of stores. It is not yet known how many prisoners were taken. The Turkish commander and the members of his staff all had narrow escapes from capture.

This Armenian city in Asiatic Turkey was bombarded by 600 Turkish regular troops who had with them three pieces of artillery. Armenians numbering 850 assembled in the village of Saragunis to oppose the murderous bands of Kurds threatening that place, but the Kurds were aided by Turkish regulars, and after a long struggle the detachment of Armenians were all wiped out with the exception of eight men, who ultimately found shelter in the monastery of St. Tativas. An agent of the Armenian aid committee after a horseback trip from Alashkirt to Dayzet, has reported that this region is fully occupied by Russians and that 6,000 out of 25,000 refugees have returned to their homes. The agent reports that many villages have been destroyed and that without exception every village has been more or less damaged. The aid committee is buying back cattle and buffaloes looted by the Kurds. The agent reports that he has been successful in bringing about a general return of Christians to the district east of Lake Urumiah. He says that 850 Armenian women have been sold into slavery by the Kurds but that this number is generally believed to be much greater. It is reported that a total of five thousand Christians have been killed. Some estimates however place the total as high as 10,000.
