HUNTING BROTHER'S BODY, ARRESTED FOR ESPIONAGE

Queenstown, May 10.—Lindell T. Bates, son of Landon W. Bates, of New York, vice chairman of the American Commission for the Relief of Belgium, was arrested at Kinsale yesterday on a charge of espionage while searching for the body of his brother, Landon W. Bates, Jr., who is believed to have perished on the Lusitania. Newton B. Knox, an American mining engineer, who was with Mr. Bates, was taken in custody at the same time.

The sergeant who made the arrests accused them of being officers of a German submarine. After being taken before a captain they were detained at the barracks half an hour until United States Consul Frost at Queenstown touched for their innocence. William Webb, the representative of Alfred G. Vanderbilt, wanted to send out a tug last night to continue the search for Mr. Vanderbilt's body, but the Admiralty and Cunard Line officials discouraged the plan, which was abandoned. There is no indication when the search for bodies will be resumed.

GOVERNOR GOES FISHING

Takes Brief Rest From Strenuous Work of Passing on New Bills
Governor Brumbaugh was expected to return to Harrisburg this afternoon after a short trip to Philadelphia. He took a motor trip to Monroe county and enjoyed a day's trout fishing on Saturday, returning to Philadelphia yesterday.

There remains in the Governor's hands for disposition 73 bills sent him by the Legislature last week, and he will dispose of them in the next few days. Altogether 328 bills have reached the Governor, of which 172 have been approved, 39 vetoed and 34 recalled by the Legislature. This week the number sent him will be very largely augmented from both Senate and house, as the grind of bills will be something enormous in view of the fact that adjournment may come on May 20.

The Harrisburg Polyclinic Dispensary will be open daily except Sunday at 3 p. m., at its new location, Front and Harris streets, for the free treatment of the worthy poor.

MRS. CARMAN ACQUITTED

Woman Freed on Charge of Killing Mrs. Louise Bailey III From Trial's Reaction

New York, May 10.—Mrs. Florence Conklin Carman, acquitted Saturday of the murder of Mrs. Louise D. Bailey in Freeport, L. I., spent a happy day yesterday, though she finally became ill from the reaction. She had little to say, but she denied that either she or Dr. Carman had had an authentic offer from a vaudeville or moving picture manager. Friends showered the Carman family with congratulations by telegrams, telephone and personally. Flowers arrived, too.

Dr. and Mrs. Carman took an auto trip to Brooklyn in the afternoon to visit relatives. Mrs. Carman was seized with a headache on the trip and retired to her room as soon as she got home.

"I expected the verdict," said Dr. Carman, "and considered Justice Blackmar's charge very fair, especially the part telling the jury the whole case depended upon the story of Celia Coleman. No twelve reasoning men could believe that story. She changed it three times.

"We have no definite plans, except that we shall stay in Freeport during the summer. Later we may go to Raven Rock, N. J., to visit relatives and get a rest."

William D. Bailey, of Hempstead, L. I., husband of the murdered woman, said he would pursue the investigation into the killing. Mrs. Jennie Duryee, Mrs. Bailey's mother, broke down under the strain and could not be seen yesterday.

James F. Wilkinson, 115 Broadway, Manhattan, Bailey's lawyer, said there would be further court proceedings resulting from the testimony of certain witnesses at the trial.

Father Maturin Among the Victims
London, May 10; 3.17 A. M.—It has been learned that Father Basil William Maturin, of Holywell, Oxford, perished on the Lusitania. Father Maturin was born in Ireland in 1847. He was educated at Trinity College, Dublin. He was sent to Philadelphia in 1876, to take charge of St. Clement's parish. He became a Roman Catholic in 1897 and was ordained by Cardinal Vaughan in 1898.

MUCH HINGES ON REVENUE BILLS

Date of Adjournment Depends on Whether They Get Snarled in the Legislature

FULL CREW FIGHT COMES TO-NIGHT

The Repealer Which Has Passed the House Will Be Voted on Finally in the Upper Branch—Much Important Legislation is Pending

Both the Senate and House will meet to-night at 8 o'clock, and it is beginning to be realized that the Legislature is on its next to the last lap, next week being the last according to the Republican leaders who have announced that every effort will be made to adjourn on May 20. It is barely possible, however, that revenue measures may get so snarled that it will take a week longer to straighten them out, in which event the legislators would say farewell on May 27.

Efforts will be made to pass the workmen's compensation bills in the Senate this week. A public hearing will be held on them to-morrow afternoon after which it is expected the Corporations Committee of the Senate will hand them out for final action.

The full crew repealer has passed the House and also passed second reading in the Senate and will be on final passage in the Senate to-night, when both railroad company and railroad trainmen agents will be there in force. The fact that the vote in committee to report this bill to the Senate was almost even—7 to 6—has created the impression that the vote on its final passage will be very close, and the railroad trainmen are not without hope that they will be able to defeat it on final passage. On the other hand the railroad companies say they are sure they have enough votes to carry the measure through.

Revenue Bills in the House
Revenue bills will be in order in the House, and the stock transfer tax, the county fund deposit, administration escheat and automobile license increase bills are on the calendar, as well as the bill designed to save the state $800,000 through compelling counties to pay the expenses of the primary elections.

To-morrow the House will give attention to the ship canal bills and the Catlin bill to place anthracite miners under the compensation laws. The bill for standard fire insurance policies is also listed for Tuesday. The House has 22 bills on third reading and 22 on the postponed calendar. In the list are the Optometry, Elevator Inspection Bureau and "Pure Paint" bills. The 33 bills on second reading include the election law amendments, bills to establish State employment agencies, vocational education appropriation and highway bills.

The Senate has on third reading the Fish Code, Obsolete Law Repealer, Pure Liquor bills and the measure to pay owners of cattle killed for foot and mouth disease full value. On second reading are the Clark third class city law amendments, bills for civil service in third class city police and fire departments, for a State Agricultural Commission, to authorize street railways to run motor buses and to establish a State Bureau of Forest Protection. The small loan and penal law amendment bills are on first reading.

SUNLIGHT

Little Talks on Health and Hygiene
By Samuel G. Dixon, M. D., LL. D., Commissioner of Health

For the vast majority of plants sun is an absolute necessity. They cannot grow and thrive without it. It is of almost equal importance to human beings though comparatively few people recognize the fact.

When we walk into a house where the sun streams through the windows and brightens everything, instinctively we say, "what a cheerful place." The stimulating effects of sunshine are difficult to estimate, but they are nevertheless a potent factor in maintaining our physical and mental health.

It has been said that suicides are more prevalent following a period of rainy and depressing weather and figures have been advanced to show that they are more common among people who have rooms with a northern exposure lacking sunlight.

We all know how one's spirits are depressed by a succession of rainy days but we lack a full appreciation of the value of sunlight in our homes.

The germs of tuberculosis for example will not survive for any length of time if exposed to the sun's rays. It is a mistake to so protect our windows with shutters or curtains as to make it impossible to secure the maximum of sunlight. This is especially true in the fall and winter when the days are short, but at all seasons of the year sunlight is invigorating and stimulating and almost as much a necessity as fresh air.

The planting of trees so close to houses that they shut off the sun's rays is a mistake from a health standpoint.

Sun baths are beneficial in stimulating the functions of the skin, sometimes to a degree which enables it to resist minor ailments.

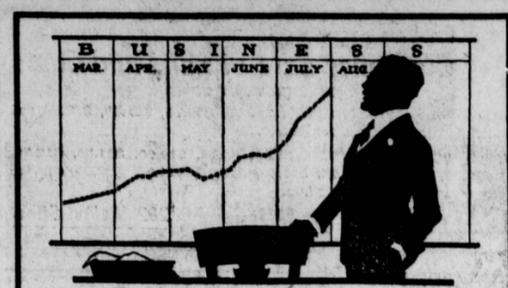

K. G. E. TO MEET AT LEBANON

Annual Convention of Grand Castle Will Convene To-morrow—More Than 500 Delegates to Attend

Lebanon, May 10.—Lebanon is in gala holiday attire for the annual convention of the Grand Castle of the Knights of the Golden Eagle of Pennsylvania, which opens in this city to-morrow morning to continue several days. More than 500 delegates from all parts of the State are expected to be in attendance. The advance guard of the Sir Knights began arriving here to-day, but the big body of delegates are due here to-night. All the hotels and business places as well as private residences have been prettily decorated for the occasion.

With the exception of the parade route all the various other arrangements, including hotel accommodations have been attended to. Fair weather is all that is needed to make the State affair a successful event this year. The opening session is to begin to-morrow morning at 10 o'clock in the Academy of Music. In the absence of Mayor John P. Longenecker, who is attending the Malta's convention, Councilman E. W. Sowers will welcome the delegates. The Rev. T. Clifford Harris, of the local Baptist church, will offer the invocation. John McKinney, of Philadelphia, a Past State Grand Master of the order in Pennsylvania, will respond in behalf of the Eagles.

Starting at 2 o'clock to-morrow afternoon the parade will be held. Committee drills will take place in Market square and will be attractive to thousands of people. Prizes of $100 will be awarded to the successful companies in this competition. The convention delegates being guests of the Lebanon Lodge and the auxiliary the Lebanon Eagles will not be eligible to the competition. Heidelberg Castle, Schaefferstown, will make a strong bid for the first prize in competition. It will send a delegation of seventy-five members who will be accompanied by the Washington band, of Anville. The Perseverance and City bands will escort all delegations from

PUBLIC INTEREST KEEN IN THE "NATIONS AT WAR"

Well-informed Readers Show Great Appreciation of the Star-Independent's Presentation of the Conflict to Its Readers

The public has placed its seal of approval upon the efforts of the Star-Independent to supply its readers with an authoritative account of the European struggle, and is loud in its praises of the presentation plan whereby a fractional sum suffices to secure this handsome addition to readers' local libraries. So great has been the demand for this wonderful work by the famous Willis J. Abbot, and so strong has been the approval of those who have secured and looked the volume over, that the Star-Independent feels it a compliment to its enterprise in securing a big allotment for its readers.

Since August, 1914, the entire world has stood aghast at the wholesale massacre in Europe, the destruction of the great modern vessels on the high seas throughout the world, the complete effacement of art, literary and scientific treasure such as has never before been known, all representing millions upon millions in costs and hundreds of thousands of lives, the greatest part of such a tremendous and permanent loss in usefulness to the entire peoples of the world.

Multitudinous discussions, debates and arguments concerning the causes, objects and probable effects are heard and read on all sides—and each reader lacking in proof deferred forming an opinion for himself until now. The "Nations at War," an editorially authoritative work from the pen of one who knows, will clear the public mind of doubts by its fair, impartial and critically complete resume of all the truths about the greatly misunderstood struggle.

Through the Star-Independent's plan every reader is enabled to possess this volume par excellence at a mere tithe of its worth, 98 cents, to help defray the expenses incident to its delivery. Adv.

AN OPEN LETTER

This Is Also a Paid Advertisement

RIGHT OR WRONG
We do not believe a whole lot in expending much money for newspaper advertising so that we are thereby compelled to ask increased prices for our goods. However, we do, just occasionally like to let EVERYONE know that this store is now as always selling furniture and other housefurnish at lower prices than most other stores.

OUR WAY—
We do a large business under an economical expense system which enables us to quote the lowest possible prices on EVERYTHING. Our prices are uniformly low on all our goods. Our stock is one of the largest and most complete in the city.

Our customers will tell you that this store is not only one of the largest, but the best store in which to purchase their home needs. In fact, our customers really prove to be our advertisers and they have done it very well indeed. We believe thoroughly in a business system that will convince the customer that what he purchases here is at least just a little better for the same money, or as good for less money than he can obtain it for elsewhere.

This is the system which has built up our business, to its present large proportions and is still doing good work for us. We try our best to give our customers the most for their money and our experience has been that the customer can always be depended upon to return the favor in some good way.

REMEMBER THAT—
You may not see our advertisement in the newspapers very often, but we ask you to chalk this down: When you want to buy good furniture at the way-down price, this is the store that is sure to be there with the goods you may want and with the price that will suit.

A JITNEY WILL LET YOU OFF RIGHT AT OUR DOOR.
