

3% PAID ON SAVINGS ACCOUNTS

CAPITAL AND SURPLUS $600,000.00

Investment Securities

Whenever you desire advice or information regarding investment matters our Officers will be pleased to place their knowledge and experience at your disposal.

We will also be pleased to furnish, when desired, safe and suitable investment securities of the same class as we would ourselves take for the investment of our own funds.

Consultations invited.

CHARLES A. KUNKEL, President.
JOHN E. FOX, Vice President.
JOHN E. MOTTE, Secretary-Treasurer.
JOHN F. SWEENEY, Trust Officer.

MECHANICS TRUST COMPANY
HARRISBURG, PA.

SUBURBAN MECHANICSBURG

Carnation Supply Falls Short in Mothers' Day Observance

Special Correspondence.

Mechanicsburg, May 10.—Yesterday was very generally observed in the churches as Mothers' Day. White carnations were very much in evidence and many were brought here and sold. Florist Gronbeck had a large number grown, the supply did not near equal the demand. White roses and lilies of the valley were also worn. In several of the churches the decorations were white and green, carnations, white lilies and dogwood being used. In others all the flowers of the season, in varied colors, were prettily combined. The services were well attended. The churches had automobiles to convey aged and infirm mothers to and from the services. The sermons and music were specially prepared for the occasion and were very appropriate.

Last evening the pulpit of the Presbyterian church was filled by the Rev. Jacob V. Koons, son of the late Isaac Koons, of this place. He was graduated from Princeton Theological Seminary last week. He is a graduate of the Mechanicsburg High School. He will leave for Panama on Thursday, where he will take charge of the Union church of the Canal Zone.

This place is represented in the auto run from Harrisburg to-day by the following gentlemen: Dr. E. E. Campy, bell, in his Cadillac car; S. P. Hauck, in his Chalmers; F. J. Plover, in his Studebaker, and Dr. R. P. Koons, in his White.

Official "Clean-up" week began to-day and everybody is on the job. Morris Pass, William Beck, George G. Clark, W. F. Fishburn, Glenn Becker, J. H. Bowman, David Reiker and Grant Tawney are in Carlisle where they are serving as jurors.

W. A. Huber is representing the Knights of the Golden Eagle of this place in the State Camp being held in Lebanon this week.

Samuel Prowell, of Goldsboro, was the guest of his brother, J. Z. Prowell, West Main street, on Saturday.

Samuel Ebersole, of Highspire, was a business visitor here on Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Leaphart, of Carlisle, were guests yesterday of Mr. and Mrs. F. P. Hall, South Washington street.

Miss Jessie Ferguson, of Harrisburg, was the guest of her cousin, Mrs. R. H. Thomas, Jr., on Saturday.

Mrs. Geary Brenner returned on Saturday from a visit of several weeks.

A number of the relatives and friends of Dr. Harry Boyer, in this place, attended his funeral to-day from his late home in Carlisle.

Mrs. Mary Ellen Singer continues critically ill at her home on West Main street. There is little hope for her recovery.

A baptismal service was held yesterday afternoon by the Church of the Brethren. The service was held at Trindle Spring. A number of converts were immersed in Trindle run.

St. Luke's Episcopal church will be well represented in the attendance at the tenth anniversary of the Harrisburg Diocese, which is being held this week.

Already several members of the Church of the Brethren in this place have engaged lodging at Hershey for the convention week.

Mrs. Kate Hoffman has returned from a visit to Philadelphia relatives.

NEW CUMBERLAND

New Church of God, Costing $25,000, Dedicated Yesterday

Special Correspondence.

New Cumberland, May 10.—Yesterday was an ideal one for the dedication of the new Church of God, which is a beautiful edifice both on the exterior and interior, costing $25,212.99. The amount in cash and subscriptions raised at the three services yesterday was more than $4,000. Large crowds from this and surrounding towns attended all of the services, among whom were a number of ministers. The Rev. Dr. William N. Yates, pastor of the Fourth Street Church of God, Harrisburg, delivered the opening sermon at 10:30 a. m.; the Rev. J. C. Fornerook, of Penbrook, in the afternoon, assisted by local ministers, who extended greetings. The Rev. Dr. S. G. Yahn, editor of the "Church Advocate," preached in the evening.

Miss Emma Dittlow, who has lived with Mr. and Mrs. David Keebaugh for a number of years, had a stroke of paralysis on Friday evening. Saturday she was taken to the Harrisburg Hospital.

Mrs. Sarah Nebinger, of Lancaster, visited her cousins, Misses Moyer and Malone, on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. G. F. Bobb returned from Sebring, Florida, Saturday, where they have been spending the winter.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Forry, of Blue Island, Illinois, are visiting John Forry's family on Church avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. George Landis, of Dauphin, and Milton Potts, of Harrisburg, spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Reigel.

Mrs. Jacob Brubaker is visiting her son, H. M. Brubaker, and family at Williamsport, Pa.

Miss Marcella Ulrich, who has been spending almost a year at Lemoyne, has returned to New Cumberland.

Mrs. Clarence Sweeney spent Saturday with her mother, Mrs. Beaverson, at Middletown.

George Stewart, who is employed by G. B. Osler, the plumber, burned his hand very badly on Saturday while doing some soldering.

The Otterbein Guild of Trinity United Brethren church will meet at the home of Miss Ruth Schell, Second and Bridge streets, to-morrow evening.

R. C. Wear, who had an operation performed at the Methodist Hospital several weeks ago, returned home on Saturday.

Mrs. Harriet Drayer and daughter, Kate, spent the past week with Mr. and Mrs. Elias Fry at Harrisburg.

The foundation is being put up at Hillside for a house which is being built by Chester Long, of New York.

Howard Stone, borough constable, is having a large porch built and other improvements made at his home on Fourth street.

Saturday a game of ball took place between the Bellavista team and the Carnation team, of Harrisburg, resulting in a score of 15-7 in favor of Bellavista. A return game will take place on the Island next Saturday.

The Queen Esther Circle of the M. E. church will meet at the home of Mrs. H. C. Oren this evening and elect officers for the coming year.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Swartz, H. S. Lenhart, of Emigsville, and Mr. and Mrs. George Mathias, of Mt. Washington, motored to this place Sunday and

DAUPHIN

Harrisburg Light Company Extending Its Line to Blough Bungalow

Special Correspondence.

Dauphin, May 10.—The Harrisburg Heat, Light and Power Company, is extending its line to the bungalow of Willis Blough.

Ellis Fertig, John Q. Fertig and Willis Blough have had their houses wired for electricity.

Miss Clara Bergstresser was at Millersburg on Wednesday.

Alfred Zearing, of Duncannon, was in town on Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Corbett, of Harrisburg, were the guests of Mrs. Mary Corbett, on Wednesday.

Mrs. C. G. Hoover will entertain the Ladies' Aid Society of the United Evangelical church at her home in Rockville, to-morrow from 10 a. m. to 4 p. m.

Merle Hoover, of Speeceville, has gone to Syracuse, N. Y.

Misses Ruth Ward and Mary McConnell, of the Red Hill school, and several pupils from the Dauphin school took the examination at Dauphin on Wednesday for admittance to the Dauphin High school next fall.

Mrs. Grace Wogle and daughter, Elizabeth, and Miss Goldie Gilday, are spending several days with their sister, Mrs. John Hyde, Philadelphia.

The grammar and primary schools closed on Friday for the term. The were guests of D. Y. Lenhart's family and Mr. and Mrs. George Mathias.

Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Ross announce the marriage of their daughter, Blanche, to Frank Downie, of Harrisburg, which took place at York, January 30. The announcement was a great surprise.

A pretty service was held in the Methodist Sunday school Sunday morning commemorative of Mothers' Day. The following program was rendered: Singing, school; recitation, Maud Keister; vocal solo, Miss Henrietta Adams; recitations, Sara Gray and Vera Lenhart; a brief lesson; quartet, H. W. Buttorff, Earl Bates, Miss Henrietta Adams and Burgess Broadhurst; recitation, Miss Dorothy Lenhart; music, orchestra. A small bunch of white flowers was presented to each member as they went into the Sunday school.

HUMMELSTOWN

Annual Meeting of Zion Lutheran Congregation to Be Held Thursday

Special Correspondence.

Hummelstown, May 10.—The mid-week service in the Reformed church on Wednesday evening will be omitted. The pastor, the Rev. Robert A. Bausch, will attend the commencement exercises of the Theological Seminary at Lancaster.

Mrs. John Gay, of Philadelphia, was the guest of her sisters, Misses Mary and Elizabeth, over Sunday.

The annual meeting of the congregation of Zion Lutheran church will be held on Thursday evening. Officers will be elected and reports for the past year presented.

Mrs. Harvey Lerch, of Harrisburg, visited her father, Peter H. Shope, yesterday.

Reed Walmer, of Philadelphia, was the guest of his mother, Mrs. Elizabeth Walmer, over Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Grover C. Buser spent Saturday with Mrs. Daniel Cassel at Lancaster.

Mr. and Mrs. George Etter, of Palmyra, visited relatives in town Saturday.

Harry C. Reiber, of Mechanicsburg, was a visitor in town yesterday.

Mrs. Kate McGlothin, of Harrisburg, spent yesterday with Mrs. H. Wells Buser.

Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Schaffner and daughters, Misses Grace and Caroline, and Miss Carrie Schaffner spent yesterday at Lancaster. Paul Schaffner, a son of Mr. and Mrs. Schaffner, will graduate this week from the Lancaster Theological Seminary.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Frantz, of Steelton, and Mr. and Mrs. Weir Deckard and daughter, of Middletown, were guests of Mrs. Ida Thompson yesterday.

Charles E. Leidy and son, Lester, of Highspire, spent yesterday with Mr. and Mrs. L. G. Hummel.

Warren Stecher, of Lebanon, spent today at the home of his grandmother, Mrs. Minnie Stecher.

Mr. and Mrs. John A. Ebersole, of Penbrook; Mr. and Mrs. E. Z. Ebersole and daughters, Ruth and Elizabeth, of Lower Paxton, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Grover C. Buser yesterday.

Miss Lola Kerr, of Lebanon, spent yesterday with her aunt, Miss Barbara Hummel.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Snively, of Harrisburg, spent yesterday with friends in town.

Howard O. Holstein, of Harrisburg, was a visitor in town yesterday.

Oliver Deimler accompanied his sister, Miss Lillian Deimler, to Philadelphia yesterday. Miss Deimler will enter the University of Pennsylvania hospital as a student nurse.

Mrs. Charles Boughter and daughter, of Royaltown, spent several days with Miss Emma Miller.

DUNCANNON

Special Services Held Yesterday in Observance of Mothers' Day

Special Correspondence.

Duncannon, May 10.—Sunday being Mothers' Day, special services were held in the churches.

Thomas Weldon, of Elliottsburg, spent yesterday with relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Johnston visited relatives in Harrisburg on Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. John T. Glass are spending some time at the home of their daughter, Mrs. George R. Holland, at Harrisburg.

Harry Rodemaker, who is employed at Mechanicsburg, spent the week-end with his parents.

MIDDLETOWN

Funerals of Alexander Imler and Augustus Bauder Held Saturday

Middletown, May 10.—The funeral of the late Alexander Imler was held from his late home on Market street Saturday afternoon with services at 3:30 p. m., conducted by the Rev. Fuller Bergstresser, pastor of St. Peter's Lutheran church. Those present from out of town were Israel Imler, Ave; John Kramer, Roaring Springs; Lee Imler, Altoona; Edgar Imler, Lorain, Ohio; Mr. and Mrs. Harry Caley, Newport News, Va.; Mrs. Alice Baker and sister, Hahsey, of Schriener, and sister, Harrisburg; Ellwood Millard, Miss Anna Hendrick, Mt. Joy; Samuel Grove and daughter, Eva, Columbia. Floral tributes were given by the following: Blanket, wife and grandson, Ivan; sheaf of wheat and carnations, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Imler; lilies, William Imler and family; carnations, Mr. and Mrs. H. Caley; sweet peas, Charles Imler and family; carnations, Mr. and Mrs. Adam Hickornell; lilies, Ellwood Millard and Miss Ann Hendrick; carnations, Mr. and Mrs. H. Fishburn; carnations, Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Caley; carnations, Harry Smith and sister, Sadie; crescent, Star of Bethlehem, No. 45. The pallbearers were Thomas Jordan, John Inley, Dr. C. E. Bowers, Valentine Baumbach, Samuel Deil, Edwin Beard. Interment was in the Middletown cemetery.

The funeral of the late Augustus Bauder was held from his late home on Main street Saturday afternoon at 1:30 p. m. The Rev. E. Ludwig, a former pastor of the U. B. church, officiated, assisted by the Rev. I. H. Albright. Those present from out of town were Aaron Bauder Chicago; William Bauder, Elizabethville; Jacob Bauder, Reading; Frank Bauder and family; Dr. and Mrs. George Bauder, Harrisburg; Mr. and Mrs. D. F. Lebo, Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Matter, Mr. and Mrs. David Matter, Mrs. Harry Shadle, Miss Christine Shadle, Fred Gaupe, Joseph Pehar and Jonas Row, all of Elizabethville; Mr. and Mrs. William Matter, Philadelphia; Mrs. Herbert Pallison, Steelton. Six sons of the decedent served as pallbearers. Interment was in the Middletown cemetery.

The funeral of the late Mrs. Mary Parthomere will be held from her late home on Water street to-morrow afternoon at 2 o'clock. The Rev. H. F.

CALL 1991 ANY PHONE

Bowman's FOUNDED 1871

First of the Alexander Smith & Sons Auction Rugs

Will Go On Sale To-morrow

Our representatives were among the largest purchasers at the great auction sale of four million dollars' worth of high-grade rugs from the above well-known mill.

In the face of steadily advancing prices on rugs, this sale offers fine grades at considerably less than former prices, and we consider it the logical time to buy the rugs which perhaps you've been putting off; and you'll do well to look to future needs.

The first lot cannot last so very long—and getting the best will be a matter only of getting here first.

Note the sizes and reductions:

| | | | |
|--|----------------|--|--------------------------|
| Smith's Axminster Rugs—size 9x12; regularly $22.50. Auction Sale price, | $19.48 | Smith's Colonial Velvet Rugs—size 9x12; regularly $25.00. Auction Sale price, | $21.00 |
| Smith's Kirman Seamless Rugs—size 9x12; regularly $29.50. Auction Sale price, | $24.00 | Smith's Tapestry Brussels Rugs—size 7.6x9; regularly $9.50 and $11.50. Auction Sale price, | $7.98 and $9.75 |
| Smith's Axminster Rugs—size 7.6x9; regularly $18.00. Auction Sale price, | $15.98 | Smith's Axminster Rugs—hearth size; regularly $2.25. Auction Sale price, | $1.79 |

Fourth Floor—BOWMAN'S.

Our Second Hastings' Kitchen Cabinet Club Opens To-morrow

Another carload has just been sidetracked and deliveries can be made immediately. Join the club now:

Pay $1.00 Down: The Balance While You're Using It

We know of no other method more satisfactory to patrons. The club membership fee is but $1.00. This places a "Hastings" in your home, and you may pay for it in convenient weekly amounts.

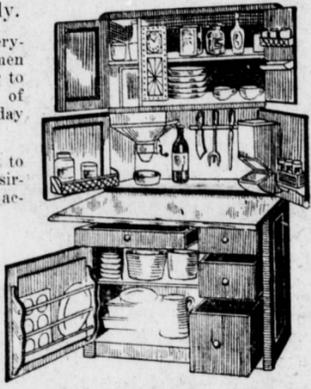

HASTINGS KITCHEN CABINETS feature a number of kitchen conveniences that will be found in these cabinets only.

The handiness of everything will appeal to women who have been seeking to decrease the number of steps they take every day—and every meal.

The size is just right to make the cabinets desirable—large enough to accommodate a very large number of articles; small enough so as not to be cumbersome. Join the Hastings Club now, and:

"Enjoy a Shorter Day's Work"

Fifth Floor—Bowman's.

Tuesday Domestic Specials

- Bleached Muslin, 5c yd.—regularly 7c; cut from full pieces; 36 inches wide.
 - Bleached Sheet, 19c yd.—regularly 28c; 72 inches wide; even, round thread.
 - Awning Stripes, 15c to 25c yd.—cut from full pieces.
 - Unbleached Muslin, 7c yd.—regularly 9c; 36 inches wide; full, even, round thread—will bleach easily.
 - Bleached Sheets at 59c—regularly 70c and 75c; 63x99 inches; or 72x99 inches; made of good durable sheeting.
 - Pillow Cases, at 15c each—regularly 17c and 20c; 42x36 or 45x36 inches.
 - Outing Flannel, 5c yd.—regularly 10c; in light and dark patterns.
- Main Floor—BOWMAN'S.

Come To Baby Land

All This Week

This busy little spot was never so pretty with cunning storks and pretty decorations to attract and delight the little folks during Baby Week.

Have baby weighed and entered in the contest for six prizes.

Baby Coaches

Let us present him with a big balloon.

Baby's picture will be taken free with a purchase made in the Infants' Wear Department.

Baby Shoes

Baby's feet should be carefully fitted with suitable footwear. In our complete showing, you'll find:

Tiny button boots, dainty ankle strap slippers, dressy Roman sandals, for that wonderful baby, in patent calf, soft veici kid, white buckskin, tan and champagne kid skin and russet calf skin. Well made and carefully finished—and with room for all five toes.

Priced at 50c to $1.50.

Third Floor—BOWMAN'S.

Clearing Out $20 Coaches at $7.00

Four wood body Pullmans that have become scratched from various handlings. With a little work they'll look like new.

Third Floor—BOWMAN'S.

SWAT THE FLY

Get Your Fly Swatter at Bowman's—Free

Hoover, pastor of the Church of God, will officiate. Interment will be in the Middletown cemetery.

Mr. and Mrs. John Matthews and daughter, Martha, of Lancaster, spent Sunday in town.

Jacob Weirich, of Reading, spent Saturday and Sunday in town.

The school board and borough council will meet this evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Sweeney, of New Cumberland, spent Saturday in town.

Miss Pearl Condran is spending several days at Roversford as the guest of relatives.

Howard Rehner and John Patton went on the special excursion to Washington, D. C.

Charles Fratts, of Zanesville, Ohio, arrived in town Sunday morning having been called here on account of the illness of his father, J. H. Fratts.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Miller, of Philadelphia, are spending the week in town as the guests of relatives.

Mrs. W. J. Kinnard spent Friday at Philadelphia visiting Mr. Kinnard, who is recovering rapidly from his operation and expects to be home in about two weeks.

Henry Shellenberger, who spent the past week in town as the guest of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Shellenberger, Emaus street, returned to Cleveland, Ohio, on Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Curtis Hoffman, two daughters, Elizabeth and Ruth, who spent the past week in town as the guests of Mrs. Hoffman's parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. Fishel, Main street, have returned to their home at Spruce Creek.

HALIFAX

Thirty-eight New Members Admitted to Civic Brotherhood

Special Correspondence.

Halifax, May 10.—The Rev. A. C. White, of Cleveland, Ohio, manager of the Harrisburg branch of the American Civic Reform Bureau, delivered an excellent lecture before a large audience in the United Brethren church Sunday afternoon under the auspices of the Brotherhood of Halifax. Men were present from Millersburg, Enterline, McClellan, Waynesville and Matamoros. Thirty-eight new members were received at this meeting, making a grand total of 103 members.

The Keystone Athletic Association, of this place, has organized for the season by electing C. G. Westfall as manager. Any team desiring games with this team should address the manager at once.

Hezekiah Matter, Fourth street, suffered a stroke during the past week.

John L. Pease, of Dillsburg, is the guest of his son, the Rev. J. C. Pease, and family.

Mr. and Mrs. George H. Landis and children, of Lucknow, spent Sunday with friends in this vicinity.

Has Five Brothers in German Army

Lebanon, May 10.—Probably no man in Lebanon county has more kin in the European war than Charles Rieckert, Canal street, this city, who has five brothers in the German army. Mr. Rieckert also has a number of nephews and other relatives who are in the Kaiser's army. One of his brothers, Alfred Rieckert, was shot twice during the invasion of Belgium.

Man Dies in Burning Mill

Allentown, May 10.—Harry Smith was burned to death in a fire which destroyed the Long Valley Rug Mill, at Mertztown, west of this city, yesterday morning, entailing a loss of $45,000 to building and contents. Smith ran into the building to save some of the contents and was overcome by smoke. The mill was operated by Mockridge & Postess, of Philadelphia.

New City Vice Squad Is Formed

Wilkes-Barre, Pa., May 10.—Prompted to action when the police found three alleged disorderly houses flourishing in the old tenderloin district of the city, the superintendent of public safety, Edwin L. Morgan, announces that beginning to-day J. Grant Long, police sergeant, with twelve picked men will act as a vice squad and be in charge of all raids.

MONUMENT SET UP FOR APE

Monkey's Grave Decorated by Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Humphreys

Summit, N. J., May 10.—The grave of a pet monkey, which was owned by Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Humphreys, of New York, and was buried here a short time ago on the estate of Mr. Humphreys' mother, Mrs. T. St. John Gaffney, is now marked with a handsome headstone.

After its death the monkey was brought here in a beautiful and costly casket by Mr. and Mrs. Humphreys. A jeweled collar also was buried with the dead monkey and its grave was decked with carnations and roses.

The mother of Mr. Humphreys, who was a widow married T. St. John Gaffney, who represents this country as Minister in Munich.

Jonestown to Erect New Fire House

Lebanon, May 10.—The Borough Council of Jonestown will sell at public sale the home of Moses F. Arndt on Main street, which was recently purchased so as to get a lot of ground for a new town fire engine house. The old building, which is constructed of logs, weather-boarding, etc., will be sold, and the conditions specify that the house must be removed in 30 days. The house is a relic of the early days of community life at Jonestown.

Necessary Precaution

"Life is just one long and rocky road."

"Of course, it is constructed that way purposely in order to keep nine-tenths of the human race from lying down and going to sleep."—Richmond Times-Dispatch.