The "Tribune" also asserts that new Austrian military laws have been phrased in the principal towns of Trent which amount to a declaration of a state of siege.

Germans Sink Queen Wilhelmina
London, May 11.—The British steamer Queen Wilhelmina, of Hartlepool, was torpedoed and sunk by a German submarine off Blyth on Saturday. Time was allowed the crew to take to the boats. The men were picked up by a patrol boat and landed at Shields. The Queen Wilhelmina was engaged in the transatlantic trade. She was 2,307 tons net, 363 feet long and was built in 1898. On her last voyage across the ocean she left Philadelphia April 6 for Leath.

WOMEN OFF FRONT SEAT

To Keep Peace Jitney Driver Agrees to Wife's Proposition
San Francisco, May 11.—If Frank Rose of Woodward avenue keeps women off the front seat of his jitney bus he will be able to keep his wife, Margaret. Frank agreed to this in Superior Judge Graham's court, when summoned to answer his wife's divorce complaint that he reserved the front seat of the machine for women only.
"How about reserving the back seat for the ladies and the front seat for the men?" the Judge asked.
"It's a go," responded Rose.
Smiling into each other's faces the couple left the court together.

PAINTED UP STOLEN HORSE

White Bald Face Blackened With Stove Polish
Franklin, Pa., May 11.—Matthew L. Hoffman, 43, a farmer, was lodged in jail here to await trial for stealing a horse owned by his father.
Though the animal was found in his possession Hoffman denies that he is guilty.
The horse was found in an old pen at a remote place on the farm and its white face had been painted with stove polish, the authorities say, to disguise it.
The father and son had not been on good terms for fifteen years owing to a disagreement of the mother and son over a piano when the son went to housekeeping. The men had not spoken to each other during that period.

WHAT SHE SAID

And What He Said When He Didn't Tell What She Said
"Hello! That you, dear?"
"Yes."
"I'm going to bring Green up to supper to-night. We're on the way now."
"For goodness' sake, how many times have I told you never to invite your fool friend up here without giving me notice? I haven't a thing in the house. You make me tired. I've been working hard all day and was going to have just a little picked up lunch to-night, and now you spring Green on me at the last minute. You must think I like to stand around a hot stove. I'll tell you right now you're not going to get any swell meal to-night. You'll get yesterday's cold lamb and my warmed over potatoes, and if he doesn't like that he can lump it."
"Yes, dear. That's fine. Just the thing. We'll be right up."
"What did she say?"
"She's tickled to death to have you come. Said she'd been wondering why I hadn't brought you up before. Come on."—Detroit Free Press.

PROBLEMS FOR DUNKARDS

Is It a Sin to Ride in Automobile or to Grow Tobacco
Dayton, Ohio, May 10.—The Dunkards, the Old German Baptist brethren, consider it a sin to use tobacco, and at their national conference to be held at Hyer's Church, four miles north of Dayton, May 23, they will determine by vote if it also is a sin against Christianity to grow the weed as well. This is the main issue to be brought up when 6,000 of the sect gather.
Another question to be settled is: "Is it a sin to own and ride in an automobile?" Likewise this issue will be put to a vote and settled for future generations of Dunkards.

Last Week in May for Italy's Decision
