A host of pretty creations, picturing warm weather beauty and brightness: A Summer Millinery Opening

The first really large showing of styles for the warm months, that has come to Harrisburg.

This big May Day event marks a decided change from the medium and near-dark colors of a few weeks ago, to the snowy white, or pastel shades that will dominate immediate future head dress.

Newest are:

- Smart Sailors
- White Dress Hats
- Panama Sailors
- Evening Hats
- Tailored Hats
- Sport Hats

The Millinery Department is fairly overflowing with the new and newest. A timely clearaway, following at the heels of Easter, carried off spring styles to a large number of satisfied patrons—to wear while they were yet in style—at a substantial saving.

That provided room for a most complete assemblage of summer styles—and this is the time to begin wearing them.

Sport Hats Deserve Special Prominence

So much attention given to outdoor life, demands equal attention to the proper hats. We're showing these hats for all sorts of wear—comfort: first consideration—including some that won't mind being handled roughly; fact is, they invite rough wear.

A knowledge of summer hat craft is incomplete without seeing this showing.

May Time Showing of the Newest in Summer Wash Dress Fabrics

In glancing over the weaves (following) you'll note the completeness of stocks and fullness of varieties—all, individually popular for the different frocks, waists and finer gowns for summer wear. Prices are moderate indeed, considering the qualities.
