For sale in Harrisburg by Geo. A. Gorgas.

If you will look around Harrisburg, read the advertising pages of our papers and go window shopping a bit, you'll find many a carbon copy of Doutrich's.

We can't protest against this condition, our receipts for success are not, nor cannot, be copyrighted; fact is we have no desire to keep the commercial world from enjoying the benefits incident to their use.

We started this business with but one idea, to give Harrisburg greater clothing values and better clothing service than men had thought possible heretofore . . . and we have done it.

No small credit is due to

for the successful practicing of this policy. We had to have right merchandise and they supplied it. We guaranteed satisfaction at every point and Kuppenheimer merchandise upheld that guarantee.

We grew, faster than any store in Pennsylvania, and every new customer, every ring of our cash register, added strength to our position. Greater volume made even greater value possible.

Come in to the Live Store to-morrow; ask, test, prove for yourself the justice of our claims to leadership. Come to the Original Greater Value Giving Store . . . carbon copies are O. K., but you take a chance of some point being blurred.

FULL HOUSE GREETED HOME TALENT MINSTRELS

Ticket Sales Exceeded Capacity of High School Auditorium When Local Funmakers Presented 18th Annual Entertainment Last Evening

With a credit of ticket sales slightly in excess of the seating capacity of the large high school auditorium, a record crowd greeted the presentation of the eighteenth annual show of Steelton's funmakers, the Original Home Talent Minstrels, last evening.

This performance was all and more than Daylor and Lynch, managers, announced it would be. The skits were many and varied and at the conclusion of each, the performers were cheered to the echo, there seeming to be no partiality shown by the big crowd, because of the excellent interpretation made by the various units of the organization.

The eight end men were adepts in the passing of fresh jokes, a number of good-natured quibs being made at the expense of Burgess Wigfield, the Steelton police force, and Dr. W. H. Seibert. Two skits, "When It's Night-time Down in Dixie" and the "Five Cent Barber Shop," were responsible for more hilarity on the part of the audience, than some others.

Roy Morrow, as the Hebrew Senator, was a scream from start to finish with his quaint Hebrew dialect. Mike Calderazzo responded to an encore at the close of a musical act which was splendidly performed.

The singing of the big male chorus showed the scientific training of Gwilym Watkins and the splendid harmony of the well balanced voices has seldom been equaled on a local stage. The soloists showed great improvement over previous years and consisted of the following members: Frank Brushears, who rendered "Floating Down the Mississippi"; John Purcell, "Mother Machree"; Charles Newbaker, "Aba-da-ba Honey Moon"; Warren Goodman, "There's Only One Story on the Roses Tell"; Charles Lynch, "Listen to the Dixie Band"; Harley Noll, "I'll Love You as Long as the Shamrock Grows Green," and Gwilym Watkins, "Down in the Deep, Let Me Sleep When I Die." This was a splendid baritone solo, brilliantly rendered.

Each of the soloists was accompanied by the large male choir in the chorus part with beautiful harmonic effects. Tom Lynch, as interlocutor, showed great ability in keeping the fun moving. Miss Mary Lynch skillfully played all the piano accompaniments. Mike Daylor's original humor, coupled with the use of the darkey dialect, was a big feature of the show.

SCHOOL PROGRAMS TO-MORROW

Art Exhibits Will Be Held Thursday, Friday and Saturday

Careful preparations are being made on the part of teachers and pupils to have most interesting exercises in each of the schools to-morrow afternoon at 2 o'clock. These programs will consist of music and literary exercises. On the walls of each room will be displayed specimens of the work in drawing, art and sewing for the term. These specimens display much skill and taste on the part of the pupils and cannot help but prove a source of much interest to all who visit the buildings. This exhibit of the handwork of our boys and girls will be open to the public as follows:

In all the grades below the High school on Thursday and Friday afternoons. The High school exhibit Friday evening from 7.30 to 10 o'clock and Saturday afternoon from 1.30 to 5 o'clock.

The grade work in the High and Felton buildings will be open for inspection also on Saturday afternoon.

LARGE BOUQUETS GIVEN HILLIS EVANGELISTS

Foundrymen and Patternmakers United in Tendering Handsome Floral Souvenirs to Those in Charge of Tabernacle Services in the Borough

Prior to the opening of the evangelistic meeting in the tabernacle last evening, a large delegation of employees of the foundry and pattern department of the local steel company marched to the meeting place from Front and Trewick and Front and Locust streets in a body.

The delegation carried with it a number of choice floral emblems which were later presented to the Rev. and Mrs. E. Hillis and the Rev. L. Stahl. The most striking emblem of the lot was a huge basket standing five feet high to the top of the handle.

Evangelist Hillis took his text last night from Acts 16:30, "What must I do to be saved?" He said when a revival gets rightly started in a town the hoodlums always begin to huddle, like some are doing here now. When the preaching of the Gospel begins to pinch the toes of some people they begin to say: "This thing must stop." The greatest question for any man to settle is, "What must I do to be saved?" You are not saved because you wear good clothes and are rich. If you are going to be saved you must be saved by one way and one way only. You can't be saved on your wife's religion. You are not saved by the lodge. The lodge is not a soul-saving institution. The lodge is all right in its place, but the church is first. Don't put your lodge first if you are a Christian; if you do you will be damned.

"You can't be saved by the ceremonies in the church. You are not saved by the church. If you are trusting your church membership alone to save you, you will not be saved. No creed can save you. You cannot be saved by your feelings. You will never get the feeling that you are a Christian until you are one. You ought to take your stand for Christ because it is right, whether you have any feeling about the matter or not. There is nothing in the word of God which says you can be saved by living a good, moral life. Being a Christian is living a life. It is the blood of Jesus Christ that saves.

The Revs. A. G. Bossler, Weidenhammer, C. Brunner and William Smith were visitors last night. The subject of Evangelist Hillis for to-night is "Something New."

DESTROYER RESCUING CREW OF BRITISH WARSHIP IN DARDANELLES

The above picture of the sinkings of the British battle ship Ocean during the operations in the Dardanelles was drawn especially for this newspaper, the London "Sphere" and the New York "Herald" from a personal description given by an eye witness who actually participated in the event. Describing the sinking this eye witness said: "We had been hit ever so many times, and it was at the end of the day, when we were coming out of action, that suddenly there was a big explosion and the whole ship shook, and then we began to list over to starboard. In five minutes we had listed over a good way. We had no orders to shift or anything, but one of the gun's crew looked out of the casemates door and saw that everybody had gone aft, and found that there were destroyers alongside and we were abandoning ship. Then the enemy got our range with howitzers and shells were falling about us, so the destroyer I was in shoved off, being one of the outside ones, and we steamed out with another. Then after a while we were told to go back to the Ocean, but when we got there we found nobody else had come back and the enemy was still firing at her, so we were recalled and went to the Agamemnon, where I am now."
