If you have delayed purchasing a spring suit, you're in a position now to save a few dollars on the lower priced grades; and a remarkable sum on the finer, exquisite models.

The price on every suit has been revised, without exception, and every value-wise woman will readily see the advantage in investing so small a sum in a good suit that will give her excellent service throughout the summer.

The following reductions tell their own story, however:

$18.50

Formerly $35 upward

$15.00

Formerly $25.00

$12.50

Formerly $19.50 to $22.50

$9.90

Formerly $12.00 and $15.00

Many of the higher priced suits are copies of imported models, and altogether the assortment is one of most approved styles and fabrics; while the tailoring is an example of careful workmanship.

There are silk poplins; wool poplins; gabardines; and other popular weaves.

Mostly the wanted light shades—sand, putty, battleship gray, checks and the like.
