SOCIETY FOLK TO HELP AT STEELTON CARNIVAL

They Will Wear Gay Costumes in Presiding Over Booths While Croatian and Servian Sokols Entertain With Brilliant Native Folk Dances

Over Country's International Relations Were Partly Dispelled

By Associated Press.

New York, May 15.—Wall Street.—The clouds which gathered over the stock market yesterday as a result of the apparent crisis in this country's international relations were partly dispelled to-day. Prices of stocks rose 2 to 4 points and the short interest was again hurriedly driven to cover. War shares, yesterday's weakest features, made up some of their declines and standard shares as well as speculative issues responded to the more cheerful mood.

Trading was very moderate through out, however, pursuant to the policy of caution counselled in responsible quar Fashionable folk of both Harrisburg brilliantly illuminated not only with extra are lamps but with powerful searchlights. The street will be gaily decorated with bunting and flags of all nations and the plans indicate that it will be the most brilliant affair of the kind ever attempted in Steelton.

Mrs. R. V. W. Reynders is general chairman of the committee of arrangements, and Mrs. Richard V. McKay is in charge of the drills and other exhi-ments, and Mrs. Richard V. McKay is in charge of the drills and other exhibitions to be given by Steelton sokols of the Servians and Croatians. More than 100 of the men, women and children of the sokols will participate, wearing their gorgeous national costumes.

Persons in Charge of Booths
This part of the entertainment will consist of drills, folk dances, Indian club and wand exercises and performances on the trapese and parallel bars, —all taking place in the street. There also will be a big street parade headed by the famous Steelton band which will give frequent concerts during the afternoon and evening. Another feature by the famous Steetton band which will give frequent concerts during the afternoon and evening. Another feature will be singing by a colored quartet.

The booths will be elaborate and gorgeous. Mrs. Lewis E. Johnson will be in charge of the country store and will be assisted by a corps of young women of social prominence who will wear appropriate costumes and sell a great variety of wares including aprons, canned goods and everything else ordinarily found in a well regulated country store.

Mrs. Henry Gross will preside over the bargain counter; Mrs. Robert M. Rutherford will conduct the cake booth, and Mrs. Charles V. Buck, the ice cream department.

and Mrs. Charles V. Buck, the ice cream department.

There will be two May pole dances, in charge of Mrs. Charles T. Feidt, while Mrs. Frank D. Carney will chaperon a corps of pretty girls who will sell "hot dogs," pies, coffee and other things at a regular "quick lunch" counter. Mrs. Uttley Abererombie will direct the sale of soft drinks to the thirsty throng that is sure to be there. "Htt-the-Baby" Booth

Not even the "Hit-the-baby" booth will be omitted. It will be in charge of Mrs. McKay and anybody who can knock dwon the requisite number of miniature doll babies will be rewarded with a fine five-cent cigar, which will knock dwon the requisite number of miniature doll babies will be rewarded with a fine five-cent eigar, which will be handed out by Charles T. Feidt or Charlton Reynders. There will be a fortune-telling tent in charge of Mrs. Maude Hope, but the committee declines to announce the names of the pretty "gypsies" who will mysteriously delve into the future for all persons who have the price.

Mrs. Wiggs, of cabbage patch fame, will be impersonated by Miss Katherine Darby, who will be assisted by Miss Azalea, daughter of Steelton's burgess, and there will be lots of other attractions which are bound to net a fine
