

Manly men, who prefer A. A. U. medals to wrist watches, enjoy a highball down to the last drop. When in the mood specify Moroney's Army and Navy Whiskey, and say "Nix" to the bar clerk if he tries to ring in a substitute. Shun all pinch hitters. We take so much trouble getting our product right, that it surely won't be much trouble for you to say "Moroney." Recommend us to your grandpaw.

MACKS WELCOME REST

Pennock or Bressler Likely to Face Brown in To-day's Game

St. Louis, Mo., May 15.—Connie Mack welcomed yesterday's idleness which the schedule makers so kindly provided as it gives him a chance to rest his pitchers. Mack tacitly admits that the Browns and the Athletics appear to have cornered all the wild men of baseball this season.

Pennock, who worked in two innings of Wednesday's game, is likely to be sent against the Browns to-day in an effort to even up the series. Bressler is second choice. With Rickey's crippled pitching staff he will probably send Perryman, who has appeared in but two major league games, to the mound, and if he fails, Carl Weiland, despite the fact that he worked Thursday, will be called on as relief pitcher.

The Athletics were much exercised over comment yesterday that Bush is using a substitute for the emery ball. The Athletics players all deny that their pitchers are violating the language rule.
