give up their boat lines by December 1, 1915. This is the first case involving ex-tensive steamship properties under the new law which has been decided against new law which has been decided against the railroads.

The decision is regarded as of great importance to all the ports on the lakes which are reached both by boat and rail lines. The fact that they are reached by oth those agencies of transportation, the commission says, "establishes a case of competition existing between the owning railroad and its boat line."

Two Appointments to Make

Two Appointments to Make

There are two vacancies now in the State Water Commission, John Birkinbipe having died yesterday and Ben.
K. Focht having resigned. Governor Brumbaugh will fill the vacancies in due time. The salary is $3,000 and a large number of applications have been made for place on the commission to fill the Focht vacancy, which will be very materially increased from those who desire to succeed the late Mr.
Birkinbine.
