

The loss of Collins, Bender, Plank, Magee and Lobert are heart-breakers for fans. It will be hard to fill their oxfords at the two local ball orchards. It takes time to build a super-dreadnought, dig a subway or develop a .300 per cent. whaler. Ask any night taxicab driver. But lovers of the national pastime still have lots left to tickle 'em. There's Mc-Innis, Barry, Schang, Cravath, Becker, Alexander and Moroney's Army and Navy Whiskey.

NATIONAL LEAGUE

Phillies, 5; St. Louis, 3
Philadelphia, May 18.—Any lingering doubt that the Phillies have not emerged from their erstwhile batting slump was dispelled yesterday in no uncertain manner when the men of Moran pounded St. Louis pitchers for 11 hits, which totaled 21 bases. Despite the slugger's slugging, the home chaps won only by margin of two runs, the final count being 5 to 3.

COFFEY MUST BEAT FLYNN

Jack Curley Issues Ultimatum on New Heavyweight's Demands
New York, May 18.—I want to say just one word regarding Billy Gibson's challenge and offer of $25,000 on behalf of Jim Coffey's contention that he be given a match with Jess Willard, writes Jack Curley. "Let Coffey meet and defeat—if he can—Jim Flynn before his claim be given serious consideration."
"Coffey did everything in the world to Flynn except hit him with a baseball bat when they last met. Flynn was winning and Coffey knew it, and as a result committed every foul on the calendar."
