BRISTOL MAN ENDS LIFE

Wife Finds Body in Coop When She Goes to Feed Chickens
Bristol, Pa., May 20.—John S. Williams ended his life by hanging himself in a chicken coop yesterday afternoon. His wife discovered the body when she went to feed the chickens. The cause given by the family is worry over loss of work.
He was one of the most prominent Democrats in Bucks county, an ex-County Commissioner and chairman of his ward. He was a retired farmer.

Scrambled From Yawning Earth
Mahanoy City, Pa., May 20.—Returning from a delivery trip down Mahanoy Valley, Joseph Wertz, a teamster, was startled when one of his horses was swallowed up in a mine cave-in near the storage yards. The driver jumped and the second horse scrambled to

WAR CAUSES A STRIKE

Hungarian Weavers Demand Discharge of Italian Foreman
Easton, Pa., May 20.—The prospect of Italy declaring war on Austria-Hungary was responsible for a strike at the Simon silk mills yesterday.
Fifty-six Hungarian weavers walked out when the management refused to discharge an Italian foreman. The strikers declared that the Italian discriminated against them.

York to Have Revival

York, Pa., May 20.—Preliminary arrangements for the Rev. Dr. W. E. Biederwolf to begin an evangelistic campaign here Sunday, October 31, were made yesterday. City Council has refused the use of Penn Common for the erection of a tabernacle, and five other sites are being considered.

JR. O. U. A. M. CELEBRATES

Dr. W. A. Painter, of This City, Makes Address in Philadelphia
Philadelphia, May 20.—The sixty-second anniversary of the Junior Order United American Mechanics was celebrated with a banquet and dance at the Continental hotel last night. It was impossible for Governor Brumbaugh, who had been invited as guest of honor and chief speaker, to attend owing to the press of official business at this time, but a message of encouragement was received from him by E. E. Leatherman, chairman of the executive committee of the order.
Addresses were made by C. B. Webb, of North Carolina, who is national vice counselor, and Dr. William H. Painter, of Harrisburg. They told of the work of the order in this city and State, and urged the members to greater zeal in forwarding the work. There was special music by an orchestra and singing by the guests, followed by dancing.

UNION MEN TIE UP MINE

Five Hundred Employees Refuse to Work With Those Who Have No Cards
Shamokin, May 20.—Five hundred employees of the Luke Fidler colliery, operated by the Susquehanna Coal Company, were rendered idle yesterday when all the United Mine Workers threw down their tools, declaring they would not toil with men who refused to become members of that organization. Between 25 and 30 miners were without cards entitling them to work as union employees.
The four-year agreement expires next spring between coal companies and United Mine Workers and the miners at each colliery are endeavoring to keep all the workmen enrolled.

Room For All

Any one can get a seat on the water wagon. It is one place where there is always plenty of room.—Philadelphia Press.

MOLASSES FAILS JAIL DIGGER

Debris From Wall Clogged Sewer and Escape Is Blocked
Bloomsburg, Pa., May 20.—Saving molasses, which he carried from the table, Paul Dobonecz managed to paste a towel over the opening he had made in his jail cell wall.
He had dug well on his way to liberty when the debris he had removed clogged the sewer, where he had thrown it.

Fatally Hurt by Auto

Easton, Pa., May 20.—Samuel H. Kerk, a former Philadelphia, is in the Easton Hospital with serious injuries sustained late Tuesday in Philadelphia, N. J., when he was knocked down by an automobile as he was about to board a trolley car. The hospital doctors say Kerk cannot recover.

KILLS WIFE, SHOTS SISTER

Pittsburgh Man, Angry Because of Divorce Suit, Tries Suicide
Pittsburgh, Pa., May 20.—In revenge for divorce proceedings begun against him, W. H. Kuen, former yardmaster of the Pittsburgh and Lake Erie railroad here, early last night shot and killed his wife, Mrs. Benah Kuen, wounded her sister, Miss Gertrude Richards, and then shot himself. Neither Miss Richards nor Kuen will live, physicians say.
When Mrs. Kuen stepped off a trolley car Kuen drew out a revolver and shot her dead, while scores of persons fled. Then he shot Miss Richards, threatened the life of Helen Sutton, 12 years old, and turned the revolver on himself.

In the dictionaries love comes first, and then marriage, and then regret.—June Smart Set.

TROOPERS' ACT INFLAMES

Child Said to Have Been Driven Into Collapse by Third Degree
Hazleton, Pa., May 20.—Hazleton, never too partial to the State police, is interested in the case of 15-year-old Jennie Rich, who is in a state of nervous collapse from being arrested, it is said, without a warrant, taken to Hazleton's city hall, put in the lockup where the lights were put out and the third degree administered, it is charged, to make her tell where her brother-in-law, wanted for a killing at Kulpmont, had gone.
The child insisted she did not know and was finally released. Attorneys will take the case before the State police head officials.

A Future Terror

Even after peace is declared the reading public will have a long course of war fiction to go through.—Washington Star.
