LIGHT CO. OPPOSES A TAX

Asks Court to Decide Whether It Must Pay on Steam Heat Business

Disclaiming liability for a part of the State tax levied by the Auditor General, the Harrisburg Light and Power Company has appealed to the Dauphin county court asking that tribunal to determine whether the State shall be paid $2,479.56, the full amount levied by the Auditor General, or $2,165.91, the amount which the company has offered to pay.

The dispute arose out of the question of whether the Light Company is required to pay a tax on the gross earnings of the Harrisburg Steam Heat and Power Company, whose business has been acquired by the electric concern. The steam heat company prior to consolidation, did not pay a State tax, it is alleged, and it is held the light company cannot be taxed for that business now.

Rain Prevents Automobile Trials

Indianapolis, Ind., May 21.—Rain yesterday caused a postponement of the first elimination trials for the 500-mile automobile race to be held here May 29. Forty cars are entered and, as the number of starters has been limited to thirty-three, seven cars will be eliminated. Each car to be permitted to start will have to make an average speed of 80 miles an hour, and the thirty-three showing the best time above that average will make the start in the race. Three trials will be given each driver.

CENTENARIAN DIES AT HOME

Attributed Simple Life and Hard Work for Remarkable Vitality

Shippensburg, Pa., May 21.—Mrs. Abigail Atherton Simms, one of the few genuine centenarians, died at the Brethren Home for the Aged, near here. Had she lived until August she would have been 101 years old.

Abigail Simms was probably the most extraordinary old woman in the country, having celebrated her 100th birthday in exceptionally good health and had never had any sickness worthy of mention until after she had passed the century mark. She was born on a farm adjacent to this town in August, 1814, but passed most of her years in town. She was familiarly known as "Mother" Simms.

Her long life and remarkable vitality she attributed to hard work and simple living. For many years "Mother" Simms had had strong hopes of reaching the century mark by maintaining that "simple life" which marked her earlier life. The occasion was celebrated by a reunion of relatives and friends. She was a member of the Methodist church.

Pennsylvania Man Gets Quick Remedy for His Long Suffering Stomach

Your remedy helped me wonderfully. I have a good appetite, sleep well, and have gained weight."

THE USE OF SOAP SPOILS THE HAIR

Soap should be used very sparingly, if at all, if you want to keep your hair looking its best. Most soaps and prepared shampoos contain too much alkali. This dries the scalp, makes the hair brittle, and ruins it.

The best thing for steady use is just ordinary mulsified coconut oil; (which is pure and greaseless) it is cheaper and better than soap or anything else you can use.

One or two teaspoonfuls will cleanse the hair and scalp thoroughly. Simply moisten the hair with water and rub it in. It makes an abundance of rich, creamy lather, which rinses out easily, removing every particle of dust, dirt, dandruff and excessive oil. The hair dries quickly and evenly, and it leaves the scalp soft, and the hair fine and silky, bright, lustrous, fluffy and easy to manage.

You can get mulsified coconut oil (it must be mulsified, plain coconut oil will not do) at any pharmacy, and a few ounces will supply every one in the family for months.

16, following an operation for appendicitis.

Miss Liggett, with her sister, Miss Minnie Isabel Liggett, was teaching in the Tsing Hua government college, in Peking, and had been there a little over four years. She was a graduate of the Carlisle High school, attended Dickinson Preparatory school and Dickinson College for four years, Drexel Institute for one year and before going to China taught mathematics at the Indiana Pennsylvania State Normal school. She was a member of the Delta Chapter of the Chi Omega Sorority. She was also a member of the Methodist church of this place.

CAN LEVY ON MAN'S BOOTS

Ruling in Labor Claim Against Rose Tree Member

Media, May 21.—You can sell a man's boots in this State to pay a labor claim, and the exemption law cannot save him paying the bill. This was decided by Judge Isaac Johnson in an opinion handed down in a suit brought by Thomas E. Frazier against St. George Bond, a member of the Rose Tree Fox Hunting Club.

Frazier was employed as man-of-all-work by Bond and worked for five months. He was to be paid $20 a month, and at the end of five months he quit because, as he said, he had been paid no wages. He brought suit before a magistrate and obtained judgment. Execution was taken on personal property, but all except riding boots, riding coats, driving gloves and men's clothing was claimed by Mrs. Bond.

Sheriff John Heyburn, Jr., upon advice of counsel, refused to levy on the clothing. The matter was taken before the court on a rule to show cause why the defendant's claim for exemption should not be disallowed, and the court ruled that under the law there is no exemption when a debt is for manual labor.

"MAKE YOURSELF AT HOME," SAYS HUDSON TO AUTOISTS

(Special to the Star-Independent.)
Hudson, O., May 21.—Led by representative women, one Ohio village has decided to treat the visiting motorist as an honored guest. Tourists who have become gun shy from encounters with village "constables" are expected to faint with surprise when they reach Hudson.

A rest room has been provided in the Ellsworth building, opposite the clock tower. Here any itinerant stranger may sit, lounge or write to his heart's content. Every convenience for the tourist's comfort is provided and the ladies of the Hudson Home Circle take turns in acting as hostess. Later a regular attendant may be hired.

Hudson is a particularly appropriate point for such an enterprise. It is located on a brick paved highway, forty miles in extent, which stretches south from Cleveland, through Akron, to Barberton and is expected, eventually, to reach Columbus. Hundreds of vehicles daily pass over this route. Hudson, as a sort of half-way station, is a most convenient stopping point for those who do not care to make the journey in a single run.

DARNELL GETS THREE YEARS

"Marrying Parson" Sentenced to Leavenworth Prison

Chicago, May 21.—The efforts of James Morrison Darnell, "the marrying parson," to get a new trial were denied yesterday by Federal Judge Geiger, in Milwaukee. Darnell was sentenced to three years in the Federal prison at Leavenworth, Kan., for "white slavery."

The specific charge against him was the transportation of Ruth Soper, a former University of Chicago student, from her home in Owatonna, Minn., to Chicago, and thence to Kenosha, Wis. The girl, whom he made several attempts to marry since the first upheaval that ousted him from his Kenosha pastorate, was the chief, though an unwilling, witness against him.

Darnell's experience included his marriage to Miss Doris Vaughn, 17 years old, 4301 Oakwood avenue, Chicago; his subsequent removal to Kenosha, where he introduced Ruth Soper as his wife; his divorce from Doris Vaughn Darnell, and finally his arrest and trial for violation of the Mann act, because of his relations with Miss Soper.

Legislative Committeemen Present Inkstand to Local Senator

The delegation of anthracite miners from many parts of the State who have been looking after legislation affecting their interests, yesterday affixed in a body on Senator Beidleman, of this city.

In an address expressing to him their thanks for his efforts in their behalf during the session that had just closed, they presented him with a handsome double inkstand carved from a large piece of anthracite coal and bearing his name cut in the side. The Dauphin Senator expressed his thanks in a brief speech.

Bass Caught at Baptizing

Shelbyville, Ind., May 21.—While the Rev. John Rees, pastor of Mount Pisgah church, was baptizing converts in Lewis creek, he felt a fish wiggle its way up his trousers leg. It was annoying. About the time that he had finished with the last member, the fish reached his belt line and was in the folds of his shirt. Reaching shore, he held up to view a five pound bass.

Corbusier, Mrs. Thomas Blackburn, Mrs. Arthur Bentel, Mrs. Maria Shields and Mrs. Ray Miller. "It was easy to get the money," said Mrs. Miller, "as soon as the town caught the idea. They all saw that it was much better to have the good opinion of the scores of people who pass through Hudson than to have
