DIES AS SHE SUES HUSBAND

Non-Support Case Ends Tragically In Police Chief's OfficeBethlehem, May 21.—Mrs. Louise M. Souders fell dead in Chief of Police William Halteman's private office yesterday. The woman was in the office awaiting the calling of her husband's case, she having had him arrested for non-support.It is supposed that worry over being compelled to proceed against her husband caused an attack of heart failure. She was 37 years old.

1,100 MAD SHEEP RUN TILL DEAD

Eat Camas Weed and in Frenzy Drown or Die in ConvulsionsSpokane, Wash., May 21.—More than 1,100 sheep are dead within a radius of three miles from Boyd's, a hamlet 75 miles north of Spokane, as the result of eating white camas weed, was the report made here yesterday by I.
J. Minnick, a State food inspector.Crazed by the weed, part of the sheep ran wild through the town until they died in convulsions, while hundreds plunged into the Kettle river and were drowned. The sheep were part of a flock of 1,900 shipped there a few days ago to be pastured in the forest reserve.

MAKES $10,000 IN SLEEP

W. P. Boland, Scranton Coal Operator, Gets Pleasant SurpriseScranton, May 21.—William P.
Boland, independent coal operator, awakened Wednesday morning to learn that he was $10,000 richer than he was when he went to sleep on Tuesday night.Mr. Boland owns $75,000 worth of stock in the Scranton and Binghamton Railway Company. The stock has been selling around $24 a share. Following the announcement Wednesday morning of L. L. Connell and T. J. Foster and J. K. Griffith selling their interests to Mortimer B. Fuller, E. J. Lynch and M. W. O'Boyle, the price of the stock soared ten points.

Scalding Water Fatal to Tot

Wilkes-Barre, Pa., May 21.—Falling from a bed upon which she had been romping, into a tub of boiling water, May Stanley, 4, of Wanamie, near here, received burns which resulted in her death yesterday. The mother prepared water, in which she intended to wash clothes. Leaving the scalding water in a tub at the side of a bed that might cool, the mother went to an adjoining room for a moment. The child, alone, made its way to the side of the bed and toppled off into the tub.

TRIES TO WRECK EXPRESS

Miscreant Fails to Derail Odd Fellows' Train on CurveStroudsburg, May 21.—An attempt was made yesterday to wreck the Pennsylvania passenger train which leaves East Stroudsburg at 2:35 p. m. on the curve about two miles below.This is one of the sharpest curves in the road, and if the attempt had been successful hundreds of passengers might have been killed or injured, as the cars would have gone down a 15-foot embankment.The train was crowded with delegates returning to their homes from the Odd Fellows' Grand Lodge convention, which closed yesterday.

Cries of Baby Saves Family From Gas

Bloomsburg, Pa., May 21.—The crying of a baby in the family of John Yeagle, of Exchange, near here, probably saved the entire family from asphyxiation. The father was awakened and managed to crawl to a window and open it. He found his wife and other children unconscious. They are in a critical condition.

Six Burned by Explosion

Mahany City, Pa., May 21.—An explosion of gas which blew down doors and timbering in the Nos. 10 and 14 mines of the Lehigh Coal & Navigation colliery yesterday, seriously burned six men, Daniel Sneddon, William Heath, Andrew Lynch, Ignatz Dombroski, Charles Smith and William Lynch. A fuse set off the gas. The men are at the Panther Creek Valley Hospital.

Prof. Joseph H. Dennis Dies

Bloomsburg, May 21.—Professor Joseph H. Dennis, head of the College Preparatory Department of the Bloomsburg State Normal school for the last twenty-three years, died yesterday, the bursting of a blood vessel causing death. He was also one of the most prominent Odd Fellows in Central Pennsylvania. He was 49 years

SESSION ON HILLLegislature This Year
Appropriated $65,- 000,000, $15,000,- 000 Less Than 1913BOTH BRANCHES
PARED DOWNImportant Measures Passed Include Workmen's Compensation and Child Labor Laws—Most Notable Defeat That of Local OptionProbably the most important legislation enacted by the 1915 session of the General Assembly of Pennsylvania which came to an end yesterday, was that providing a system of workmen's compensation.The subject was contained in six bills and a joint resolution proposing a constitutional amendment empowering the legislature to make the workmen's compensation law compulsory instead of elective to which it is now restricted by constitutional provision.
The six bills, which provide for the law, its administration and several forms of insurance including a State insurance fund, were passed finally yesterday and are now in the hands of the Governor who is in favor of placing them on the statute books.
One of the six bills exempts domestic servants and agricultural workers from the operations of the law.

Workmen's Compensation Law

The enactment of the workmen's compensation law is the result of four years of effort and the system to be adopted the first of next year in this State is declared to compare favorably with any similar law in this country.Another important measure passed and which is now a law will become effective on January 1, next, is the child labor act which had the backing of the State administration along with the workmen's compensation bills. The child labor act was strongly opposed but the administration succeeded in having it enacted by both houses without material change.
This law fixes the hours of labor for children between 14 and 16 years at not more than 51 a week nor more than 9 a day. Each minor under 16 years who is employed must attend a vocational school at least eight hours a week which time must come out of the 51 hours allowed by law. No minor under 12 years of age is permitted to sell newspapers and all messengers employed by telegraph, telephone or messenger companies after 8 o'clock at night must be 21 years old or over.
The Legislature also provided for vocational schools to make the provisions of the child labor law effective.

County Local Option Defeated

The most notable piece of legislation defeated was the county local option bill which had the uncompromising support of Governor Brumbaugh.
This bill failed to pass the House after the Governor had made a sharp fight for it.While no definite figures are yet obtainable as to the total amount of money appropriated it is estimated that the General Assembly provided for the expenditure of more than $65,- 000,000. As the estimated revenues for the next two years will be about $64,000,000, it will be necessary for Governor Brumbaugh to exercise his constitutional right and cut appropriations to meet the revenues. He has thirty days in which to do this. In his inaugural address the Governor pointed out that the chief executive should not have imposed upon him the duty of cutting bills to meet the revenues but that this duty should be performed by the Legislature.The total appropriations this session were about $15,000,000 under those of the 1913 Legislature. Governor Tener was compelled to reduce them to $87,000,000. The paring down this session by the Senate and House appropriation committees was made necessary by the fact that the State's estimated revenues for the next two years are about 5 1/2 millions less than for the last two years.Of the money appropriated this session for the next two years, $15,000,- 000 go to the public schools; $1,000,- 000 to the vocational schools; $425,- 000 to continuation schools; $8,400,- 000 to public roads; about $3,000,000 for the maintenance of the state's tuberculosis sanatoria. The expenses of the Department of Labor and Industry are increased about $900,000 byA very girlish frock for "grown ups." It is of dark blue and white checked pussy willow taffeta. The skirt is cut so as to fall in a decided flare. The top is shaped like a middy blouse, has pockets and is belted with the silk.
Cuffs and collar of faille silk.
