has disappeared, and Mrs. Strodes was forced to pay a $500 bond for him. She says she does not expect him to return, and she will ask for a divorce at once.

Mrs. Strodes was freed of her other husbands by death and divorce. In spite of her years, she says she is as active as she was when she was first married at the age of 17. Mrs. Strodes

MRS. CARMAN IN FILM PLAY

Her Arrest and Trial Will Be Depicted—She Is Going on the Stage Next Fall

New York, May 21.—Mrs. Florence Couklia Carman, acquitted a fortnight ago of the murder of Mrs. Louise D. Bailey in Dr. Edwin Carman's office in Freeport, L. I., is to enact for the "movies" the story of the tragedy that resulted in her twice being placed on trial.

According to George W. Winniett, a play broker of No. 1400 Broadway, the scenario is being prepared by Mrs. Lottie Blair Parker and will be produced under the management of Nelson Roberts of the above address.

"The scenario is not quite completed," explained Mr. Winniett yesterday. "However it will have the scene of the murder, the escape of the slayer, followed by Mrs. Carman's arrest and the trial. We expect to make a fortune out of the venture. For several months Mrs. Carman has been rehearsing under Garland Gardin's direction. He drilled her for her appearance in court and you know how she conducted herself during the second trial.

"In the fall Mrs. Carman will appear in a play under Mr. Roberts's direction. A very rich man is forming the company just to exploit Mrs. Carman. This is not the venture of any moving picture corporation, but of an individual. Dr. Carman may appear in the movies also. I guess he will have to be present at the scene of the murder. The pictures will be taken on Long Island.

"Mrs. Carman's salary? Well, just say she will make more than the President of the United States gets in a year. We are all going to make a fortune out of this murder," said Mrs. Carman over the telephone last night. "You will have to see Mr. Roberts or my lawyer. No, I do not know what play I am to appear in or any of the details."

This Boy Has a "Mirror" Eye
Savannah, May 21.—Harold Lutz, a 7-year-old boy, has what the doctors call a "mirror" eye. That is, he sees everything reversed. He starts at the wrong side of the paper to read or write. It is hereditary. An uncle writes all his characters backward.

CROWN QUEEN OF CARNIVAL

Elizabeth Holstein Given Diamond Ring and Miss Virginia Eisenberger Presented With Gold Watch

Amid a large crowd of people, Elizabeth Holstein, the 6-year-old granddaughter of Howard O. Holstein, was crowned queen of the Harrisburg Veteran Firemen's carnival at Third and Reily streets last night. Although quite young, the little miss seemed not in the least embarrassed as she sat on her throne draped with flowers and the national colors.

Following the crowning of the little queen with a wreath of sweet peas and lilies of the valley, she was presented with a $35 diamond ring, the prize given the winner of the contest.

Miss Virginia Eisenberger, the daughter of a well-known Pennsylvania railroad engineer, the only other contestant, was presented with a gold watch.

The presentation of the prizes was made by Augustus Wildman, after which the two young ladies were presented with a number of bouquets by their friends.

POSSE AFTER WHITE SLAYER

Robesonian Man Cuts Her Throat and Then Escapes to the South Mountain

Robeson, Pa., May 21.—A posse of county officials and farmers are searching the South Mountain for Charles Bausman, wanted for killing his wife, Edna May Bausman, at the home of a neighbor, a mile from here. Her throat was cut.

The pair frequently quarreled over the husband's jealousy. Mrs. Bausman swore out a warrant Wednesday for her husband's arrest on a charge of assault and battery.

While Constable Kalbach was searching for Bausman he made his way to the home of Charles Kepke, where his wife had sought shelter after leaving him.

Crouching in a clump of bushes, he waited until Mrs. Bausman came into the yard, grabbed her by the hair and slashed her throat. Her death was a matter of a few moments.

The husband dashed into the mountains where he has succeeded in eluding capture. He is 29 years old and his wife was seven years younger.

BOARD TO ORGANIZE MONDAY

Public Service Commission Will Take Up Its Duties Immediately

The new Public Service Commission will meet for organization next Monday morning and will at once thereafter begin business. The two members of the old Commission who are retained—Messrs. Pennypacker and Brecht—remained on duty yesterday and finished up the business for the week, which was not very heavy. The retiring members returned to their homes during the day after saying farewell to official friends and packing their belongings. The Commission will, on next Tuesday morning, when the regular meeting opens, be called upon to hear argument on the telephone rate case, which has occupied the attention of the Commission for more than a year.

The Commission yesterday approved the application for a charter made by the Gratz Water Company. It also approved the application of the Hershey Transit Company for permission to construct a power line in Perry township, Dauphin county, and in South Londonderry, South Annville and North Cornwall townships, Lebanon county.

AN OPEN LETTER

This Is Also a Paid Advertisement

RIGHT OR WRONG

We do not believe a whole lot in expending much money for newspaper advertising so that we are thereby compelled to ask increased prices for our goods. However, we do, just occasionally like to let EVERYONE know that this store is now as always selling furniture and other housefurnishings at lower prices than most other stores.

OUR WAY—

We do a large business under an economical expense system which enables us to quote the lowest possible prices on EVERYTHING. Our prices are uniformly low on all our goods. Our stock is one of the largest and most complete in the city.

Our customers will tell you that this store is not only one of the largest, but the best store in which to purchase their home needs. In fact, our customers really prove to be our advertisers and they have done it very well indeed. We believe thoroughly in a business system that will convince the customer that what he purchases here is at least just a little better for the same money, or as good for less money than he can obtain it for elsewhere.

This is the system which has built up our business to its present large proportions and is still doing good work for us. We try our best to give our customers the most for their money and our experience has been that the customer can always be depended upon to return the favor in some good way.

REMEMBER THAT—

You may not see our advertisement in the newspapers very often, but we ask you to chalk this down: When you want to buy good furniture at the way-down price, this is the store that is sure to be there with the goods you may want and with the price that will suit.

A JITNEY WILL LET YOU OFF RIGHT AT OUR DOOR.
