EAGLES HONOR W. M. EBEL
Arkansas Aerie Elects Former Harrisburger as Its President
At the Arkansas convention of the State Aerie of the Fraternal Order of Eagles, held in Hot Springs last week, Walter M. Ebel, a former Harrisburg newspaperman, was unanimously chosen president, having no opposition. Mr. Ebel is a son of Fred M. Ebel, of the National hotel, Fourth and State streets, and for several years has been connected with Hot Springs newspapers. The State convention was one of the largest ever held, and Mr. Ebel was instrumental in making it a success. The Hot Springs "Sentinel-Record," in mentioning the former Harrisburger's election to the high station, says: "Walter M. Ebel, of this city, was elected worthy State president. He had no opposition. His name was placed before the convention by Edward Kerwin, of Pine Bluff, who paid the nominee an eloquent tribute for what he had done for Eaglesism in Arkansas since becoming a member of the order. Mr. Ebel's election was unanimous, the vote of the State aerie being cast for him by State Secretary George Rye."
