Paragraphs like the following are often invented by writers for the press. But here is a real and really fresh specimen from the columns of the Titusville (Pa.) Morning Herald of the 25th of November:

"A CARD OF THANKS.
"Also an address to the Public."
"TITUSVILLE, November 26.
"To the Editor of the Herald:

"Permit me through the columns of your paper to express my sincere thanks to those ladies and gentlemen who, by their unremitting attention and many acts of kindness toward my wife and myself during the former's recent illness, have placed me under great obligations to them. "I would also take this opportunity to state to the ladies of Titusville and vicinity that I will continue in the millinery business, and shall endeavor to keep a much more complete assortment of goods than heretofore. I propose to offer every novelty and variety that the seasons can produce at the lowest market prices.

"CHARLES E. TRACY."

The Evangelical Alliance issues the customary program for the Week of Prayer, January 4-10, 1880, as follows: Sunday, January 4, sermon on the Fullness of Christ's Salvation; Monday, thanksgiving for blessings of the last year and prayer for their continuance; Tuesday, confession of sins and humiliation before God; Wednesday, prayer for the Church of Christ, its ministers, its growth in grace and its enlargement, and for revivals of religion; Thursday, prayer for Christian education, for the family and institutions of learning, for Sunday-Schools and Christian associations; Friday, prayer for nations rulers and people, for peace and religious liberty; Saturday, prayer for home and foreign missions.

Of Grant as Presidential candidate the Virginia City (Nev.) Enterprise (Rep.) says:

"Were he now in his vigor to set himself to write the history of the last eighteen years he might produce something which would last when Washington's farewell address would be forgotten. Were he to decline a third nomination for the Presidency it would be an act which would exalt him as man has seldom been exalted on this planet. It would not only impress his countrymen profoundly, but would in foreign lands give such an idea of America and Americans as was never entertained before."

The Toronto Globe, speaking of the demand made upon Great Britain for the compensation for interference with American Fishermen in Fortune Bay, and to which reference is made by President Hayes in his message, says: "There is nothing warlike in asking for compensation but, on the contrary, something laughable in the impudence, with which our big neighbor demands $195,000 for the fish which two skippers only hoped to catch one Sunday afternoon.

A woman calling herself Queen of Cure is doing an enormous business in Southwest, particularly among the negroes. She rides in a discarded circus chariot, wearing velvet and spangles, and accompanied by a band of music. She has the reputation among the credulous of possessing miraculous power of healing and multitudes flock around her wherever she goes. She makes no charge for her services, but sells vast quantities of liniment to which she ascribes marvelous curative qualities.

The Board of Directors of Lehigh valley Railroad Company have declared a quarterly dividend of one per cent, on the capital stock, payable after January 15th, 1880.
