GEO. A. DAYTON.
Towanda, Dec. 16, 1879.

The Philadelphia Press displayed great journalistic enterprise in its description of the GRANT entertainments in that city. It issued a double sheet on Tuesday, containing interesting sketches of the General, and a succinct history of his trip around the world, accompanied by a map showing the line of his journey. The Press is entitled to a generous support from the Republicans of Pennsylvania.

The Loyal Sock coal grows in favor as its good qualities become known. There are many good reasons why this coal should take the lead, as it does in this market; it burns more freely, retains fire longer and is sold much cheaper than the Wyoming anthracite coal. Mr. MALLORY, who is agent for the Loyal Sock, very considerably keeps the price down, a fact which should be appreciated by consumers.

Mrs CURRAN, on street west of FROST'S Furniture factory, would like work at plain sewing, tailoring, carpet making, or washing and ironing.

Superintendent's Notes.

Dec. 15th—Visited the following schools of Canton township: Briggs, Geo. Andrews; Fuller, C. Harding; Casper, Challen Reynolds. Reports of schools are favorable. Observed good order and faithful work. New books have recently been adopted for this township, and the pupils are, with scarcely an exception, supplied. The directors are entitled to much credit for thus furnishing all the pupils when books are adopted, instead of making matters worse by supplying part.

Advent Call.

[The following lines, which we find in the Episcopal Register, we infer from the initials to be from the pen of Rev. Mr. BARTLETT, formerly of this place.—EDS.]

Rouse ye, for the light is breaking,
Up, and sound the battle cry!
All your armor gird about you,
Be the watch-word, "Christ is nigh."

Happy be with faith enduring
To the end, in mortal strife;
He shall win the victor's chaplet,
And receive an endless life.

Short the strife, but great the blessing,
When shall dawn the day of peace.
And the praises for the victory
To our Lord shall never cease.

His the strength for all our warfare,
Ours the will to serve Him well.
Let us rouse—the day is breaking—
Rouse against the hosts of hell.

But how brief our time appeareth,
None but God alone can tell.
Oh! may we as loyal soldiers
In this conflict serve him well.

The aim that young ladies should have in view with regard to their dress is neatness and simplicity. It is on this account that the French are so justly famous for their good taste. Young French girls are never seen in rich silks and satins, or heavy and costly materials. To be well dressed does not depend on a lavish expenditure of money, but on the selection of suitable colors which harmonize with the complexion, and fashions which set off a perfect figure or hide the defects of one less perfect. Be suitably attired for the occasion, for the weather and the time of day.

POCKET-BOOK LOST.—The undersigned lost on Wednesday afternoon, in Towanda, between Dr. Pratt's office and Bridge street, a lady's Red Morocco Pocket-book, containing 26 dollars in $1 and $2 bills. The finder will be liberally rewarded by delivering it with the money at the Ward House.

The annual meeting of the stockholders of the Towanda Bridge Co., for election of a President, Treasurer and Six Managers to serve the ensuing year, will be held at the First National Bank of Towanda, on Wednesday January 7, 1880, between the hours one and three o'clock, p. m.

IMPORTANT TO SCHOOL DIRECTORS AND TAX PAYERS—The following decision of the Superintendent of Public Instruction is of great importance to tax-payers as well as directors, as violation of the law upon the subject will deprive districts of the State appropriation, and subject Directors to severe penalties:

DEPARTMENT OF PUB. INSN.,
Harrisburg, Pa., Dec. 1, 1879.

There is but one time in the year when directors can adopt a new series of text books for the schools under their charge, or change old ones, and that is between the time of electing teachers and the opening of the schools. Section 23, Act of May 1, 1874, says: "That immediately after the annual election of teachers in each school district of the state, and before the opening of the schools for the ensuing term, there shall be a meeting of the directors or controllers and teachers of each district; at which meeting the directors or controllers shall decide upon a series of school books, in the different branches to be taught during the ensuing school year; which books, and no other, shall be used in the schools of the district during said period."

Such is the law, with this exception, that books cannot now be changed more frequently than once in three years.

J. P. WICKERSHAM,
Superintendent Public Instruction.
