A TRADE IN THE DARK.—A few evenings since a gentleman of this city, who had been out in the country, was driving towards home, he was met by a man driving in the opposite direction, who, on passing the Elmira man, asked him if he did not want to trade horses. The answer was, "Yes, sir." Those who had occasion to be out, know how dark it was last week. Neither man could tell what kind of a horse the other had; but they went to work and unhitched and changed, and after which they drove off, neither knowing who the other was. The Elmira party had paid thirteen dollars for the horse he had, and thinks he had the best of the bargain.—Advertiser.

Superintendent's Notes.

Dec. 16—Visited Alba Borough school, J. W. Norrish teacher, with director Crandall and Ira Smith. Pupils registered 42, attendance, 40. Reviewed pupils in most of their studies. An attendance of 40 out of 42 shows the progress and interest of the pupils and the appreciation of the patrons. The review showed the thoroughness and efficiency of the present teacher as well as predecessors. The school board is entitled to credit for thus maintaining continually a good school in the borough. Also visited the following schools on Armenia Mountain: Pierce, Simon Tinklepaugh; Ripley, Marion Tecter. Mr Tinklepaugh has 25 registered and 19 in attendance, and seems to be making a success of his first term. In the other school, which registered 26 and numbered 19, suggested improvement in working by blackboard analysis and drill. The teachers work otherwise, was good.

IMPORTANT TO SCHOOL DIRECTORS AND TAX PAYERS—The following decision of the Superintendent of Public Instruction is of great importance to tax-payers as well as directors, as violation of the law upon the subject will deprive districts of the State appropriation, and subject Directors to severe penalties:

DEPARTMENT OF PUB. INS.,
Harrisburg, Pa., Dec. 1, 1879.

There is but one time in the year when directors can adopt a new series of text books for the schools under their charge, or change old ones, and that is between the time of electing teachers and the opening of the schools. Section 23, Act of May 1, 1854, says: "That immediately after the annual election of teachers in each school district of the state, and before the opening of the schools for the ensuing term, there shall be a meeting of the directors or controllers and teachers of each district; at which meeting the directors or controllers shall decide upon a series of school books, in the different branches to be taught during the ensuing school year; which books, and no other, shall be used in the schools of the district during said period."

Such is the law, with this exception, that books cannot now be changed more frequently than once in three years.
