The banks and business places will be closed to-morrow.

Mrs. SWEET can be found at STERN'S New York Store, where her millinery orders will be filled.

The Postoffice will be open to-morrow from 8:30 to 9, and from 10:30 to 11:30 A. M., and from 5 to 6 P. M.

The auction store is crowded all the time. Mr. LYON will remain another week to give everybody the advantage of Bargains,

The Knights of Honor have put a very neat transparency out, to indicate their place of meeting.

Remember the happiness that results from doing a kind deed is far beyond any that may be gained in the gratification of selfishness.

The third child of JOHN MADDEN's family died of diphtheria yesterday. The little fellow was a deaf mute.

We give more than our usual amount of reading matter to-day, and shall not issue the REVIEW to-morrow. We wish all our readers and everybody else a merry Christmas.

MULLOCK, of JORDAN'S market, keeps the largest and finest oysters ever offered in this market. Order some for your Christmas dinner.

Church of the Messiah, (Universalist) Rev. WM. TAYLOR, pastor, Christmas services, with appropriate music, at 7 P. M., on Christmas day.

The boys and girls have enjoyed themselves coasting for the past day or two. Chestnut street is the favorite resort for "riding down hill."

If you have the means and desire to make such presents on Christmas as will give you pleasure all the year, send some poor neighbor a sack of flour, or some other article of family consumption.

The death of Mr. JONATHAN STEVENS is announced in another column. He died at his residence in Asylum, last evening. The deceased was well known all through this section, and was the father of our esteemed townsman HENRY T. STEVENS.

Christmas services will be held in Christ Church to-morrow morning, at 10 1-2 o'clock. The Rector will preach a discourse appropriate to the day, after which the Holy Communion will be administered. The interior of the church has been very handsomely trimmed with evergreens.

The Christmas festival of Christ Church Sunday School comes off this afternoon. The infant school will meet at 3:30, and the main school at 4 o'clock. The exercises will consist of a portion of the church service, singing hymns, addresses by the Rector and Superintendent, to be supplemented by a feast which the ladies of the congregation are preparing. It will prove an enjoyable occasion to teachers and scholars.

Mrs. SWEET can be found at STERN'S New York Store, where her millinery orders will be filled.

Mr. JONATHAN STEVENS, one of the oldest and most widely known inhabitants of this county, passed quietly away from suffering on earth, to a Christmas in heaven, last evening, at about 11 o'clock, at the advanced age of 79 years. Up to his present sickness, which attacked him about three weeks since, he was one of the most healthy and vigorous of men; frequently walking to Towanda, (4 miles) to church and return.

With the many loved ones gone that way before him, and "with Christ which is better," he has found that joy which he so earnestly looked forward to, and wished "it might soon come."

His funeral will take place on Friday, at 10 A. M. Services at the Universalist church, at Standing Stone. T.

Superintendent's Notes.

Tuesday, Dec. 23.—Visited the following schools and teachers of Rome district: Morley Hill, F. Beloud, teacher, pupils registered 19, present 14; Village, Emma Chamberlin, teacher, registered 17, present 14; Union, Chas. Allis, teacher, registered 36, present 30; also Rome Borough, W. H. Brown, teacher, registered 51, present 40; Myersburg school, Wysox, O. Tanner, teacher. All the schools seem to be succeeding well. F. Beloud, though teaching his first term, is well liked by the pupils, and is thorough and progressive. Heard fine grammar class in Village school. Noticed fine colored wall maps in Myersburg school, drawn by pupils, and preparation for the same in Union school. The Borough and Village schools are only a few rods apart, and should be united and graded. The township and the borough might each pay its own teacher as at present, and then have all the advantages of a graded school.

Mr. Brown, though an excellent teacher, cannot do all that is necessary with so large a school, and advanced classes.

If Xmas day on Thursday be,
A windy winter ye shall see;
Windy weather in each week,
And hard tempests, strong and thick;
The summer shall be good and dry,
Corn and beasts shall multiply;
That year is good for lands to till;
Kings and princes shall die by skill;
If a child born that day shall be,
It shall happen right well for he;
Of deeds he shall be good and stable,
Wise of speech and reasonable,
Whoso that day goes thieving about,
He shall be punished without doubt;
And if sickness that day betide,
It shall quickly from thee glide.
