It is reported at Bristol that the steamer Aragon, from New York November 20, for Bristol, has foundered in the Atlantic and all on board are lost.

A portion of the bridge across the river of Fay, Scotland, was blown down while the train was crossing from City Edenburg to Dundee Saturday night. The gale was so strong that a steamboat was unable to reach the scene of the disaster. but several bodies have been washed ashore four miles from the bridge. There is no doubt the passengers, some two hundred, are all drowned.

The Rev. Mr. Hamilton, of Lewiston, Maine, suggested this epitaph for Governor Garcelon in a sermon last Sunday evening: "Here lies one who, honored by his city and state, dishonored both. A governor by accident, he succeeded in becoming only an instrument. In an emergency the commonwealth sought him as the best it could do; the physician died; the patient survived. Friends of the departed can view the remains at the insane asylum."

It seemed almost impossible in the past to introduce Sunday Schools into Russia, but it is reported that at last a foothold has been obtained. It is not, however, in the Greek Church—for there the opposition resists all attempts—but among the Germans, in what is known as the "inner mission." A school which was started last year in St. Petersburg has constantly increased in membership, and every Saturday night holds a teachers' meeting. Another located in Osbrun Grosser, numbers a round hundred pupils; and a third, also in St. Petersburg, is held in the house of a lady living not far from the centre of the city. Still another has been opened more recently in Revel, Esthland, and has fourteen teachers and a hundred pupils.

The Boston Post (Dem.), which has been defying Governor Garcelon, seems ready to revise its views, as it says;

"The wrong practiced in 1876 does not justify imitation, however severe the provocation or tempting the occasion. Our friends in Maine must be aware that the entire country is now watching the course of events there. Several Democratic papers have already criticised with severity the action of the Governor and Council. We have differed with them and defended the Executive. But the popular will can never be thwarted with impunity, and the party that does that invites and will in the end be sure to receive public reprobation. A general charge of bribery and corruption on the part of the Republicans at the last election, unless substantiated by better evidence than has yet been shown, will not justify overriding what appears to have been the popular will."

The Best of the

AGRICULTURAL WEEKLIES.

It is UNSURPASSED, if not UNEQUALED, for the Amount and Variety of the PRACTICAL INFORMATION it contains, and for the Ability and Extent of its CORRESPONDENCE—in the Three Chief Directions of
