Dan. Rice has made his debut in St. Louis as a temperance lecturer. Among other things he said: "I have been a minister, but not of the gospel. I have been a minister of fun. My mother's family were all Methodists, and my mother used to prophesy that one day I would be a minister, and she often prayed that I would become one. I heard Moody the other night. The prayers and songs made me weep like a child. [Here Dan's voice faltered.] When I heard that old song my mother used to sing, I wept like a child. I came away and resolved to lead a new life. I have had my last drink, and trust to God that I have taken it in time. My character has been good until the last five years. Since then every one in St. Louis knows my feelings. Trouble caused me to drink, and I have been drunk five years—all those five years I have got drunk to drown sorrow. I used to go stageing along the street like this. [Here Dan imitated a drunken man.] When I think of it it makes me ashamed of myself. Then I thought it funny, very funny. [Laughter.] I thought I was a great man. If drunkenness is a criterion, I used to think I would be a great man. When I was drunk I thought I was a great man, but when I woke up the next morning the hallucination was gone."

This is what the Richmond, (Va.) State says and thinks of the colored exodus: "If any portion of the Southern population see proper to pack up their traps and go west or north to seek a different if not better field for enterprise, they surely have that right, and without let or hindrance. They are all free men, and there is no law now binding them to the soil. We make no objection to the emigration of our white population, which is quite as valuable as our black, or if we do, it is only by way of general protest, though even that is not often thought of, and we certainly offer them no special inducements to remain at home."

Secretary McCulloch has suggested that the way to push silver into general circulation is to retire all bills less than $10. The Boston Herald thus endorses the Secretary's views: "The Bank of England issues no notes under £5. The natural result is that the people carry gold sovereigns and half sovereigns, and silver half crowns, two-shilling pieces, shillings and sixpences, for small change. The notes under $10 in this country amount to about $200,000,000, and their retirement would bring into use that amount of gold and silver."

Nothing can be true love to God which does not shape itself into obedience.

Statistics prepared at the Agricultural Bureau in Washington show an enormous increase in the value of agricultural products for the year 1879 as compared with that of 1878. The difference is stated at nearly $416,000,000.

Text Book Uniformity.

RESULT WHERE BOOKS HAVE TO STAND ON THEIR OWN MERIT.

At a Convention of School Directors, of Centre County, held a Bellefonte, December 26, 1878, pursuant to the call of H. Meyer, Esq., County Superintendent, for the purpose of considering the propriety of taking measures to secure a uniformity of the text-books used in the schools of said county, the following action was taken, over fifty directors being present and nearly all the district in the county being represented:

COPY OF MINUTES.

Upon motion of C. P. Stonerod, of Snow Shoe township, the following preamble and resolutions were adopted:

WHEREAS: Great expense and waste are frequently incurred by the present and constantly changing variety of text-books used in the common schools of Centre county, therefore, be it

Resolved, By the representative directors here in session, that a system of text-books, suitable, complete and uniform, be adopted in accordance with the laws of the State, throughout the county.

Upon motion of J. C. P. Jones, the following plan was adopted with but one dissenting vote, to carry into effect the following preamble and resolutions:

First. The various publishing houses to send samples of their books to each school board in the county for examination and to submit therewith the lowest exchange, introductory and wholesale prices, and the length of time they will guarantee to furnish them at said price.

Second. No agent of any publishing house to be permitted to do any work in the county, to be either general or local agent, beyond sending his books and terms as above stated. Any house or agent violating this understanding, their books to be counted out of the contest.

Third. The several school boards of the county, after examination of the various books which may have been submitted, to hold a meeting at which each director shall make out a list of the books which he prefers to have adopted in the county, and send it to Henry Meyer, Esq., County Superintendent, at Rebersburg, Pa., prior to the first day of June, 1879, who shall make several statements so sent, and the books upon the various branches having the highest number of votes or preference shall be the series recommended for county uniformity.

The County Superintendent, after having made the above canvass as above, to send the result of the same to each of the papers in the county for publication.

W. C. HEINLE, Chairman.

J. C. P. JONES, Secretary. The following is the result of the votes of the Directors of Centre county, Pa., on the uniformity of Text-books in said county, with the number of votes cast for each book, under the foregoing plan and resolutions:
