We do not hear that Chairman Peck has decided what course he will pursue with regard to the manner of selecting delegates to the republican state convention, which meets in Harrisburg on the 4th of February, and we do not suppose he will thank us, inasmuch as the REVIEW is not an organ, for any suggestions in regard to his duty but it seems to us that an attempt to get a delegate convention together at this time would prove a failure, and that the most judicious plan is for the chairman to convene the standing committee, which consists of one member from each election district, and have them choose the delegates. The committee men ought to understand the sentiment of the party on the presidential question, and be competent to select delegates who will fairly and honestly represent the wishes of the republicans of Bradford; if the men selected prove recreant, "shoot them (politically) on the spot." But remember this county is not the entire state, but that there are some two hundred and fifty other delegates, who will have to be consulted in the state convention. The will of the majority must be acquiesced in.

Mrs. Hayes' attire at the New Year reception at the White House will be matter of interest to female readers. Her dress was of white brocaded satin, wrought with gold threads. The V shaped front of the waist was filled in with lace and her sleeves were of duchesse lace with embroidery of seed pearls. The court train of satin was long and square; rose-buds were worked upon it with threads of gold. The plain white satin petticoat was trimmed with bias folds of satin divided by a fringe of gold and pearls. Broad bands of gold embroidery separated the petticoat from the court train. In her dark hair she wore a silver comb and on her neck a pendant—a cameo head of the President set in diamonds.

The difficulty of filling the English mission, it now appears, arises from the fear of expense to which the appointee will be put in carrying out his diplomatic duties. It is said it takes at least $20,000 a year over and above the salary to maintain the American Representation relatively with those of other nations, in London; and that there are but comparatively few gentlemen to be found who being in other respects qualified, have this amount to spare.

Dr. M. M. Griffith of Bradford reports some astonishing results obtained by the administration of crude petroleum to consumptives. He claims that out of twenty-five cases of well-marked tuberculosis so treated about twenty were cured; the rest have been materially benefited, and none have been under treatment more than four months.

Text Book Uniformity.
RESULT WHERE BOOKS HAVE TO STAND ON THEIR OWN MERIT.
At a Convention of School Directors, of Centre County, held at Bellefonte, December 26, 1878, pursuant to the call of Meyer, Esq., County Superintendent, for the purpose of considering the propriety of taking measures to secure a uniformity of the text-books used in the schools of said county, the following action was taken, over fifty directors being present and nearly all the district in the county being represented:

COPY OF MINUTES.
Upon motion of C. P. Stonerod, of Snow Shoe township, the following preamble and resolutions were adopted:
WHEREAS: Great expense and waste are frequently incurred by the present and constantly changing variety of text-books used in the common schools of Centre county, therefore, be it

Resolved. By the representative directors here in session, that a system of text-books, suitable, complete and uniform, be adopted in accordance with the laws of the State, throughout the county.
Upon motion of J. C. P. Jones, the following plan was adopted with but one dissenting vote, to carry into effect the following preamble and resolutions:

First. The various publishing houses to send samples of their books to each school board in the county for examination and to submit therewith the lowest exchange, introductory and wholesale prices, and the length of time they will guarantee to furnish them at said price.

Second. No agent of any publishing house to be permitted to do any work in the county, to be either general or local agent, beyond sending his books and terms as above stated. Any house or agent violating this understanding, their books to be counted out of the contest.

Third. The several school boards of the county, after examination of the various books which may have been submitted, to hold a meeting at which each director shall make out a list of the books which he prefers to have adopted in the county, and send it to Henry Meyer, Esq., County Superintendent, at Rebersburg, Pa., prior to the first day of June, 1879, who shall make several statements so sent, and the books upon the various branches having the highest number of votes or preference shall be the series recommended for county uniformity.

The County Superintendent, after having made the above canvass as above, to send the result of the same to each of the papers in the county for publication.

W. C. HEINLE, Chairman.
J. C. P. JONES, Secretary.
The following is the result of the votes of the Directors of Centre county, Pa., on the uniformity of Text-books in said county, with the number of votes cast for each book, under the foregoing plan and resolutions:
