The sad intelligence was received here yesterday of the death of Mrs. ELIZABETH TOMPKINS, wife of N. C. TOMPKINS, of Belvidere, Illinois. The deceased was a daughter of the late WM. BRIGGS, Mr. T. and wife lived here for many years, and Mrs. T. has three sisters still residing in Towanda, Mrs. Col. SMITH, Mrs. H. B. MERCUR and Mrs. T. M. WOODRUFF.

A Mr. NICKETT, who stole ten bushels of wheat, and a span of horses and democrat wagon to carry it away with, some few weeks ago at Milan, Pa., has been sent to the penitentiary at Philadelphia for two years and four months. In one week from time he was arrested at Elmira, he was on his way to the state prison. That's making pretty quick work with a thief.—Waerly Advocate.

Speaking of toast, comparatively few know what really good toast is. A hasty singe of one or both side does not make toast; nor do thin slices of bread dried through. Cut slices of uniform thickness, a plump half inch, or 5-8ths inch; move around over a brisk fire, to have all parts toasted alike; keep only so near the coals that the pieces will be heated through when both sides are well browned. If the slightest point is blackened or charred, scrape it off, or it will spoil the flavor of the whole. If covered with an earthen bowl, it will keep both warm and moist. A clean towel or napkin will answer if it is got at once to the table. But, nobody can make good toast out of poor bread. Stale bread may be used for milk toast; sour bread may be improved by toasting it through; heavy bread makes poor toast. Sweet, light bread, only a day old, or less, makes the best toast.—Am. Agriculturist.

St. Nicholas for December, of which three editions have already been sold, is again out of print, and a fourth edition is being prepared. It seems probable that nearly, if not quite, 100,000 copies of the Christmas issue will have been disposed of before the sale is over. The supply of the bound volume of St. Nicholas for 1879 also gave out before Christmas and this will be reprinted. Of the first volume (1874) there are left in the publishers hands only about a dozen copies, and it seems soon to become one of the curiosities of literature. The regular monthly issue of St. Nicholas has now reached 70,000. In the February number, which will be delayed until about the 24th of January, will appear two poems by Alfred Tennyson, one of them set to music, and both written for St. Nicholas. The frontispiece of this number will be a reproduction of Cousin's beautiful mezzotint engraving of Millais' picture of "The Princess in the Tower."

Howard, Esq., formerly of Elmira, who has resided here about eight years, has established himself, not only as a business man, but gained a high seat in the 'good graces' of the whole community. Our jolly friend 'Johnny' Rahm, of Towanda, was present with the refined lady that bears his name and 'shares his joys and griefs.' If any one has any doubt of the ability of Mrs. H. to prepare a supper, I hope they will be fortunate enough to be invited there some happy time. That prepared Wednesday evening is best described by the word 'elegant.'"

ATHENS, January 5, 1880.

The Grand Army boys had a very pleasant time at their public installation of officers on Saturday evening. Post Department Com., C. T. HULL presided, and after the exercises Capt. OLMSTEAD and son, of Binghamton, N. Y., were present; remarks made by numerous ones and a bountiful supper served by the ladies. The festivities continued until half past eleven; consisting of social games, speeches songs, and conversation. Perkins Post Band discoursed music for the occasion, and the large number of ladies and visitors present made the occasion of gratifying interest to the "boys in blue." The addresses were good, and all seemed to desire to make the meeting worthy of a place in the memories of each.

WORTHY ATTENTION.—We advise our readers, whether they own a foot of land or not, to supply themselves with that treasure of useful, practical, reliable information, the American Agriculturist, so named because started 38 years ago as a rural journal, but now enlarged to embrace a great variety of most useful reading for the household, children included, for the garden, as well as the farm—for all classes. Each volume gives some 800 original engravings, with descriptions of labor-saving and labor-helping contrivances, of plants, fruits, flowers, animals, etc., including many large and pleasing as well as instructive pictures for young and old. The constant, systematic exposures of humbugs and swindling schemes by the Agriculturist are of great value to every one, and will save to most persons many times its cost. Altogether, it is one of the most valuable, as well as cheapest journals anywhere to be found. The cost is only $1.50 a year, or 4 copies for $5. Single numbers 15 cents. Address Orange Judd Company, Publishers, 245 Broadway, New York.

Said half interest now rents for $450 a year, clear of all expenses, and in good times would readily rent for $600. This is a rare opportunity for a profitable investment. Terms, half cash, the balance on long time. JOSEPH G. PATTON.

IMPORTANT TO SCHOOL DIRECTORS AND TAX PAYERS.—The following decision of the Superintendent of Public Instruction is of great importance to tax-payers as well as directors, as violation of the law upon the subject will deprive districts of the State appropriation, and subject Directors to severe penalties:

DEPARTMENT OF PUB. INS.,
Harrisburg, Pa., Dec. 1, 1879.

There is but one time in the year when directors can adopt a new series of text books for the schools under their charge, or change old ones, and that is between the time of electing teachers and the opening of the schools. Section 23, Act of May 1, 1854, says: "That immediately after the annual election of teachers in each school district of the state, and before the opening of the schools for the ensuing term, there shall be a meeting of the directors or controllers and teachers of each district; at which meeting the directors or controllers shall decide upon a series of school books, in the different branches to be taught during the ensuing school year; which books, and no other, shall be used in the schools of the district during said period."

Such is the law, with this exception, that books cannot now be changed more frequently than once in three years.

Superintendent Public Instruction.
