During the past six months the Towanda Lodge, K. of P., has paid about one hundred dollars in sick benefits to brothers.

Mr. ACKLEY's singing class will meet in the Baptist Church this afternoon and evening.

The Towanda Bridge Co. will hold their annual meeting to-day, and elect officers just as of yore, before the County confiscated it.

FOR SALE, VERY CHEAP.—A. K. P. uniform. Cost about $25—has never been soiled—will be sold for $10. Inquire at this office.

The sociable at the house of HENRY KINGSBURY, on Second street, last evening was numerously attended by the congregation, and the occasion proved highly enjoyable to both old and young.

It will require one thousand gallons of water per hour, or about 30 barrels, to keep the boilers in the mill works running. To secure this supply a well eleven feet in diameter is being sunk inside the building.

We have received through the agent, L. T. ROYSE, a copy of HEADLEY'S "Life and Travels of General GRANT." It is a neatly printed, well bound book, and we have no doubt the contents are interesting.

Mr. and Mrs. O. A. BLACK are sorely afflicted in the death of their only son, a bright and promising child of about five years. Membranous croup caused his death yesterday. The funeral at the house on Weston street, at 10 a. m. to-morrow.

The Ladies Missionary Society of Christ Church held their annual meeting yesterday afternoon, and elected the following officers:
President—Mrs. GEO. D. STROUD.
Vice President—Mrs. H. T. JUNE.
Sec'y and Treas.—Mrs. M. M. SPALDING.

It is said that a clove dropped into ink will preserve it from moulding and that essential oil will answer the same purpose. Russia leather which is perfumed with the tar of birch rarely becomes mouldy. A few drops of any essential oil will preserve leather from mould.

As the week of prayer will begin to-morrow and be observed at the Presbyterian and Methodist churches, we print again the programme as arranged by the Evangelical Alliance:

Wednesday, January 7—Prayer for the church of Christ, its ministers, its growth in grace and its enlargement, and for revivals of religion throughout the country.

Thursday, January 8—Prayer for Christian education; for the family, and institutions of learning; for Sunday Schools and Christian associations.

Friday, January 9—Prayer for the nations, rulers and people; for peace and religious liberty.

Saturday, January 10—Prayer for home and foreign missions; for the outpouring of the Spirit upon all flesh, and the conversion of the world.

Personal.

Miss CORA KEELER, of Keelersburg, Wyoming county, is spending a few days with her relatives, Mr. and Mrs. A. J. NOBLE, of this place.

R. R. ROCKWELL has sold his residence on 2d street to C. F. DAYTON. Mr. R. has rented a portion of Mrs. PEET'S house.

G. H. WOOD has sold his photograph gallery to R. R. ROCKWELL, who will associate with him Mr. DAYTON, the artist.

Mrs. WILLIAM MADDEN, of Minnesota, is visiting her father, PATRICK MCCUE, in this place.

Maj. GORE, of Sheshequin, is visiting in town to-day.

S. F. COLT, jr., of Dushore, favored us with a call this morning and renewed his subscription to the REVIEW. Call again, SAM.

J. S. TOME, G. H. TOME and J. S. WATSON, West Branch stockholders in the Bridge Co. are in town to participate in the meeting of the stock holders this afternoon.

A. L. CRATER and wife who went to Tex. as last spring have returned to this place, the climate of the Lone Star state proving detrimental to Mrs. C.'s health. They are welcomed back by many friends.

Legal business at Athens must be good. Our young friend ARTHUR HEAD has just taken to himself a help-mate. The bride was Miss FRINK, of Montrose, a daughter of the gentleman who built the jail, and is said to be a sensible girl of fine accomplishments.

Mr. COLE, the bachelor house-keeper of the First Ward, entertained his pastor at tea the other evening. Mr. C. performs all the household duties without the aid of female hands, and we are informed keeps his apartments in the best of order, and prepares his meals with as much taste and skill as the most accomplished French culinary artist; and yet the good Book says "it is not good for man to be alone."

Mr. GEORGE C. HILL, of Burlington, Pa., is visiting his son, Mr. J. S. HILL, Carroll St., of this city. He is on his way to Lake La Moka, near Weston, Schuylers county, where he expects to pass a week or more in fishing. Mr. HILL, in spite of his seventy-two years, is as vigorous in his movements and as youthful in his longings for out-door sports and appreciation of them as a youngster of twenty-five. As a hunter and fisherman—in all the physical activities and acquirements suggested by those terms—he is as sound as a strippling of one-fourth his years. He is one of those fishermen, who, wedded to the sport, find excitement in fishing a whole day without a bite. Mr. HILL wears the same hat now that he wore on his wedding day, forty-seven years ago, and carries the same gun which he brought from Connecticut forty years ago.—Elmira Free Press.

It sounds a little funny to say that dressed beef is sent from New York to this market, but such is the fact. We were shown by Mr. RUNDELL, of the market under the REVIEW office, last evening, several quarters of Western steers, which make our Bradford county beef look decidedly thin. Mr. R. informs us that the quarters are the very best to be had in the New York market, and those of our readers who relish a juicy steak, or a fat roast, should call and supply themselves before it is all gone.

The following officers were installed over Towanda Lodge, K. of P., last evening, by District Deputy Grand Chancellor Commander, W. B. KELLEY.

- P. C.—C. C. MOWER.
- C. C.—C. E. ANDRUS.
- V. C.—J. A. MEARS.
- Prelate—A. D. DYE.
- M. A.—I. C. ALDRICH.
- K. of R. and S.—J. H. ORCUTT.
- M. F.—GEO. CLARK.
- M. E.—W. L. CARPENTER.
- I. G.—WM. LAMENT.
- O. G.—WM. KEYSER.
- Attendants—M. M. EDDY, R. CATON, J. H. EPLEY, A. W. GRAVES.
- Representative to Grand Lodge—J. N. CALIFF.

A pretty and easily grown window plant may be obtained in the following manner: Soak a round piece of coarse sponge in warm water until it is thoroughly expanded. After squeezing it about half dry, place in the openings millet, red clover and barley-grass seeds, rice and oats. Hang the sponge in a window where the sun shines a part of the day, and sprinkle it lightly with water every morning for a week. Soon tender leaves will shoot out, and, growing rapidly, will form a drooping mass of living green. If regularly sprinkled, it will later be dotted with the blossoms of the clover.

To fry fresh fish so as not to absorb the fat, or destroy the delicate flavor of the fish, is quite a desideratum. A lady who has attended Miss Corson's Practical Cooking Lectures, contributes the following to the American Agriculturist—derived partly from Miss C.'s advice, and partly from her own experience: Small fish are to be fried whole; large fish have the fleshy portions cut off with a very sharp knife, and divided into strips (fillets) of a convenient size for serving. When cleaned and ready for cooking, wipe dry, and roll them in powdered cracker or bread crumbs. (Cracker, ready pulverized, is now sold at most grocery stores, under the name of "cracker-dust.") Dip the fish, or pieces, in well-beaten egg, and again roll them in the cracker-dust or crumbs, removing any lumps, so as to have the surface smooth. Have the fat hot, and drop in the pieces, watching them carefully until they cook to a golden brown; then lift from the fat and lay upon thick paper to absorb the fat. Fillets of fish with the bones in, may be treated in the same way. By this method the fish are well flavored, and much more digestible for weak stomachs. Fish are nourishing, and not only supply good food for the muscles, but also furnish good brain material.

PATCH BROTHERS are paying the highest market price, in cash, for good butter.

MAC SHAPPEE, an employee in DEWERS' Planing Mill, lost a little boy two or three years old by diphtheria yesterday.

LOST.—A Red Morocco Pocket-Book, containing about twenty-four dollars in bills and change, one note of forty dollars, with fourteen dollars endorsed, and other valuable papers, one watch-key, elastic cord. The finder will be liberally rewarded by leaving the above at D. W. SCOTT & CO'S or the owners.

GRIST MILL FOR SALE.—The subscriber offers for sale an undivided half interest in the Globe Mills, near Towanda, and adjoining Maj. HALE'S, with mill-house, barn and other out buildings, and eight acres of land connected therewith. The mill has lately been put in thorough repair, and is now doing a splendid business—running day and night. Said half interest now rents for $450 a year, clear of all expenses, and in good times would readily rent for $600. This is a rare opportunity for a profitable investment. Terms, half cash, the balance on long time. JOSEPH G. PATTON.

IMPORTANT TO SCHOOL DIRECTORS AND TAX PAYERS—The following decision of the Superintendent of Public Instruction is of great importance to tax-payers as well as directors, as violation of the law upon the subject will deprive districts of the State appropriation, and subject Directors to severe penalties:

DEPARTMENT OF PUB. INS., Harrisburg, Pa., Dec. 1, 1879.

There is but one time in the year when directors can adopt a new series of text books for the schools under their charge, or change old ones, and that is between the time of electing teachers and the opening of the schools. Section 23, Act of May 1, 1854, says: "That immediately after the annual election of teachers in each school district of the state, and before the opening of the schools for the ensuing term, there shall be a meeting of the directors or controllers and teachers of each district; at which meeting the directors or controllers shall decide upon a series of school books, in the different branches to be taught during the ensuing school year; which books, and no other, shall be used in the schools of the district during said period."

Such is the law, with this exception, that books cannot now be changed more frequently than once in three years.

J. P. WICKERSHAM, Superintendent Public Instruction.

WOOD & HALE, Attorneys at Law, Office corner Main and Pine Streets Towanda, Pa. JAMES WOOD. JAS. T. HALE.
