The expenses of Luzerne county for the past year were $149,000.

PATCH BROTHERS are paying the highest market price, in cash, for good butter.

WANTED TO PURCHASE.—A good tract of timber land. For particulars, call or address this office.

FOR SALE, VERY CHEAP.—A. K. P. uniform. Cost about $25—has never been soiled—will be sold for $10. Inquire at this office.

The Philomathean Society meets this evening, and the following question will be discussed:

Resolved, That Ireland ought to be a free and independent State.

Owing to the carelessness of a compositor, and to the fact that proof was read by a novice, egregious blunders appeared in yesterday's REVIEW. The most noticeable being "Galilee" for "Galileo," and "JAMES MACFARLANE, Philadelphia," for "JAMES MACFARLANE Ph. D." in the notice of the Scientific Society.

As the week of prayer will begin to-morrow and be observed at the Presbyterian and Methodist churches, we print again the programme as arranged by the Evangelical Alliance:

Friday, January 9—Prayer for the nations, rulers and people; for peace and religious liberty.

Saturday, January 10—Prayer for home and foreign missions; for the outpouring of the Spirit upon all flesh, and the conversion of the world.

We were shown through the basement story of JAMES MCCABE'S extensive grocery establishment the other day, and found it filled with butter, sugar, pork and hams. Speaking of hams, Mr. MCCABE has long enjoyed a reputation for preparing them by a process peculiar to himself, which has given him an extensive trade in them. They are "pickled" and smoked under his personal supervision, and when you have once tasted the hams which have gone through his manipulation, you will never buy any other when you can get his. The season for ham and eggs is approaching, and just take our advice and order one of those superior hams put up by Mr. MCCABE.

The Rev. JAMES F. CALKINS, who has just been dismissed, at his own request, from over the Presbyterian church at Wellsboro, Pa., has held that office for nearly thirty-six years. The Rev. C. C. CARR, of Horseheads, is another example of long continued ministry over one society. He is but a few years behind Rev. Mr. CALKINS. Such cases speak volumes in favor both of the church and the clergymen. The Rev. T. K. BEECHER, D.D., of this city, is also another instance in point. He is not quite up to the two named, but he can go over a quarter of a century, and if he lives, will probably reach the greater number of years named. We are not alone in fervently hoping it may be so.—Free Press.

Personal.

V. MAC LONG, of Troy, is in town to-day.

J. P. VANFLEET has sold his interest in the mercantile establishment of FELCH & CO., to his partner.

H. A. COWLES has purchased the baking department of D. W. SCOTT & CO., and removed it to his store.

GEO. KIRBY is visiting his family in this place.

C. T. KIRBY has been confined to his house by slight indisposition for the past few days.

CHARLEY SMITH has taken a clerkship in KIRBY'S Drug Store.

The friends of Rev. G. F. ROSENMULLER and wife, gave them a reception in Athens one evening this week.

During the last eight months Mr. H. A. COWLES has buried two children and given three daughters in marriage.

Rev. WM. McGLATHERY, formerly rector of Christ Church, is in town. His old parishioners and many other friends are glad to see him.

A Tunkhannock correspondent is informed that "GEORGE KIRBY, who has been conducting the auction store on Warren street, together with a gentleman from Towanda, will soon open a store on Toga street, next door to Wall's Hotel."

We were shown this morning a blacking brush of superior make and finish, constructed of the very best bristles, the handi-work of Mr. M. H. WELLES, of Elmira. Mr. W. is a wealthy gentleman, and has in contemplation the establishment of a brush factory. Believing that a man should have a practical knowledge of any business he engages in, he has been learning the brush making trade, and the sample exhibited, although apparently faultless, is said not to be his best effort.

How pure

The grace, the gentleness of virtuous age, Though solemn, not austere; though wisely dead

To passion and the 'widering dreams of hope, Not unalike to tenderness and truth: The good old man is honored and revered, And breathes upon the young-limbed race around

A gray and venerable charm of years.

Superintendent's Notes.

Jan. 5th, 6th and 7th.—Visited the schools of the following teachers: Columbia, Budd, Henry Blood; Beaman, Kate Corcoran; Hoxie Corners, Eda Holley; Austinville, Henry Smith; Wells, Judson Hill, Libbie Hunt; Slocum, Wm. Jennings; Beckwith, Fannie Adams; Knapp, Hattie West; Brown, Leona Parmenter.

Heard no complaints of any of the schools except Judson Hill, but on investigation on Monday afternoon, the teacher was sustained. Budd school just commenced.

The teacher at Austinville is thorough and progressive, attending educational meetings even at much inconvenience, and using every effort for the good of his scholars.

Miss Adams is well liked by the patrons of the Beckwith.

Miss Hunt is an earnest, thorough teacher, and possesses the cardinal virtue of being strict in keeping good order, the latter causing the complaint.

At the meeting of the Towanda Bridge Co., on Wednesday, the following persons were elected directors: J. S. TOME, GEO. H. TOME, G. F. MASON, JOHN E. FOX, JOHN F. SAN-ERSON, H. S. WATSON.

MILLER FOX was re-elected President, and N. N. BETTS Secretary and Treasurer.

Maj. HALE, who has been a director for nearly forty years, and who is the largest stockholder in the county, was defeated for director, as were Hon. J. G. PATTON and JAMES T. HALE, because these gentlemen were not favorable to the policy of further contesting the right of the county to take the bridge and make it free.

The election of directors of the Citizens National Bank took place yesterday. The following gentlemen were elected:

E. T. FOX, BENJ. M. PECK, BENJ. KUYKENDALL, JAMES MACFARLANE, S. W. LITTLE, WM. DITTRICH, P. R. ACKLEY.

The number of directors having been reduced from eleven to seven, N. C. ELSBREE, H. A. FONDA, M. B. WRIGHT and J. M. SMITH were left off the ticket. Mr. ELSBREE declined a re-election.

At a subsequent meeting of the directors E. T. FOX was re-elected President, and B. M. PECK, Vice President.

G. A. GURNSEY was continued cashier. All the officers were chosen without opposition.

Col. STANLEY WOODWARD, of Wilkes-Barre, is a li clong democrat, but he entered heartily into the campaign for the nomination and election of his neighbor and personal friend, HENRY HOYT, for Governor at the peril of his reputation in his own party. Now the Governor has appointed Col. WOODWARD Judge of Luzerne county, to fill a vacancy, whereat the republicans, and especially the Record appear to be very wroth. It looks to us as though the Governor had only discharged an honest political obligation. Hon. H. B. PAYNE, the Republican applicant for the place, is one of the ablest and purest men in the state, and would have honored the position, but Gov. HOYT having solicited and received the aid of his Democratic competitor, we think his action in the matter does credit to his heart. At the election next fall we hope Mr. PAYNE may be nominated and elected to the position for a full term.

SHOULD COUSINS KISS?—Number three, of a series of prize questions promulgated by the London Whitehall Review, "Should adult cousins, male and female, be allowed to kiss each other?" Some of the answers received as follows:

YES, BECAUSE

Jacob, after having personated Esau, kissed his cousin Rachel as soon as he saw her, and their parents approved.

Then they will care for it as little as grocers' boys do for sugar.

Shakespeare says: "Kiss me, sweet coz;" and Tennyson says of himself and his "Cousin Amy": "And our spirits rushed together at the touch of the lips."

As a lady is concerned it must be considered a fair proceeding. If she is married it cannot be a-miss.

"One touch of nature makes the whole world akin," a kiss being a touch of nature, they should kiss to make them still more akin.

Family affection is a tender and beautiful plant, which cannot be too carefully nurtured.

MARRIED.

YOUNG—MORROW.—At the Horn Brook M. E. Church, Wednesday evening, Jan. 7, 1880, by Rev. S. F. Wright, Mr. I. L. Young, of Ghent, Pa., a d Mrs. Sarah Morrow, of Union Corners, Pa.

WANTED.—By the Towanda Rod and Gun Club, January 15, 1880, 500 pigeons. Address E. F. SMITH, Sec'y., Powell, Pa.

When you start out to purchase candies, fruits and confectionery, remember that FITCH'S is headquarters for all those articles, and you can rely upon getting a genuine article. He manufactures most of his candy, and is enabled to furnish his customers fresh stock.

MILK.—SMITH BROS. having forty cows, thirty of which are new-milch, are therefore prepared to furnish milk to all who wish at 5 cents per quart, delivered every day. Particular attention given to furnishing parties with cream. SMITH BROS. Towanda, Dec. 29, 1879.

GRIST MILL FOR SALE.—The subscriber offers for sale an undivided half interest in the Globe Mills, near Towanda, and adjoining Maj. HALE'S, with mill-house, barn and other out buildings, and eight acres of land connected therewith. The mill has lately been put in thorough repair, and is now doing a splendid business—running day and night. Said half interest now rents for $450 a year, clear of all expenses, and in good times would readily rent for $600. This is a rare opportunity for a profitable investment. Terms, half cash, the balance on long time. JOSEPH G. PATTON.

IMPORTANT TO SCHOOL DIRECTORS AND TAX PAYERS.—The following decision of the Superintendent of Public Instruction is of great importance to tax-payers as well as directors, as violation of the law upon the subject will deprive districts of the State appropriation, and subject Directors to severe penalties:

DEPARTMENT OF PUB. INS., Harrisburg, Pa., Dec. 1, 1879.

There is but one time in the year when directors can adopt a new series of text books for the schools under their charge, or change old ones, and that is between the time of electing teachers and the opening of the schools. Section 23, Act of May 1, 1854, says: "That immediately after the annual election of teachers in each school district of the state, and before the opening of the schools for the ensuing term, there shall be a meeting of the directors or controllers and teachers of each district; at which meeting the directors or controllers shall decide upon a series of school books, in the different branches to be taught during the ensuing school year; which books, and no other, shall be used in the schools of the district during said period."

Such is the law, with this exception, that books cannot now be changed more frequently than once in three years.

J. P. WICKERSHAM, Superintendent Public Instruction.
