PATCH BROTHERS are paying the highest market price, in cash, for good butter.

The days are certainly and perceptibly lengthening, but so far the weather is not strengthening.

The receipts of the sociable held at the resi-Mr. HENRY KINGSBURY on Tuesday evening last, amounted to $12.19.

WANTED TO PURCHASE.—A good tract of timber land. For particulars, call or address this office.

FOR SALE, VERY CHEAP.—A K. P. uniform. Cost about $25—has never been soiled—will be sold for $10. Inquire at this office.

The postoffice has been remodeled and improved. The new arrangement affords more room for doing the work, and will be more convenient for patrons of the office.

Dr. KILBUORN, of Franklindale, last week successfully removed from a nine years old boy of JOHN LANTZ, a tape-worm measuring 32 feet. The patient, as might be expected, feels better.

We are in receipt of number 2 of the Owego Weekly Blade, published by MCCORMICK and YOUNG. It is a neatly printed, ably edited and spicy sheet, just what we expected from Mr. MCCORMICK, who is one of the best printers in this country, and a ready writer as well. In politics the paper is radical Republican.

To-day is the last day of prayer, and the following is the subject:

Saturday, January 10—Prayer for home and foreign missions; for the outpouring of the Spirit upon all flesh, and the conversion of the world.

The statement in yesterday's REVIEW that H. A. COWLES had bought the bakery department of D. W. SCOTT & CO., and removed it to his store, was, we are informed by D. W. SCOTT & Co., erroneous, and calculated to mislead. They have not sold any part of their business, but have arranged with Mr. COWLES to do the baking all together, at his place for the present, with their old baker, CHARLES MUNIER, in charge of the shop.

We yesterday printed the marriage notice of Mr. CLARK and Miss COWLES. The wedding, although quiet, was a pleasant affair. The supper was bountiful and heartily relished by the guests. The bride was the recipient of a handsome gold watch and chain, set of silverware, and many other useful articles. The fortunate groom is an adopted son of our industrious and esteemed townsman, DENNIS CLARK, and is a good mechanic. The newly wedded pair very sensibly dispensed with an expensive bridal tour, and repaired at once to their own house, which had been made ready for them as soon the festivities of the evening was over. We extend our hearty congratulations, coupled with the sincere wish that their married life may be long, prosperous and happy.

Personal.

How to procure the "staff of life" is a problem with the many thousands who are out of employment. The staff which supports the tottering steps of old age, and serves as a weapon of defense in the hands of the young and vigorous man, as a toy and plaything for the dandy and fop, is more easily secured, especially when one has such a thoughtful friend as J. V. GEIGER. For the neatly polished hickory walking-stick just received from him, the "Boss" has our thanks.

We are pained to learn that HIRAM TAYLOR, who removed from this place to Cawker City is suffering from very poor health.

The Terpsichore Club were the guests of Miss SARAH MOODY last evening, and were very handsomely entertained by that young lady and her mother. It was an occasion which all present will long remember with pleasure.

Judge THOMAS, who presides over the Police Court of Topeka, does business in the style of Uncle 'BLAII, of the Detroit Free Press. As the Judge is an old Bradford countian, his sayings will be read with interest here, but his remarks quoted below are hardly complimentary to the Bradford county people who now reside at the Kansas capitol. In lecturing the "gang" brought before him from the "cooler" the other morning, Uncle CHET delivered himself in this wise, according to the State Journal: "The Judge arose from his seat and cast a wild glaring look over the silent audience, and drew a deep heaving sigh, like unto a person whose mind was laboring under a heavy weight of sorrow and misfortune. A few moments meditation and he began to speak. His words fell with almost unbearable force upon the heads of those unhappy creatures, whose fiendish appetites and uncontrollable spirits had brought them there, and they shuddered with shame and misery. His Honor spoke about as follows: 'It pains my heart and bleeds my tender feelings to witness what is now before me. As I look through the windows of this room and see the thick mist clinging to the panes and floating by through the dull atmosphere, I almost consider myself duty bound to talk in a manner which might rather shake the human sympathies of you wretched men, than condemn you for your sad and deplorable condition. We all have our sad days, but I never could contemplate why a man, even though he was not from Bradford county, should drag himself down into a cess-pool of sin and ruin. Why is it you will continue to live in such inhuman and disgusting conditions. I think it would be better to brace up, and not take so much at once as to get yourself in here.'"

Superintendent's Notes.

January 8th and 9th.—Visited the following schools: Wells, Moshierville, Wm. Pinkney; Rowley Hill, Nellie Axtell; Baker, Mary Burke; Aspinwall, Eva Searles; Whortendyke, Wm. McGovern.

The patrons of these schools express themselves as much pleased. Directors G. K. Newman, Alamon Warner, Dunning Kilgore, James Slocum, and Humphery Wilson, accompanied to their respective schools manifesting much interest in the success of their schools and expressing general satisfaction with present teachers.

The Odd Fellows of Canton, have just completed their new hall, which is thus described by the Canton Sentinel of this week: "The hall is fifty feet in length by twenty-three in width. The whole room used by the Lodge, however, is seventy feet in length by twenty in breadth. As the visitor walks up the broad and easy ascent of the stairway, he enters a neatly furnished reception room, well lighted, where a cosy little fire is burning. An ante-room breaks off the direct admittance to the hall. Off to the left of the ante-room are a lot of little rooms, where, we suppose, all the mysterious appliances of the Order are kept, and it must be here that the goat remains in his solitude, making up for its enforced inactivity by the vigor and hearty good-will which it shows in the initiatory rites.

Five hundred dollars, in round numbers, have been expended in furnishing the hall, and those who were in charge have used the money with such excellent judgment, that it is difficult to select a single instance where improvement could be made. The carpet is of a beautiful though modest color, ornamented with a pattern of ferns. Two large handsome chandeliers light up the hall so brilliantly that one can read fine print in the darkest corner. These chandeliers were the generous gift of Mrs. J. W. GRIFFIN. At intervals about the room are stationed pedestals of solid black walnut, with marble tops. At one end of the hall are the desks used by the Secretary and Treasurer; these also are of finely finished black walnut. The officers chairs we can best describe by the name "pulpit" chairs—they are very high to their backs, and are richly upholstered in red and blue. The shutters open on the inside of the windows; the rails are of ash, while the panels and slats are of cherry. Various pictures ornament the walls, among them is an excellent likeness of JOHN W. GRIFFIN, who was a prominent member of the Lodge, and a large oil painting given to the Lodge by an artist named PERKINS, long ago a resident of this place and a member of the Order. The painting shows two infants in a mother's arms, and is in part emblematical of the mission of the Order—to care for the widow and orphan."

IMPORTANT TO SCHOOL DIRECTORS AND TAX PAYERS—The following decision of the Superintendent of Public Instruction is of great importance to tax-payers as well as directors, as violation of the law upon the subject will deprive districts of the State appropriation, and subject Directors to severe penalties:

DEPARTMENT OF PUB. INS., Harrisburg, Pa., Dec. 1, 1879.

There is but one time in the year when directors can adopt a new series of text books for the schools under their charge, or change old ones, and that is between the time of electing teachers and the opening of the schools. Section 23, Act of May 1, 1854, says: "That immediately after the annual election of teachers in each school district of the state, and before the opening of the schools for the ensuing term, there shall be a meeting of the directors or controllers and teachers of each district; at which meeting the directors or controllers shall decide upon a series of school books, in the different branches to be taught during the ensuing school year; which books, and no other, shall be used in the schools of the district during said period."

Such is the law, with this exception, that books cannot now be changed more frequently than once in three years.

J. P. WICKERSHAM, Superintendent Public Instruction.
