The following is a copy of the letter notifying Colonel Stanley Woodward of his appointment:

JANUARY 9, 1880.

COLONEL STANLEY WOODWARD:

MY DEAR SIR: I have this day directed to be issued to you a commission as Additional Law Judge of the several courts of Luzerne county. I am reluctant to modify in any way the satisfaction with which I confer the short term of judicial duty upon you. But it is only frank and fair to say to you that it is issued against the earnest and deep-seated convictions of valued friends, politically and that both their rights and my own inclinations will forbid my promoting your success in a future contest over the succession, involving as it will, other personal and political friends. This term conferred on you the law gives me the duty and responsibility of conferring, and any personal motives of my own in the matter must, as you readily appreciate, terminate with this act, not grudgingly performed.

Very truly yours,

HENRY M. HOYT.

Superintendent Wickersham is now preparing and will this week issue warrants to school directors in the State covering the year ending June, 1879, for one million dollars, the amount due them from the State for that period. According to the Superintendent's estimate the Commonwealth owes the schools about $2,500,000. State Treasurer Noyes says the Treasury will be in a condition to cash about half the amount of the warrants the present month, and the remainder will be honored by the first of June next. Auditor General Schell will state in his annual report, which will be out in a week, that by a ridged collection of taxes under the revenue law, the deficiency in the Treasury, amounting to over two million seven hundred thousand dollars, will be made up in two years.

BISHOP HAVEN'S DEATH.—Although Bishop Haven did not die until six o'clock in the evening of Saturday week, it became evident that his end was near, and his physician so said to him. His reply was this: "When that agony was upon me at the beginning of this illness, I feared it was the grip of death." He expressed a wish to see as many of his friends as possible, and during the day many called upon him, to each of whom he had something to say. To one caller his remark was: "Good-night, Doctor; when we meet again it will be good morning." An hour before he passed away he fell asleep. On awakening he looked up and said: "There is no river here; it is all beautiful." He did not speak again.

The Republican County Committee of Beaver county elected J. H. Hannah Senatorial and H. C. Patterson and Silas Warrick representative delegates to the State Convention. They go uninstructed, but will support Judge Green for Supreme Judge, and Senator Lemon for Auditor General. Grant is probably their first choice for President, and Blaine second. In Beaver county the committee always elects the delegates.

There will be general gratification felt because of the recovery of Bishop Stevens from his recent severe and protracted illness. He is yet forbidden to preach, but he was able to visit his office last week, and expects to perform such of his official duties as relate to the rite of confirmation.

The Western Union Telegraph Company has prepared a bill to preserve telegrams from unreasonable search and seizure, and from production in courts, which it will ask to have introduced in Congress.

There are 16,000,000 bushels of grain in the elevators at Chicago, and many roads refuse to receive grain for that market because there is no place to store it upon its arrival.

A Word With My Customers.

Two years ago, when I came among you a stranger, you kindly extended to me a generous patronage, and our relations have been of the most cordial and I trust mutually beneficial character. I am certain you have all shown me that you were friends indeed, and I have striven to merit your confidence and patronage, and now being about to return to my old home, not because "I love Ceaser less, but Rome more," I desire to give you all some evidence of my appreciation of your friendship, and have decided to offer my entire stock of GENTLEMEN'S FURNISHING GOODS, WINTER SUITINGS, &C., at greatly reduced prices during the remainder of my stay in Towanda.

The goods will be disposed of at a sacrifice in order to close out stock. Hoping to see all my old customers and many who have never visited my store, I remain

Faithfully Yours,
J. DOUTRICK.
