The News Condensed.

Senator Pryor of Alabama is ready to be sworn in.

Secretary Schurz is enforcing his policy of secrecy in his dealings with the Utes.

Portland, Oregon, has just been visited by the severest storm known since its settlement.

United States Agricultural Society is holding its twenty-eight annual meeting in Washington.

Republican Congressional Committee feel confident of result of next presidential election.

Western Nail Association has approved Wheeling action advancing card rates.

Annual meeting of American Social Science Association began yesterday in Boston.

Gen. R. B. Beath has been appointed supervisor of the census for the Philadelphia district.

Parnell has about $500,000 in Irish real estate and $150,000 in American securities.

Over one thousand negroes have gone from Eastern Mississippi during the past three weeks.

Major Morrow is no the trail of and expects to strike, in two days, Victoria's band of Apache Indians.

Mrs. Ramsey, the wife of the Secretary was before her marriage Miss Anna Jenks, the daughter of a member of Congress from Bucks County.

General Miles, United States army, the Indian fighter, is in Washington with his wife, who is the guest of her sister, Mrs. Don Cameron.

British steamship Thanemore cleared at Baltimore yesterday for Liverpool with largest cargo of live stock ever shipped from that port.

General Sherman has decided that Marine Hospital service should be placed on equality with Medical Corps in army and navy.

Maine's Supreme Court Justices have arrived at Bangor and will assemble today to consider the questions submitted by Republican Legislature.

James Buell, the well known financier, has retired from the presidency of the Importers' and Traders' Bank of New York. Cashier E. H. Perkins succeeds him.

Information has been received at Nashville that W. A. Fowler, who was guide through Wayne county, Tenn., for United States Deputy Collector Davis on a revenue raid, has been ambushed and killed.

A World With My Customers.

Two years ago, when I came among you a stranger, you kindly extended to me a generous patronage, and our relations have been of the most cordial and I trust mutually beneficial character. I am certain you have all shown me that you were friends indeed, and I have striven to merit your confidence and patronage, and now being about to return to my old home, not because "I love Ceaser less, but Rome more," I desire to give you all some evidence of my appreciation of your friendship, and have decided to offer my entire stock of GENTLEMEN'S FURNISHING GOODS, WINTER SUITINGS, &C., at greatly reduced prices during the remainder of my stay in Towanda.

The goods will be disposed of at a sacrifice in order to close out stock. Hoping to see all my old customers and many who have never visited my store, I remain

Faithfully Yours,
J. DOUTRICK.

FOR THE PRESIDENTIAL YEAR.

"THE LEADING AMERICAN NEWS-PAPER."

THE NEW YORK

TRIBUNE
FOR 1880.

During the coming Presidential year The Tribune will be a more effective agency than ever for telling the news best worth knowing, and for enforcing sound politics. From the day the war closed it has been most anxious for an end of sectional strife. But it saw two years ago, and was the first persistently to proclaim the new danger to the country from the revived alliance of the Solid South and Tammany Hall. Against that danger it sought to rally the old party of Freedom and the Union. It began by demanding the abandonment of personal dislikes, and set the example. It called for an end to attacks upon each other instead of the enemy; and for the heartiest agreement upon whatever fit candidates the majority should put up against the common foe. Since then the tide of disaster has been turned back; every doubtful state has been won, and the omens for National victory were never more cheering.

THE TRIBUNE'S POSITION.

Of The Tribune's share in all this, those speak most enthusiastically who have seen most of the struggle. It will faithfully portray the varying phases of the campaign now beginning. It will earnestly strive that the party of Freedom, Union and Public Faith may select the man surest to win, and surest to make a good President. But in this crisis it can conceive of no nomination this party could make that would not be preferable to the best that could possibly be supported by the Solid South and Tammany Hall.

The Tribune is now spending much labor and money than ever before to hold the distinction it has enjoyed of the largest circulation among the best people. It secured, and means to retain it, by becoming the medium of the best thought and the voice of the best conscience of the time, by keeping abreast of the highest progress, favoring the freest discussions, hearing all sides, appealing always to the best intelligence and the purest morality, and refusing to cater to the tastes of the vile or the prejudices of the ignorant.

SPECIAL FEATURES.

The distinctive features of The Tribune are known to everybody. It gives all the news. It has the best correspondents, and retains them from year to year. It is the only paper that maintains a special telegraphic wire of its own between its office and Washington. Its scientific, literary, artistic and religious intelligence is the fullest. Its book reviews are the best. Its commercial and financial news is the most exact. Its type is the largest; and its arrangement the most systematic.

THE SEMI-WEEKLY TRIBUN

is by far the most successful Semi-Weekly in the country, having four times the circulation of any other in New York. It is especially adapted to the large class of intelligent, professional or business readers too far from New York to depend on our papers for the daily news, who nevertheless want the editorials, correspondence, book reviews, scientific matter, lectures, literary miscellany, etc., for which The Tribune is famous. Like The Weekly it contains sixteen pages, and is in convenient form for binding.

THE WEEKLY TRIBUNE

remains the great favorite of our substantial country population, and has the largest circulation of any Weekly issued from the office of a Daily paper in New York, or, so far as we know, in the United States. It revises and condenses all the news of the week into more readable shape. Its agricultural department is more carefully conducted than ever, and it has always been considered the best. Its market reports are the official standard for the Dairymen's Association, and have long been recognized authority on cattle, grain and general country produce. There are special departments for the young and for household interests; the new handiwork department already extremely popular, gives unusually accurate and comprehensive instructions in knitting, crocheting, and kindred subjects; while poetry, fiction and the humors of the day are all abundantly supplied. The verdict of the tens of thousand old readers who have returned to it during the past year is that they find it better than ever. Increasing patronage and facilities enable us to reduce the rates to the lowest point we have ever touched, and to offer the most amazing premiums yet given, as follows:

TERMS OF THE TRIBUNE,

Postage free in the United States.

And number of copies of either edition above ten at the same rate. Additions to clubs may be made at any time at club rates. Remit by Draft on New York, Post Office Order, or in Registered letter.

AN AMAZING PREMIUM.

To any one subscribing for The Weekly Tribune for five years, remitting us the price, $10, and $2 more, we will send Chamber's Encyclopaedia, unabridged, in fourteen volumes, with all the revisions of the Edinburgh edition of 1879, and with six additional volumes, covering American topics not fully treated in the original work;—the whole embracing, by actual printer's measurement, twelve per cent more matter than Appleton's Cyclopaedia, which sells for $80! To the 15,000 readers who procured from us the Webster Unabridged premium we need only say that while this offer is even more liberal, we shall carry it out in a manner equally satisfactory. The following are the terms in detail:

For $12, Chamber's Encyclopaedia, A Library of Universal Knowledge, 14 vols., with editions on American subjects, 6 separate vols., 20 vols. in all, substantially bound in cloth, and The Weekly Tribune 5 years, to one subscriber.

For $18, Chamber's Encyclopaedia, 20 vols., as above, and The Semi-Weekly Tribune 5 years.

For $18, Chamber's Encyclopaedia, 20 vols., as above, and ten copies of The Weekly Tribune one year.

For $27, Chamber's Encyclopaedia, 20 vols., as above, and twenty copies of The Weekly Tribune one year.

For $26, Chamber's Encyclopaedia, 20 vols., as above, and the Daily Tribune two years.

The books will in all cases be sent at the subscriber's expense, but with no charge for packing. We shall begin sending them in the order in which subscriptions have been received on the 1st of January, when certainly five, and perhaps six, volumes will be ready, and shall send, thenceforth, by express or mail, as subscribers may direct. The publication will continue at the rate of two volumes per month, concluding in September next.

A MAGNIFICENT GIFT!

Worcester's Great Unabridged Dictionary Free!

The New York Tribune will send at subscriber's expense for freight, or deliver in New York City FREE, Worcester's Great Unabridged Quarto Illustrated Dictionary, edition of 1879, the very latest and very best edition of the great work, to any one remitting

$10 for a single five years' subscription in advance or five one year subscriptions to The Weekly, or $15 for a single five years' subscription in advance, or five one year subscriptions to The Semi-Weekly, or, one year's subscription to The Daily, or, $30 for a single three year's subscription in advance to The Daily Tribune.

For one dollar extra the Dictionary can be sent by mail to any part of the United States, while for short distances the expense is much cheaper.
