It is a source of peculiar satisfaction to the people of Towanda that in ordering groceries they can send a child and rest sure of getting just what they want, and of the best quality, at the lowest price at JAMES MCCABE'S. The reputation this establishment has earned for strict integrity, is creditable to the town and honorable to Mr. MCC., who adds to his honesty a complete knowledge of the grocery trade, and is always prepared to advise his customers when to sell to advantage, as well as how to buy economically.

Superintendent's Notes.

January 15.—Visited the following schools: Towanda, Gregg's, Robert Gregg; Fisher, Clara Walborn; Monroe Graded Schools, C. P. Garrison, Miss Beardsley.

The Gregg and Fisher schools seem to be doing well—the teachers seem to be good disciplinarians. The attendance in Monroe is large, and the pupils orderly and studious. Heard good recitation in primary reading. Examined advanced class in grammar, which did well, showing much thorough patient work.

A team got away from the driver at the upper depot the other evening and started up Packer avenue at full speed. Mrs. H. A. Had the horses continued on their headlong journey there is no telling what the consequences might have been.

Things just as usual; no news, no business, no nothing.

Christmas and New Year's gave us a glimpse of the tone of by-gone days; but now when "Santa Clause," Christmas dinners and New Year's parties are things of the past, the brave descendants of Hector and Priam have settled down to their usual twelve months peace.
