The News Condensed.

The Supreme Court has again sustained the position of the Republicans in Maine. It is said that Jeff. Davis disapproves of the Garcelon plot in Maine.

Michigan is well off financially. Her state debt is $890,000 and she has a sink-fund of $904,000 to offset it.

A Jackson, Miss., special says: Senator Lamar continues to improve, and his recovery is only a question of time.

Orville Grant, the brother of General Grant, has opened a leather store in Chicago.

A movement has been started in England to erect an international memorial to Sir Rowland Hill, the author of cheap postage.

Major Sweet, who was dismissed from the Treasury Department, is the author of a book of poems dedicated to President Hayes.

Senator Blaine is said to be one of the Springer heirs who lay claim to a large tract of land in Delaware, including the site of Wilmington.

Mrs. Garfield is said to be devoting herself to the education of her sons, herself in a great measure carrying forward their studies and fitting them for college.

It has cost the city of Columbus, O., $2,000 in counsel fees to determine whether or not there should be a change of geographies in the public schools.

Mr. Gladstone has gone to Cologne, Germany, in consequence of the serious illness of his sister, who has long lived abroad, and who, it is understood, is a Roman Catholic.

The widow of Senator Morton is in Washington urging the confirmation of her son John as an internal revenue officer at San Francisco. He is opposed by both the California Senators.

Mr. Edward Kimball, known as the "finangelist," raised $17,000 to assist in paying the debt of the Edwards Church Society at Northampton, Mass., last Sunday.

Mr. Alvan Clark of Cambridge, Mass., is making a twenty-nine-inch reflecting glass for the new Yale College telescope. This will be the largest glass of the kind in America.

Hugh McGlenn, a San Francisco miser, has died leaving $200,000 to his wife, whom he many years before turned away because she bought a silk dress. She afterward earned a living as a domestic servant.

The will of Frank Leslie deserves a place among not able tributes to wives. It credits his wife with a large share in the work of establishing his publications and bequeaths to her all his property of every kind, to the entire exclusion of his own sons.

Ex-Senator Pomeroy, of Kansas, is said to be making $1000 a week from a North Carolina gold mine. The correspondent of the Herald of Boston, who relates this, adds that at least one-third of the United States Senators are speculating.

The bread-fruit tree, the product of which the women of the South Sea Islands use as bread, is about the size of an ordinary oak; the fruit is covered with a thin skin, between which and the core lies the part used as bread. This is white and similar to fresh bread in appearance. It is roasted whole or cut into small pieces, after which it becomes soft and more nearly resembles a boiled potato than bread.

A Word With My Customers.

Two years ago, when I came among you a stranger, you kindly extended to me a generous patronage, and our relations have been of the most cordial and I trust mutually beneficial character. I am certain you have all shown me that you were friends indeed, and I have striven to merit your confidence and patronage, and now being about to return to my old home, not because "I love Ceasar less, but Rome more," I desire to give you all some evidence of my appreciation of your friendship, and have decided to offer my entire stock of GENTLEMEN'S FURNISHING GOODS, WINTER SUITINGS, &C., at greatly reduced prices during the remainder of my stay in Towanda.

The goods will be disposed of at a sacrifice in order to close out stock. Hoping to see all my old customers and many who have never visited my store, I remain

Faithfully Yours,
J. DOUTRICK.

FOR THE PRESIDENTIAL YEAR.

"THE LEADING AMERICAN NEWS-PAPER."

THE NEW YORK

TRIBUNE

FOR 1880.

During the coming Presidential year The Tribune will be a more effective agency than ever for telling the news best worth knowing, and for enforcing sound politics. From the day the war closed it has been most anxious for an end of sectional strife. But it saw two years ago, and was the first persistently to proclaim the new danger to the country from the revived alliance of the Solid South and Tammany Hall. Against that danger it sought to rally the old party of Freedom and the Union. It began by demanding the abandonment of personal dislikes, and set the example. It called for an end to attacks upon each other instead of the enemy; and for the heartiest agreement upon whatever fit candidates the majority should put up against the common foe. Since then the tide of disaster has been turned back; every doubtful state has been won, and the omens for National victory were never more cheering.

THE TRIBUNE'S POSITION.

Of The Tribune's share in all this, those speak most enthusiastically who have seen most of the struggle. It will faithfully portray the varying phases of the campaign now beginning. It will earnestly strive that the party of Freedom, Union and Public Faith may select the man surest to win, and surest to make a good President. But in this crisis it can conceive of no nomination this party could make that would not be preferable to the best that could possibly be supported by the Solid South and Tammany Hall.

The Tribune is now spending much labor and money than ever before to hold the distinction it has enjoyed of the largest circulation among the best people. It secured, and means to retain it, by becoming the medium of the best thought and the voice of the best conscience of the time, by keeping abreast of the highest progress, favoring the freest discussions, hearing all sides, appealing always to the best intelligence and the purest morality, and refusing to cater to the tastes of the vile or the prejudiced of the ignorant.

SPECIAL FEATURES.

The distinctive features of The Tribune are known to everybody. It gives all the news. It has the best correspondents, and retains them from year to year. It is the only paper that maintains a special telegraphic wire of its own between its office and Washington. Its scientific, literary, artistic and religious intelligence is the fullest. Its book reviews are the best. Its commercial and financial news is the most exact. Its type is the largest; and its arrangement the most systematic.

THE SEMI-WEEKLY TRIBUNE

is by far the most successful Semi-Weekly in the country, having four times the circulation of any other in New York. It is especially adapted to the large class of intelligent, professional or business readers too far from New York to depend on our papers for the daily news, who nevertheless want the editorials, correspondence, book reviews, scientific matter, lectures, literary miscellany, etc., for which The Tribune is famous. Like The Weekly it contains sixteen pages, and is in convenient form for binding.

THE WEEKLY TRIBUNE

remains the great favorite of our substantial country population, and has the largest circulation of any Weekly issued from the office of a Daily paper in New York, or, so far as we know, in the United States. It revises and condenses all the news of the week into more readable shape. Its agricultural department is more carefully conducted than ever, and it has always been considered the best. Its market reports are the official standard for the Dairyman's Association, and have long been recognized authority on cattle, grain and general country produce. There are special departments for the young and for household interests; the new handwork department already extremely popular, gives unusually accurate and comprehensive instructions in knitting, crocheting, and kindred subjects; while poetry, fiction and the humors of the day are all abundantly supplied. The verdict of the tens of thousand old readers who have returned to it during the past year is that they find it better than ever. Increasing patronage and facilities enable us to reduce the rates to the lowest point we have ever touched, and to offer the most amazing premiums yet given, as follows:

TERMS OF THE TRIBUNE.

AN AMAZING PREMIUM.

To any one subscribing for The Weekly Tribune for five years, remitting us the price, $10, and $2 more, we will send Chamber's Encyclopedia, un-abbreviated, in fourteen volumes, with all the revisions of the Edinburgh edition of 1879, and with six additional volumes, covering American topics not fully treated in the original work;—the whole embracing, by actual printer's measurement, twelve per cent more matter than Appleton's Cyclopaedia, which sells for $80! To the 15,000 readers who procured from us the Webster Unabridged premium we need only say that while this offer is even more liberal, we shall carry it out in a manner equally satisfactory. The following are the terms in detail:

For $12, Chamber's Encyclopedia, A Library of Universal Knowledge, 14 vols., with editions on American subjects, 6 separate vols., 20 vols. in all, substantially bound in cloth, and The Weekly Tribune 5 years, to one subscriber.

For $18, Chamber's Encyclopedia, 20 vols., as above, and The Semi-Weekly Tribune 5 years.

For $18, Chamber's Encyclopedia, 20 vols., as above, and ten copies of The Weekly Tribune one year.

For $27, Chamber's Encyclopedia, 20 vols., as above, and twenty copies of The Weekly Tribune one year.

For $26, Chamber's Encyclopedia, 20 vols., as above, and the Daily Tribune two years.

The books will in all cases be sent at the subscriber's expense, but with no charge for packing. We shall begin sending them in the order in which subscriptions have been received on the 1st of January, when certainly five, and perhaps six, volumes will be ready, and shall send, thenceforth, by express or mail, as subscribers may direct. The publication will continue at the rate of two volumes per month, concluding in September next.

A MAGNIFICENT GIFT!

Worcester's Great Unabridged Dictionary Free!

The New York Tribune will send at subscriber's expense for freight, or deliver in New York City FREE, Worcester's Great Unabridged Quarto Illustrated Dictionary, edition of 1879, the very latest and very best edition of the great work, to any one remitting

$10 for a single five years' subscription in advance or five one year subscriptions to The Weekly, or

$15 for a single five years' subscription in advance or five one year subscriptions to The Semi Weekly, or, one year's subscription to The Daily, or,

$30 for a single three year's subscription in advance to The Daily Tribune.
