Tunkhannock is to have a new Episcopal Church.

The interest question will be discussed by Oscaluwa Grange at the regular meeting Friday evening.

At the late term of court in Williamsport, sixteen prisoners were sentenced, ten of them to the penitentiary.

Passengers who fail to procure tickets on the S. L. & S. RR., are charged five cents extra fare.

The nail mill at Crescent, on the N. C. road, is soon to be started up, under the management of BOSTLEY BROTHERS.

If the publishers of Guyozt's Geographies desire to have them retained in schools, they should revise the work, and bring their maps up to present time.

The mild weather has created a regular panic in the clothing trade, and M. E. ROSENFELD, who always does business on the principle that a "nimble sixpence is better than a slow shilling," is offering the balance of his winter stock lower than ever before.

The congregation of Christ Church enjoyed two excellent sermons yesterday. The preacher, Rev. E. P. BROWNE, is not an attractive speaker in the general acceptance of the term, but he is a sound reasoner, and has a happy faculty of applying the truths of the Bible, while his unostentatious piety and deep earnestness win the attention and touch the hearts of his hearers.

GEO. L. ROSS, at the corner of Main and Elizabeth streets, opposite HUMPHREY BROS. & TRACY'S boot and shoe factory, has a complete stock of Groceries, and most of them purchased—for cash—before the advance in prices, and will be sold at the very bottom figures.

One of our big town cotemporaries styles the REVIEW an amateur printing establishment, but every week copies local items from it without credit, sometimes remarking, "A cotemporary says," &c. The interest manifested in the REVIEW by the people of Towanda is the best endorsement we could desire, and the fact that our cotemporary "looks down upon us," while appropriating our locals, does not dishearten us, and we only refer to the matter to suggest to the Elmira Advertiser that it might publish our items several days earlier, by copying from the REVIEW, instead of reprinting them from "our cotemporary," and giving it credit for news stolen from us.

Troy has 37 street lamps, and burned 58 gallons of oil in December.

Canton will hereafter enjoy free delivery and collection of express goods. JAMES BOTHWELL has been appointed Agent of the Central Express. A good selection for the company as well as the public.

The expenses of the county for the year 1879 were $37,500. We are informed by Clerk LEWIS, that there is a balance of funds on hand of about $3000, and not a penny of indebtedness.

The ladies of the M. E. Church will hold a festival and serve refreshments at the church parlors to-morrow evening. Busy businessmen, and anybody else, can save the trouble of going home to supper by calling at the church parlors any time after 6 o'clock.

Not long since while sitting in JAMES MCCABE'S grocery store, a salesman in another similar establishment entered and ordered a sack of flour sent to his house. Somewhat surprised at the transaction, we inquired of the clerk why he did not buy the article from his employers. The answer explained it. "MCCABE," said he, "always keeps the best brands of flour, and our folks do not."

The annual meeting of the Bradford County Agricultural Society will be held at Mercur Hall on Monday, February 2d, at 2 o'clock in the afternoon. Officers will be elected for the ensuing year, and reports of the Secretary and Treasurer for the past year will be presented. The contract from Hon. BENJ. S. BENTLEY, for the Fair Grounds, will be considered, and arrangements made to take possession of the property early in the spring.

The warm springlike weather of a week ago was not the best to keep the system in a state of health. It had too much of the "green Christmas, fat churchyard" flavor about it. At Alba something like an epidemic broke out. Mr. and Mrs. JOHN REYNOLDS were attacked and lived but a short time. Their son, NATHAN BEYNOLDS, and his wife, were present at their death but were seized with the fever and were unable to attend the funeral. Mr. CARMAN also has been sick, and Mrs. IRAD WILSON is dangerously ill.—Canton Sentinel.

Personal.

JOHN MCCORMICK has been re-elected Clerk of Owego village.

A. G. TATE, of the Williamsport Sun and Democrat, is seriously ill, with little prospect of recovery.

M. V. ELSBREE, of Ohio, is visiting friends in this county, after an absence of nearly thirty years. He has a valuable patent churn for which he is traveling.

EDW. WALKER, the lumber merchant, is confined to his house by sickness.

Hon. H. L. SCOTT, has been confined to his house for several weeks by illness.

Mrs. E. T. FOX, who has been in Philadelphia for some time receiving treatment for her eyes, returned home on Saturday. Although still suffering from impaired vision, her physician gives encouragement that time will entirely restore her.

McKean County Items.

CLERMONT, Pa., Jan. 16, 1880.

The Buffalo Coal Company are mining and shipping from 350 to 400 tons of coal per day. The mines are located at Clermont, McKean County, only ninety miles from Buffalo.

Mr. G. MACFARLANE, Superintendent of the Buffalo Coal Company's works at this place, is spending a few weeks in Towanda, visiting his parents and friends.

The Clermont Brass Band is in a flourishing condition, under the leadership of JOHN NISEL.

FRED JOHNSON, JOHN REESE and MIKE KEEFE run a special train over the J. RR. last night—for their passengers we think.

Guess W. E. BUTTS don't hardly recognize the history of his life through the late rebellion that we see in that beautiful sheet, the Blossburg Industrial Register.

F.

Many of our citizens who have never used the Loyal Sock are doing so this year. Why? Because it is from one dollar to one dollar and twenty-five cents cheaper than the harder coals, and it gives as good satisfaction.

Instruction in painting on porcelain, wood and silk will be given by Miss MEENA BAKER at the residence of M. C. MERCUR, on Chestnut Street. Private lessons, 75 cents; classes, 50 cents.
