P. POWELL, P. M.

A cautious hibernian lady refused to have her son learn the printing business, because he was an "honest b'y, and she would not have a divil made of him."

The festival and supper at the Universalist church parlors last evening, netted the very handsome sum of $41.25. Dr. TAYLOR'S congregation are liberal.

The well at the nail mills has now reached a depth of nearly fifty feet. After the first six feet it is sunk through solid rock, and will not have to be stoned up. At least a hundred loads of the best building stone have been taken out. Twenty-five barrels of water per hour have to be removed, and new veins are struck every day. The blasting will be continued until the supply reaches fifty barrels per hour.

Two lemons, six eggs, two teacupfuls of sugar, two tablespoonfuls of flour, one teacupful boiling water, rich pastry for lining pans. These materials will make two pies. Grate off the yellow rind of the lemons for flavoring, throw away the thick white skin, cut up the remainder of the lemons very fine, being careful not to lose the juice. Add to this the sugar, the yolks of six eggs well beaten, then the flour, and lastly the boiling water. Pour the mixture into the lined pie pans and bake. Prepare an icing with the whites of six eggs, and when the pies are a light brown, spread it smoothly ov r them; return again to the oven and bake a light

The Elmira Advertiser gives the following synopsis of an address before the Palestine Club by our former townsman Re F. D. Hoskins: "A large audience, as, usual, gathered in the parlors of the Y. M. C. A. last evening, which was addressed by Rev. Mr. Hoskins. The subject of the address was announced as Christian Morality. He first adverted to ancient moralists, of whom he spoke in commendation, all of whom he very properly claimed, were eclipsed by the teachings of Jesus. None taught so broad, so pure, so elevated morality, or so much of the gonuine brotherhood of mankind as Christ. The code of morals communicated by Christ, applied to human beings of every condition and of every age. Truth and charity, the speaker regarded as the foundation of Christian morality-truth i judging ourselves and charity in judging others. The teaching of the Old Testament is negative; the teaching of the New Testament positive. The spirit of Old Testament morality is the soul of New Testament teaching and morality. It is not in doing only, but of the spirit existing in the heart, back of the doing. The speaker, incidently referred to the keeping of one day in seven as a rest-day, as a grand philosophical provision, which has been an immense blessing to the human race; he spoke of the power of love and truth, and of the necessity of copying the principless and life of Christ.

Superintendent's Notes.

January 19.-Visited the following schools of West Burlington: Pisgah, Emma Ballard; Village, Delos Rockwell; Froman Hill, Ida Smiley. Miss Ballard is a good teacher, and steadily improving. Mr. Rockwell has a large school and many large and advanced pupils; instructs well, and, if as efficient in dicipline, will succeed well. Froman Hill school just opened under present teacher. Directors J. Blackwell and C. Monroe accompanied to their respective schools, showing much interest in the exercises and discipline of the pupils.
