There are now 56 school districts, and 53 election districts in this county.

The suicide, JONES, will be buried on Sunday.

The Court has granted the petition of the citizens of New Albany to be incorporated as a borough.

A meeting was held in North Towanda, a few evenings since, to take some action looking toward the erection of a borough.

We learn that our enterprising manufacturer, L. B. RODGERS, has made a contract with BOSTLEY & Co. to furnish them with two hundred nail kegs daily.

MONROE AYERS has moved his store to his lot some distance this side of the Grange Hall, and added another story. The second story will be fitted up for the Good Templars.

Mrs. MICHAEL BLAKE died at her home, near the upper depot, yesterday morning. The remains will be interred on Sunday in the Catholic cemetery.

An independent school district has been organized at Carbon Run, out of portions of Barclay and LeRoy townships. The new district has two school buildings.

There is universal complaint at the almost impassable condition of Main street, and yet the borough authorities pay no attention it. The mud could be easily removed now.

The Mercury comes to us in an enlarged form. "Tall oaks from little acorns," and the Mercury may live to become as large and prosperous as any of the great journals of the country.

The people of the Third Ward are very social, and almost every week give some family a "surprise party." The last gathering of this character occurred at Capt. G. V. MYERS' last evening, and a pleasant time the participants had.

A new company is to be organized here soon to develop the mines on the Packer tract. A branch road will be constructed to connect the colliery with the Barclay railroad at Lamoka. The general office will be located here. The work has been placed under the direction of JAMES MACFARLANE, who will be assisted by his sons EDWARD and GRHAM.

ASA PACKER'S MILLIONS.—By an inventory just filed with the Register of Wills, the exact value of the late estate of ASA PACKER is disclosed. The chief item is 167,685 shares of Lehigh Valley Railroad Company's stock, which, after deducting loans held for which the stock is pledged as collateral, is appraised at $5,153,187.50. The stock is placed at $37.50 per share, but is now quoted at 52 1/2, thus increasing the value of the estate nearly $2,500,000. Other stocks and bonds and mortgages are valued at $686,261.75, and real estate, book accounts, furniture, etc., are appraised at $734,424.11. The total value of the estate is figured to be $6,573,878.36.

Personal.

Hon. H. L. SCOTT, who has been confined to his house by illness for several weeks was in town this morning.

F. A. THOMPSON, teacher of the school at Fair View, on the other side of the river, has been compelled to take a vacation on account of ill health.

BERT NICHOLS, who has been employed on a railroad in Colorado, is in town to-day.

Miss PITCHER, of Owego, is visiting her cousin, Miss ETTIE MORROW.

One evening this week a goodly number of G. A. R. boys accompanied by their wives, met at the house of Comrade ED. HEVERLY, taking him and his good wife by surprise, but the plans for the evening's enjoyment were so complete that "everything went merry as a marriage bell," and several hours were most pleasantly and profitably spent.

We are requested to state that Mr. SHERMAN has not resigned the Mail Agency on the S. L. & S. R. R., and has no intention of doing so. By permission of the Post Office Department he has employed a deputy during his illness. H. BONFEY is the deputy.

We are pained to learn that JAMES GARD, one of the men injured by a stump machine a few weeks since, and who was thought to be nearly recovered from the effects of his injury, has suffered a relaps and is again in a critical condition.

Superintendent's Notes.

January 23.—Visited the following schools of Wysox township: Village, J. Jennings; Pond Hill, Charles Felton. Mr. Jennings has the reputation of being a good disciplinarian, and we hope for that school he will prove the report true. Both teachers seem to be succeeding well.

At a depth of 48 feet the drill used in the well being sunk at the nail mill, struck some hard substance, which is almost impenetrable. A blast broke off a few pieces, which are much heavier than stone, and are pronounced by some to be iron.

The Lin-Ta Reception comes off at Towanda, Jan. 29, 1880. (Thursday evening.) and every arrangement is made for an elegant party. One thousand invitations have been issued. WHITE & BEEMAN'S orchestra, of Binghamton, will furnish the music, which will be a No. 1. We understand that a large number from surrounding towns will be present, and there is every indication that Lin-Ta's Ninth Reception will be one of the finest ever given. The orchestra will be the largest that ever played for any reception in Towanda. A complimentary ticket for the editor and family, elegantly gotten up, for which the managers will please accept our thanks and wishes for a grand success.—LaPorte Democrat.
