Mud.
Muddier.
Muddiest.
Later—mud frozen.

The river is having a high time.

No better coal than the Loyal Sock—Only at MALLORY'S yard.

Col. H. B. MCKEAN paid us a pleasant visit this morning, and subscribed for the REVIEW.

The rubbish is being removed from HENRY STREETER'S lot on Main street.

Prayer meeting at your church to-night. Are you going?

Mr. ACKLEY'S singing class begin to think he has deserted them.

The Whist Club will hold their next meeting at Judge MERCUR'S.

Quite a call for dwelling houses, eligibly located. Persons desiring to rent should consult our advertising columns.

Don't neglect the caucuses called for Saturday evening; that is if you are Republican in politics.

The Reporter says there is to be a mite society for the benefit of the Episcopal church at H. W. PATRICK'S on Wednesday evening next.

Miss HELEN CARTER is the custodian of the library of the Musical Association, and the books are kept at the residence of Mrs. DR. CARTER, on Main street.

Mrs. H. E. BABCOCK is spending a few weeks at the celebrated Magnetic Springs, Slaterville, N. Y. Although she has been there but a few days she writes that she feels confident the treatment will prove beneficial.

We understand that D. A. LAMENT and J. P. VAN FLEET have taken a general agency for the Domestic Sewing Machine. Mr. L. has for a long time been connected with the Singer Sewing Machine Co.

There seems to be considerable opposition to the proposed new borough of North Towanda, and it is claimed that nearly all the property holders in the district surveyed for the corporation, have signed a remonstrance in opposition to the borough.

The labor of putting the Nail works in order is nearly complete, and a large number of men are now employed about the establishment. Everything has been done in the most thorough manner. A large amount of pig iron has been purchased, and the mill will be in full blast in a week or ten days.

Mrs. VANDERCOOK, who was buried yesterday, was married and settled in this place 44 years ago, and had continued to reside here until her death. Her husband, the late DANIEL VONDERCOOK, was for many years a prominent business man of this place. Mrs. V. leaves but one child, Mrs. H. H. STEVENS, of Stevensville.

Lin-Ta Reception to-night.

The busiest man in town to-day is Chief Engineer PORTER.

Mr. and Mrs. WM. M. MALLORY are visiting in New York City.

According to the statement of the County Commissioners, there is in Bradford county $6,639,770 worth of real estate, $459,519 personal property, and $195,583, money at interest returned by assessors.

Mr. MCCABE says he has neither a first nor third ward store, but that his establishment is in the heart of the town, "where people most do congregate," and that from many years experience and close application to business, he feels very confident that he can offer inducements to all classes to visit his store. It has passed into a proverb that Mr. MCCABE is "master of the situation" in the grocery and provision line, and to say that you buy goods from him is synonymous with saying you purchase the best in the market, and at the lowest price.

A few days since Postmaster PICKERING, of Elmira, charged Mr. CORNELL, one of the letter carriers with stealing money, and suspended him. At a hearing before the Recorder the accused was discharged. The Free Press says: "JUDSON L. CORNELL, accused of embezzlement by Postmaster PICKERING, was before Recorder PRATT this afternoon for examination. His lawyer, the Hon. H. BOARDMAN SMITH, asked for his discharge on the ground that the complaint did not conform to the statute in declaring the offense embezzlement. Recorder PRATT took the same view, and discharged the prisoner. As CORNELL departed, he remarked that if they wanted to arrest him again they would find him at his house."

The Golden Side.

There is many a rose in the road of life,
If we would only stop to take it;
And many a tone from the better land,
If the querulous heart would make it;
To the sunny soul that is full of hope,
And those beautiful trusts ne'er failleth,
The grass is green and the flowers are bright,
Though the winter storm prevailleth.

There is many a gem in the path of life,
Which we pass in idle pleasure,
That is richer far than the jewelled crown,
Or the miser's hoarded treasure;
It may be the love of a little child,
Or a mother's prayer to heaven,
Or only a beggar's grateful thanks
For a cup of water given.

Better to weave in the web of life
A bright and golden filling,
And to do God's will with a willing heart,
And hands that are ready and willing,
Than to snap the delicate, minute threads
Of our curious lives asunder,
And then blame Heaven for the tangled ends,
And sit, and grieve, and wonder.

Superintendent's Notes.

January 26.—Visited the following schools and teachers: Asylum, Upper and Lower, Frenchtown, S. S. Hillis, Nellie Cavan; Wyalusing, Homet's Ferry, H. Durand; Porterville, Jacob Biles. The Asylum schools are doing well—the efforts of the teachers to maintain good order being seconded by Mr. Hagerman. Much of the disorder in schools would cease if directors generally would be equally firm, and notify pupils to obey or suffer dismissal. Mr. Durand gives general satisfaction.

January 27.—Visited schools as follows: Browntown, J. V. Keeler; Academy, Rev. D. Craft, Mary Goodale and Susie Brooks. Examined classes in reading and geography at Browntown—the geography being remarkably fine. The visit at the academy was short. The patrons are fortunate in having teachers of so much experience, and so well qualified. Directors D. W. Brown and J. F. Blocher also visited their respective schools. Mr. Craft is doing an excellent work in the organization and drilling of the District Institute, and Mr. Blocher, an old teacher, was also a prime mover.
