The Sheriff's Sales yesterday drew together quite a number of capitalists.

The Commissioners have about decided on a plan for the poor-house, and work will be commenced as soon as the spring opens.

The C. Y. M. A. A. have issued invitation for their last grand ball, to be held in Mercur Hall, February 6.

There is a lively trade in old iron now-a-days. Everything in that line brings cash at the nail mill, and the boys have not been slow in finding it out.

An excellent quality of clay, such as is required in constructing the puddling furnaces at the nail mill, has been discovered on GEO. SCOVILLE'S farm. Heretofore the material has been brought from some place in New Jersey.

The Long Valley Coal Company's lands are very near the Cash tract, now the property of Maj. HALE, and other gentlemen in this vicinity. It is well known that there is a rich deposit of coal on these lands, and the opening of the new mines will, we hope, lead to the development of it.

The Reception given by Linta, No. 3, at Mercur Hall last evening, proved what was anticipated, the social event of the season. The guests were numerous, both from home and abroad, and everything passed off to the entire satisfaction of all interested.

The committee having the affair in charge are to be congratulated on their admirable arrangement of the reception.

The "ball was opened" at 9:30, by Chief Engineer PORTER and Miss GOODRICH leading off in the "giddy mazes of the dance."

The coal oil inspector of New Orleans, in a recent report, suggests the following precautions:

The following explosive and dangerous oils and fluids, which comprise two-thirds of the whole quantity consumed in this city, are "carbon oil," with a flashing point of from 65 deg. F. to 80 deg. F., and an igniting point of from 75 deg. F. to 95 deg. F. Next comes "naphtha;" this fluid is the most explosive and dangerous of any of the products of petroleum that are burned in lamps, causing fully three-quarters of the accidents that occur. It is extensively sold under the name of "septoline;" this fluid flashes and ignites at from 6 deg. F. to 7 deg. F., and is liable to explode at any moment. Lastly comes "gasoline," which flashes and ignites at about 0 deg. F. This is extensively used in sugar houses, and in many establishments in this city in metallic apparatuses, and when so used is comparatively safe. I would recommend that parties purchasing oil from corner groceries test the oil before using the same, which they can do in the following simple manner:

Take an inverted cup or saucer; pour on it a teaspoonful of the oil; pass a lighted match or taper across the surface of the oil; if it flashes or ignites it is dangerous.

To those who will persist in burning oils and fluids known to be dangerous, I would recommend them to take the following precautions:

Fill and trim your lamps daily.
Never attempt to fill a lighted lamp.
Burn your lamp with the wick turned up full—never turn down the wick and burn as a taper, for when so burned the gas, instead of being burned with the oil, collects and causes your lamp to explode.

Use burners which are considerably elevated above the body of the lamp.

And if you are determined to light your fire with coal oil, first ascertain if there are any live coals in the grate or fire place. After you have poured on your oil set your oil can in the next room, put your trust in the Lord and touch her off. By observing these rules you may be lucky enough to escape an accident.

A large number of cases will go to the Supreme Court from this County at the coming March term. The Bridge Company take up two cases.

Personal.

G. C. STOLL has gone to Laporte to conduct the Democrat for Mr. MYLETT.

HENRY C. OVERTON, Esq., of Cobden, Ill., is visiting friends in town.

Mrs. NEWCOMB, of Rochester, nee Miss LOOMIS, of Meshoppen, is visiting Miss NELLIE DODGE, and other friends in Towanda.

ARCHIE DEVOE, of the Elmira Free Press attended the Linta Reception last evening, and made us a pleasant call this morning.

Miss KINGSBURY, the talented young lady preacher, will deliver a discourse in the Church of the Messiah (Universalist), on Sunday evening. She is said to be an able and pleasant speaker.

R. C. LOCKWOOD, of Wellsburg, N. Y., was a welcome caller at the REVIEW office last evening. Mr. L. is not only a shrewd business man, but an earnest and intelligent Republican. He believes, with scores of others, that General GRANT ought to be nominated for President, and that he will be.

Our jovial townsman, Hon. JOS. PATTON, narrowly escaped a serious accident Wednesday afternoon. He was returning from a visit to his uncle, Maj. HALE, at Woodside, and when near the lime kiln, where the embankment is some twenty feet high, the hind axle of the buggy broke, precipitating horse, buggy, driver and Mr. PATTON down the bank, landing them on the railroad track. The vehicle was badly demoralized, and Mr. ROBINSON, the driver was considerably bruised. Fortunately Mr. P. escaped entirely uninjured. The accident occurred just about the time the S. L. & S. train going south was due at that point, and the good people of the neighborhood, realizing the imminent peril of the unlucky party, rallied to their relief, and assisted to clear the track in time for the train. Their kind efforts in the matter are appreciated, not only by Mr. PATTON and the driver, but by the owner of the horse and wagon, Maj. HALE.

GAFFY—MELVIN.—The Henry House rang last night with the rejoicing. The event to be celebrated was the marriage of Miss MELVIN with THOS. GAFFY, both of Barclay. After the ceremony, which was performed by Rev. Father KELLEY, the twain-made-one and their friends returned to the Henry House, where the festivities of the occasion were maintained until an early hour of the morning. The fiddler kept his place and the light-fantastic-toe its inertia of motion—that is, it maintained the disposition of a body in action, to continue in its normal condition until the "star dials hinted at morn." Anyhow, the happy pair and their friends enjoyed a most agreeable and festive occasion. With such a send off as this proved to be, and good wishes should prove good luck (as they sometimes do), this, one of the most recent of the embargoes society imposes upon those who would enjoy it, will prove (as it should) of great happiness to the happy pair.
